MINUTES OF THE SIXTY-FOURTH NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Kinston, N. C., November 18, 1908.

The Sixty-fourth Annual Convention of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention met in the Christian Church at Kinston, N. C., at 9:30 o'clock A. M., November 18th, 1908.

After a short song service, and devotional services by E. E. Moore, of Wilson, N. C., P. B. Hall, pastor of the Kinston Christian Church, in a very interesting and hearty manner welcomed the many delegates and visitors to the open hearts and homes of the Kinston brethren, and to the duties of the Convention.

H. C. Bowen, pastor of the Belhaven Christian Church, responded to the address of welcome, in a very spirited and enthusiastic speech.

It was moved and carried that the enrollment of new congregations and new ministers be left to a committee. Committee appointed.

President J. W. Hines then being introduced by P. B. Hall, of Kinston, in a few clear and ringing remarks laid before the Convention his suggestions as president. His address was brief but to the point. He called attention to the work of the past year, referring especially to Wilmington, Spray, Asheville, Fremont and other places. He also called attention to the fact that a number of new ministers had been induced to come into the State. A reference was also made to the work of the Carolina Evangel, and an appeal was made for its greater support. The matter of the deficit was then gone into. It was the suggestion of President Hines that the amount be divided among the churches of the State and that it be raised as early as possible. He recommended changes as follows: That the books be closed on Tuesday preceding the Convention. That every church endeavor to raise at least one dollar for each member enrolled. That the corresponding secretary be elected by the Board and that the Board be changed from five to nine members: three being elected for one year, three for two years and three for five years.

The Committee on Enrollment was named as follows: Jesse F. Moore, C. B. Mashburn.

The roll of churches was called and the following responded through delegates:

Airy Grove, Ayden, Antioch, Armenia, Amity, Bethany, Belhaven, Beulah, Bethel, Concord, Christian Chapel, Dunn, Dover, Edward, Ellsworth, Eden, Fairview, Grimesland, Gospel Light, Greenville, Hookerton, Kinston, LaGrange, Lebanon, Mt. Pleasant, Macedonia, Mill Creek, Trenton, Tuckahoe, Tranters Creek, Wheat Swamp, Wilson, Washington, Wilmington, Union Chapel, Rountrees, Rocky Mount, Richlands, Red Oak, Robersonville, Sts. Delight, Salem, Selah, Oak Grove, Oriental, Pantego, Pleasant Union, and Poplar Chapel.

The next in order was the report of Corresponding Secretary W. G. Walker:

The next in order was the report of the treasurer:

Receipts:

Balance in treasury November 1st, 1907,	$389.15
W. G. Walker,	85.00
W. G. Walker (Pamlico Union)	300.00
	$774.15

Disbursements:

F. L. Davis,	$300.00
J. A. Erwin,	500.00
Balance due Treasurer, J. S. Basnight,	$ 25.85

NOTE:—In view of the fact that funds were slow in coming in through the entire year and the necessity of having immediate settlement of many things, very little of the money has passed through the hands of the treasurer, which would have been regular. With the full approval of the Board, Brother Walker has settled many of the bills as soon as he could get enough money in his hands for that purpose, and the Board would pass upon it in it's different meetings.

On important matters Brother Walker always conferred with other members of the Board before settling, his report showing amounts.

In this explanation is found the reason for no more money passing through the treasurer's hands.

Respectfully submitted,
J. S. BASNIGHT, Treasurer.

Convention sermon by D. H. Petree, LaGrange, N. C. Brother Petree chose for his subject, "Rebuilding the Walls of Jerusalem," and gave to all present one of the best discourses of the whole Convention.

The failure of several speakers on the program caused a material change in arrangements and substitutions were made.

J. R. Tingle, of Ayden, in a brief address presented the work of the Roanoke Union to the Convention. The Roanoke Union had done great work despite hard times and raised over six hundred dollars ($600.00) for Union work.

C. M. Morton, president of the Hookerton Union reported a manifest renewed interest in the work and great prospects for the future.

Announcements and adjournment.

Selections by Atlantic Christian College Quartet.

Duet, by Madams Hooker and Brown.

Address, "Financing the State Work," by S. P. Speigle, pastor Wilson Christian church. Brother Speigle pointed out the needs and requirements of the work, and the best methods for obtaining the greatest results. His address was suggestive and entirely practical from first to last.

Address, "Coming of the Kingdom," by J. J. Haley, Eutis, Fla. Brother Haley's address was scholarly and profound, still simple and interesting. His presentation of the development of world wide Christianity was interesting and instructive. He showed that the progress and development had been growing steadily and surely and that the future ages would reveal in all its fitness the magnitude and glory of Christianity.

W. G. Walker announced the necessity of bringing in the money for State Missions. He also requested all to see C. M. Morton in regard to the Carolina Evangel.

Song, "America."

Adjournment.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Song service.

Devotional services conducted by P. B. Hall.

C. F. Outlaw presented the work of the Jones-Onslow Union. He showed the part which the Jones-Onslow Union in connection with the Pamlico Union and the State Board had taken in the Wilmington work.

The work of the Pamlico Union was presented by J. J. Brinson, of Bairds Creek, and J. A. Saunders, of Kinston. The main point emphasized was the work at Wilmington.

L. H. Cox presented something of the work of the Hookerton Union. R. L. Philpott and G. W. Westbrook presented the work of the Mill Creek Union, while Dr. R. H. Jones, of Winston-Salem, spoke on the work of the Piedmont Union. Dr. Jones spoke of the great opportunity for a great work in the Piedmont District. He emphasized the needs of a District Evangelist.

J. W. Tyndall, of Kinston, then spoke of "Grouping the Churches." His address was strong and convincing, and envoked a warm discussion, participated in by W. G. Walker, J. A. Erwin and R. H. Jones. Brother Tyndall's address was plain and practical and full of good suggestions if we would put them in practice.

The morning sermon was preached by D. W. Arnold, of Greenville, on "The Missing Link—Shall we Find It?" Brother Arnold spoke with much force and vigor, showing that we must add to the glories of the past by our accomplishments of the present. The whole address contained many gems for earnest thought.

Announcements and adjournment.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Devotional service conducted by L. T. Rightsell, of LaGrange.

Thursday afternoon was Atlantic Christian College session, and in very many respects was the ideal session of the whole Convention. President Caldwell announced in the beginning that the formal Convention formality would not be insisted upon, but that the College Spirit would be given full play. Special music was rendered by the Ministerial Students and the College Quartet, which was very much enjoyed by all. Addresses were delivered by several of the young men as follows:

"The Relation of the College to the Home," C. B. Mashburn.

"The Relation of the College to the State," C. F. Outlaw.

"The Relation of the College to the Church," C. M. Morton.

"The College Spirit," Hayes Farish.

The addresses were all up to the standard and did credit not only to the young men, but to the college and to the State as well. They emphasized the possibilities of Atlantic Christian College.

J. W. Tyndall, president of Industrial Christian College, spoke on the work of his institution and presented many interesting facts. Brother Tyndall said that Industrial Christian College was for the young man and the young woman without money. That he took them depending upon God for strength to carry the work forward and that he had never been disappointed. All were glad to get an insight into the working of this institution.

President J. C. Caldwell, of Atlantic Christian College, in a matchless address presented the work of Attantic Christian College. He showed the great work which had been accomplished in the past, referring to the fine body of young men at present studying for the ministry and the great work they were doing wherever they went. He declared if the churches would stand by the college as they should, give it their sympathy and support that he would supply every vacant pulpit in the state. Atlantic Christian College is the redemption of the work of North Carolina, and upon it depends the growth of the Christian Church in the State. He showed that the curriculum and faculty stood as high as any institution in the State. The financial needs were then discussed and President Caldwell closed his address with a strong appeal for funds to blot out the present indebtedness. The appeal was successful, and over eleven hundred dollars was raised in a short while towards the elimination of this debt.

Announcements and adjournment.

THURSDAY EVENING.

After a song and praise service, which was very much enjoyed, a very strong address on "Foreign Missions" was delivered by J. J. Haley, of Eustis, Fla.

Mr. Haley showed the breadth, the depth and fulness of the Christian Plea. He declared that the church could know no geographical bounds, no color nor race lines. That there were no "Foreign Missions," no "Home Missions," no "State Missions" but they were all "Missions." This address was one of vigor and strength and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The next on the program was an address by J. H. Mohorter, of St. Louis, on "Benevolence." Mr. Mohorter is the secretary of the National Benevolent Association of the Christian Church and delivered a great address upon this branch of work. Mr. Mohorter showed what the Christian Church was doing in the way of caring for orphans, old people and indigent sick. He said the association owned eleven institutions, six orphanages and five hospitals and old people homes. The work has grown greatly during the past year. At the close of this address an offering amounting to over one hundred and ninety dollars was taken for the orphanage work.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The devotional services were conducted by Rev. C. F. Outlaw, of Wilson, after which reports on State Mission points were made as follows:

Columbia, I. W. Rogers, minister. Gum Neck, I. W. Rogers minister. Fremont, C. F. Outlaw, minister. Rocky Mount, W. G. Walker, minister. Newbern, C. C Jones, minister. Wilmington, J. A. Erwin, minister.

All of these addresses were brief and to the point, but they showed a great amount of work done during the year. The church at each place was shown to be in fine condition and going forward at a very remarkable rate. The growth at Wilmington was probably the greatest ever recorded. They raised $3,415.88, owned property valued at about $8,000.00 and had a church seating 600.

After a solo by Mrs. J. A. Erwin, of Wilmington, an address on "State Missions" was delivered by Rev. J. A. Erwin, of Wilmington. It was a full and forceful address, delivered in a most characteristic and eloquent manner by one of the ablest preachers of the Convention.

The remaining time was devoted to reports of committees. Upon recommendation of the Nominating Committee the following officers were elected for the ensuing Convention year:

J. W. Hines, of Rocky Mount, president.
J. H. S. Hodges, of Ayden, vice-president.
J. R. Rountree, of Kinston, corresponding secretary.
Geo. Hackney, of Wilson, treasurer.
C. M. Morton, of Wilson, recording secretary.
Mac Holliday, of Dunn, trustee Atlantic Christian College.
Advisory Board: A. J. Moye, R. H. Jones, J. J. Brinson, J. F. Latham, S. B. Taylor, J. C. Cowell and D. P. Bradshaw.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Devotional services conducted by J. A. Saunders, of Kinston, N. C.

Some time was then taken up with hearing the reports of the various committees and with other business of the Convention. (All Committee reports can be found in full on page ——

After the business session a very interesting and instructive Bible School session was held.

C. C. Jones delivered a very interesting black-board address on "Grading the School."

Dr. R. H. Jones spoke on "The Teacher Training Course."

J. B. Roberson, of Raleigh, gave a very forceful address on the "Organized Class."

The Convention then adjourned until 7:30 P. M.

FRIDAY EVENING.

The closing hours of the Convention were exceptionally beautiful and helpful. An uplifting devotional service, conducted by P. B. Hall preceded the College Sermon of the Convention preached by J. C. Caldwell.

Dr. Caldwell chose for his subject "The Sins of the Saints" and in his forceful, eloquent style preached one of the best sermons of the Convention. It was indeed a fitting climax for the work of the greatest Convention of the Disciples of Christ in North Carolina and transported all to such a lofty height that they left the Convention hall for the last time with reluctance, wishing that the good things might continue.

Rev. J. H. Mohorter, of St. Louis, secretary of the National Benevolent Association of the Christian Church was introduced and spoke at length on the subject of the great Centennial Celebration which will take place in Pittsburg, Pa., from the 10th to the 13th of next October. He announced a comprehensive program, and following this he spoke most eloquently and forcibly of the development of Christian thought in the last one hundred years; and of the development of the Disciples of Christ in particular. Beginning with the Declaration and Adsedrs of Thomas Campbell in 1809, the Disciples now number over 1,500,000 in the United States, with a large following in Australia and other parts of the world. Preparations will be made to entertain over 50,000 delegates at Pittsburg.

After a few remarks from Rev. W. G. Walker, the retiring corresponding secretary, the Doxology was sung and the Convention adjourned to meet with the Wilson church in 1909.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

To the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention:

Dear Brethren:—Through the goodness and mercies of our God we are again in Convention assembled. Amid trials and tribulations He has brought us safely through another year of His grace, and we find ourselves in readiness for the reports of the sixty-fourth year of our organized work in this good State. Those who listened to the reports of the first of these sixty-four years of work are gone to their eternal reward. Few of us have heard the reports of even thirty years ago. Time has changed the faces that attend these Conventions and with the changing years have come and gone the workers, new and old. Some have braved the winter's chilling blasts, and some have known the trying heat of many a summer's sun, but never wearying have remained faithful to the end, or even, yet. Others there are who have tired of the hardships; who have grown discouraged for the lack of proper support and have sought more remunerative and more pleasant fields; while some have waned into indifference and have given up the battle because it could not be won in a day ;and yet, there remain enough of us to carry on the work of the Lord, to some extent, if not as well as we would like, and to gather in this annual meeting where we can enjoy each other's fellowship, cheer each others spirits and plan for greater undertakings for Him Who died to redeem us the life that knows no end.

The report which the State Board has to bring to this Convention is not what that Board would have it by any manner of means, but we have done the best that we could under the trying circumstances of the year and can only plead that a more loyal support would have enabled us to have brought you a better record of the year's work. There are many things that can never be put into a report like this, but this year more than usual. Many of them are little things that have made the work more difficult to do. Some of them are things that had to be undone; which only time, patience and the Christ spirit could ever effect. Much of the work was such as no one but the one doing it and God could ever know and yet it was just as necessary to the ultimate outcome as anything done during the year. A few thing done might have been left undone but for the fear of risking it. It was determined that success must be attained and no stone was to be left unturned that had anything to do with the end in view. Your Corresponding Secretary has worked day and night, denying himself many things, that this Convention might not be a failure. He has buried his own feelings and his own will not a few times in order to a successful outcome. In it all the hand of our Saviour has been felt and the strength and blessing of our God recognized. Whatever of strength has been ours, to Christ be the praise. Whatever of success we have known, to God be the glory. We feel a deep sense of humility before God for being privileged to serve Him in this work another year.

Upon the flood-tide of the most successful year that the State Work had ever known we all went out from Belhaven with greater visions of the future and with greater determinations than ever before. But since every tide must ebb as well as flow, such an experience seemed alike inevitable, for us in this work. "Hard times come a knocking at the door" and our ardor goes through a chilling process and we have visions of falling larders and empty pocket books that eclipse those had upon the mountain top of a Convention transfiguration. The forced peace and compelled affiliation of a great and successful work together with the overwhelming greatness of the Convention that followed did not reign supreme always and for a time it seemed as if everything must go to wreck in spite of all efforts to save the Ship of Zion in the tempesteous waters of the Old North State. The ship was finally steered to an harbor of safety, a part of her crew saved and after some repairs to her running gear and her rigging she continued her journey to this fair port, where she is well anchored for another great Convention.

The work of the year has been so much scattered that it is a little difficult to get it in shape for a concise report, such as we would like to make for the Convention, and yet we have done our best to make everything stand out and not to be too lengthy withal.

From the report of the Committee on Evangelization, which report was accepted by the last Convention we learn that quite a bit of work was given your Board to be done during this convention year. Indeed, more than the report of the Apportionment allowed for, in asking the churches for the finances with which this work was to be done. We here ask the attention of the Convention to the separate items of the report that had largely to do with the work of the Board. Item: 1 reads:

"1. That the Board continue in conjunction with the Pamlico Union to support the work at Wilmington. We further recommend that the churches throughout the State set apart and observe one Lord's Day in June 1908, as Wilmington Day, and that an offering be taken at that time to assist them in paying for their lot and erecting a house of worship. "

The Wilmington work has been continued and with great success as will be learned by the special report from that field which will be given in due time. On account of the changes that took place the Wilmington Day could not be reached in June as directed by the Convention, but the spirit, if not the letter of this wish of the Brethren was carried out in July and that month was devoted to this undertaking, but with meagre returns. A special issue of the Evangel was gotten out in the interest of this work and letters sent to all the preachers and church clerks; envelopes gotten up and sent to all the clerks for their respective churches, and in many ways was this most important matter urged upon the people of the State. While we were disappointed with the outcome of all this work as there was only $229.61, in all contributed as a result of this effort, yet we feel that the Board did all that was within its power to make this matter a success. What was done by the churches in this is really a shame upon them, when the gifts and work of the Wilmington church are compared. After so few responded at the time we were in hopes that many would remember this work when money was a little more plentiful and bring their Wilmington offering to this Convention, but here again we have met with disappointment in this matter. Some of the strongest churches n the State have had no part in the matter. And yet, our Lord would teach us in His Word that "the strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak." May the delegates from these churches go home and yet raise a sum with which to help this splendid baby church among us.

The second item of the report reads as follows:

"2 That they supplement the funds raised by Rocky Mount so as to secure a strong man for that important center."

This the Board stood ready to do and a good man was sought for the work with this in view, and but for the change that affairs took the man would no doubt be on the ground and doing a great work at the present time. It would seem that it was almost fortunate that the Board was not successful in getting such a man, for he could not have been supported without greater liberality on the part of the churches and more prompt taking of the State Missions Offering. We had to let up on this when there was nothing in sight with which to support the work.

The third item reads:

"3 That an appropriation be made to the work at Columbia and at Gum Neck."

These appropriations were made, allowing Columbia $50.00 and Gum Neck $75.00, the amounts that were necessary to keep Brother Rogers in that field.

Item four reads:

"4 That the State Board ask the Roanoke Union to cooperate with them in planting the cause in the important city of Greensboro."

As yet Roanoke Union has not said whether it will unite with the State Board in this great work or not but we are in hopes that it will. The Union had thought of going to Elizabeth City, but we believe those who looked into the situation there have come to the conclusion that it would hardly be practicable just now to enter this field. This may open up the way for this splendid Union to join the State Board in this undertaking. We are in hopes that either the Roanoke Union or the Hookerton Union will help the State Board to make possible at Greensboro a great work like that done at Wilmington by virtue of the fact that the Pamlico Union joined hands with the State Board. But for this the work at Wilmington would have been only a matter of talk so far. Now it will be to the eternal glory of that Union. There are greater possibilities, if anything at Greensboro.

The fifth item reads:

'5. That they co-operate with the Piedmont Union in securing an evangelist for the western part of the State."

This Union was visited by the President and Corresponding Secretary with this in view and the arrangements were partially effected but owing to the turn that affairs took immediately thereafter the matter had to be dropped so far as the State Board was concerned, though we believe that this is one of the best moves that can be made for our cause in this section of the State. It would mean much to us in the future. We hope that it can be done this next convention year.

The sixth item is to the effect "That Fremont be aided in securing a minister." This was done and Brother Outlaw has labored there during the entire convention year.

The seventh item reads:

"7. That an appropriation of $8.33 1-3 a month be made for the work at Spray, with the understanding that after this year they will become self-supporting, as they themselves have declared this to be their purpose."

This appropriation was made and Brother T. S. Frost has been supported in the work at this point through one of its most trying years on account of the panic, which shut down about all of the mills for quite a period of the year, and Brother Frost has done well in staying in this field. It is much to his credit as a Christian minister.

The eighth item has nothing to do with our work immediately, as a Board.

"9. We also recommend that instead of employing an Evangelist for one whole year, that special evangelistic campaigns be encouraged, and that the State Board assist churches in securing the services of capable evangelists, as the needs demand, and the funds at their command permit."

On account of a lack of funds the Board has been hindered from carrying out to any very great extent this policy of the last Convention. Besides what the Corresponding Secretary did there was only one place helped in this way, and that was the work at Wilbanks, where Brother J. A. Erwin was supported in a meeting.

We were planning to have Brother John Thomas Brown in the State for such work during the summer months, but on account of the financial situation had to give it up just about the time that we had the plans complete. We are sure that Brother Brown was disappointed, as were we, but we did not feel safe in going further with the matter when there was nothing in sight with which to guarantee such work. If we guaranteed we wanted to be able to make good. We only meant to supplement what he raised on the ground when it was needed and the case demanded it. This is a work that to be looked after another year. We hope to help a number of our weaker churches through our preacher students another year. At least we see quite an opportunity for such a work if properly directed.

Item ten reads.

"10. That the congregations that have regular preaching allow their minister to conduct an evangelistic meeting in some needy field during the year."

We encouraged this as much as we could and a meeting was arranged for Fremont, where Brother G. F. Cuthrell did the preaching. The Dunn church supported this meeting by granting Brother Cuthrell the time to hold it at their expense. This was a beautiful ministry on the part of both church and preacher to this struggling band. May they secure a good man for this next year and repeat this work in some other needy field.

The eleventh and last item of this report reads:

"11. That since there is in the city of Tarboro a well-equipped and unincumbered Hospital and Nurses' Training School, which is offered our National Benevolent Association, as a gift, that we co-operate with them in every way possible in securing and managing the same."

There was some corresponding between the National Benevolent Association and your Board in reference to this matter and the committee appointed visited the hospital and made a report through your Board, but as yet nothing has been consummated in the arrangements for the taking over of the hospital.

The report of the Committee on Literature had to do with the work of your Board during this Convention year. It reads:

"The Committee on Literature desires to commend the Executive Board on the publication of the Carolina Evangel and for their good management in giving to the Brotherhood a clean and aggressive paper, free from personal controversy and symbols of commercialism, and a paper that is representative of the advancement of the new spirit of evangelistic activity.

"1. The Committee recommend that the State Board continue the publication of the Carolina Evangel as the official organ of the North Carolina Missionary Convention.

"2 That the Carolina Evangel be incorporated in the law of the church of the State of North Carolina.

"3. That a suitable permanent headplate be made for the Evangel 4" That the Minutes of this Convention be published in the Carolina Evangel, and that the publication in pamphlet form, as heretofore, be discontinued.

"5. That a liberal distribution of tracts calculated to enlighten and convert sinners and such as will instruct Christians in holy living and liberal giving, be made, and that donations for this purpose be encouraged.

"6. That a competent young man be employed to act as colporteur, to sell good religious books, distribute tracts, act as agent for Atlantic Christian College in distributing catalogues and other literature on Christian Education; that he also solicit subscriptions for the Carolina Evangel, at the discretion of the Board".

P. B. HALL, Chairman.

There was some discussion in reference to the proposition to print the Minutes of the Convention in the Evangel and cut off the expense of their publication in pamphlet form as heretofore. A motion prevailed that they be printed in the Evangel and also in the regulation form as has been the custom. The pamphlet was ordered printed by a vote of the Convention.

There was also some discussion in reference to the employment of the colporteur as recommended. This matter was finally left to the discretion of the State Board. The report as a whole was adopted with the single exception of the Minutes being printed alone in the Evangel.

The Evangel has been continued as ordered though not as successfully as we would like for it to have been. We had hoped that it might be built up in many ways. We did not secure the head plate for the reason that money has been scarce and we felt that it could be gotten along without for awhile. We think there should be such a plate made and used in the printing of the Evangel. The Minutes of the Convention were published in both the Evangel and in pamphlet form as ordered by this Body. Instead of printing the President's address in a separate pamphlet, as ordered by the Convention, it was included in the pamphlet with the Minutes of the Convention. Our distribution of tracts has been meagre on account of a lack of funds We have distributed a few at the cost of your Secretary. The last item in this report is a very important one and should be carried out another year if it is at all possible. It reads:

"6. That a competent young man be employed to act as colporteur, to sell good religious books, distribute tracts, act as agent for Atlantic Christian College in distributing catalogues and other literature on Christian Education; that he also solicit subscriptions for The Carolina Evangel, at the discretion of the Board."

The carrying out of this would mean much in many ways to the work in this state. It is to be hoped that some arrangement can be made for the carrying out of this feature another year.

The second and third items of the report from the Committee on Atlantic Christian College had to do with the work of your Board. They read:

We further recommend the present enthusiastic agitation for our college among the churches and preachers be continued and that every preacher preach a special sermon to his church or churches some time in the near future on the importance of A. C. College to our work and make a special effort to enlist our entire membership for A. C. College to the end that the entire indebtedness of the College be paid by or at the Nevember State Convention 1908.

We further recommend that the trustees buy the house and lot adjacent to the College property, and fit up same for boy's dormitory. We make the above recommendation in view of the fact that our boys have no home."

In reference to the first item, we have tried in every way to continue the enthusiastic agitation for Atlantic Christian College that the Convention urged. In our speeches before the churches and the Unions the College has been made to stand out as a prominent feature of the work, indeed, as the most prominent feature. Through the paper in many ways, we have kept the matter before the readers. We believe that the present interest in the College, and also the present attendance are somewhat due to this agitation. We have been impressed thus in going around among our people. We have tried to let the people know what a splendid man we have at the head of this College work, better than whom we have not in the Brotherhood. In spite of the fact that the College lost our dear Dr. J. J. Harper, without whose unselfish efforts there would doubtless have been no school now, the school work and the attendance have gone on unbroken, indeed, the interest and the attendance have both greatly increased. A thing almost, if not quite unparalleled in college work, under similar circumstances. The Brotherhood ought to be fully impressed with this fact in order that they may properly appreciate him who is their leader in college work in this state. We have tried to give due emphasis to the work of the splendid institution.

Carrying out the wish of the Brethren in the second item of the Atlantic Christian College report we co-operated with Brother George Hackney, the chairman of the Board of Trustees, in securing the Thomason property for a boys' dormitory. We feel that this is one of the best moves that has been made in the direction of building up a great school. The number of boys in attendance at the College is double the number we have been having heretofore.

The Detailed Undertakings of the Board.

We here give in detail the work of the Board for the present year. We cannot take the time to give every detail connected with the work but will endeavor to set before you briefly the separate undertakings.

The State Board Meetings

As last year we attempted to have a meeting of the State Board with as many of the Unions as possible. In this, because of the peculiar circumstances of the year's work, we were not so successful as last year. We had fewer Board meetings than last year, thus saving some of the expense connected therewith. Of necessity the Board has done most of the work through Vice-President Geo. Hackney and the Corresponding Secretary. The financial part of the work has been pulled through with, the very best we could, under the circumstances, and have been most trying upon him who reads your report.

But for the kindness of Brother Hackney on a number of occasions there is no telling what would have happened. We need a permanent fund very badly. Other states have them. They call upon this fund when there is a shortage in the receipts from the churches and then it is replaced by the time the Convention rolls round. The need of such a fund was greatly felt this year.

There was but one call for the meeting of the Advisory Board with the regular State Board. This was upon the occasion when it became necessary to consider the resignations of President A. B. Cunningham and your humble servant as Corresponding Secretary, which resignations became necessary on account of existing financial conditions. The situation was thought to be of sufficient moment to the work to have a meeting of the full board which was had in May, at which time the above mentioned resignations were offered and acted upon. The resignations were offered to take effect the first of June, provided settlement was made. The matter was largely left in the hands of Brother Hackney for final settlement. The Corresponding Secretary was put in the field to raise a special fund with which to make settlement. Settlement was finally made with Brother Cunningham and he left the work in June. Settlement was not made with the Corresponding Secretary and he has had to continue until this day.

The Board has had what meetings it thought were absolutely necessary and has served you the best it could under the circumstances. It has been handicapped very much in its work on account of the shortness of funds with which to work.

The Collection of the A. C. C. Belhaven Pledges.

Following the last Convention we pushed the matter of collecting the pledges that were made on the bonded debt ot Atlantic Christian College. Owing to the financial collapse that came soon after the Convention the matter of collecting in many cases became very trying. Many letters were written and a number of visits made in the effort to collect by both the President and the Corresponding Secretary. A number would not pay their pledges because of the fact that they had determined to wait until all the rest had paid. If some of these had paid we believe that much more of the money pledged would have been collected. Some of them paying would have caused others to pay. We are, indeed, sorry that more could not have been done, but we can only plead that we did our best as we see it.

The Employment of A. B. Cunningham.

In order to do all that devolved upon the Board it was necessary for more than one man to be employed and arrangements were made with Brother Cunningham, President of the Board, to continue with his work on the paper and to help the Corresponding Secretary in the office work. For various reasons, not necessary here to mention, Brother Cunningham and your humble servant were unable to build up the circulation of the Evangel and after seven months financial conditions came to be such that two men could not be supported and the change came about as mentioned before in this report.

The Employment of C. M. Morton.

It was necessary to have some one in the office when the Secretary was away, also some one to act as Office Editor of the paper, copying matter for the paper and looking after the work of getting out the paper generally. After a week's work by Brother G. H. Crumpler, when he left to take up other work, Brother C. M. Morton was engaged as Office Editor. Brother Morton entered at once into the spirit of things and could be trusted to do a great many things in the office without fear on the part of the Corresponding Secretary. He answered many letters, wrote a good deal of copy for the paper, got up the News Notes a good deal of the time, when the Secretary was away, and looked after the mailing of the paper and many other things too numerous to mention. We were agreeably surprised at his ability to go ahead with things in a very short time after he begun. He deserves much credit for this service and it was all done at such a reasonable figure. He showed a willingness to sacrifice for the good of the Cause. We hardly see how we would have gotten along with the work after Brother Cunningham left had it not been for his services. We would have had to remain almost altogether in the office and then much work that we attempted to do would have gone undone.

The Carolina Evangel.

Pursuant to the order of the Convention the Carolina Evangel has been continued through the year. Many have shown an appreciation for it and a number have written for its columns, while others have taken but little interest in it, if we are to judge by that which can be seen and felt. Some have treated it as though it were a private enterprise, being run in the interest of some man's pocket book, who was making bushels of money and who could afford to furnish postage, stationery, etc., etc., for those who wrote and a percentage to those who collected a few dollars on subscriptions or sent in a new subscriber. We are glad to know however, that all were not of this stripe. Some gladly did what they could to make it a success.

Many have as yet failed to pay their subscription as though the Board could afford to send the paper to them free. There are some to whom it should be sent without cost. This has been made possible through the liberality of a few who have sent in several dollars that others might enjoy it who were not able to pay for it themselves. We would that all the preachers would come to appreciate what the paper means to the work in a general way as some do and that they would help to build up a worthy subscription list and see to the collections in their respective fields. This would be a great help and would cost them but little time and effort.

This paper going into the homes of the Disciples all over the State every week would mean so much to the work. Why can't we see it? Think of what the paper has meant to the College. It has done more to increase the interest in Atlantic Christian College, and to let the people know what the school amounts to than any one other agency, yes, than any two other agencies combined. The College pictures, the Class pictures, the Society pictures, the Student's pictures, and the College news together with the different write-ups that have been given the College through the Evangel during the year have meant more than many of us could dream, to the building up of this school. In the College work and the State work the Evangel has been worth two or three men going all the time and telling the people about these interests, not to say anything about the pleasure that such a medium of communication affords. Think of the benefit to the Unions in publishing their programs and their Minutes. How would they communicate with those who do not attend their meetings if it were not for some such medium as the Evangel?

Brethren, we have tried to make the paper mean everything possible to the work in this State.

In addition to this we felt that since South Carolina was too weak to support a paper by itself and since the two states should work together in the building up of a good paper we visited that Convention and invited them to join us in the paper, allowing them a page and relieving them of all responsibility for the paper except that common to every subscriber. We hope in time that the paper may come to mean very much to both states and one day we will have a great paper between us, to help in spreading the news of the Kingdom. The paper has caused a number of the South Carolnia Disciples to look toward Atlantic Christian College. We already have some from that State and before another year for our College has passed we hope to see a number more added to the list of South Carolina attendants. So the work of the paper has continued through the year.

Evangelistic Work.

We had hoped to do a great deal of Evangelistic work during the year but have been disappointed in this, in many ways. First, the Corresponding Secretary was hindered from holding as many meetings as he had expected to. Then, because of the turn that things took, as mentioned before, we were unable to have others do what we had hoped to. Besides we had hoped to unite with the Hookerton Union in having an Evangelist in that district, also, the same for the Piedmont district. Both would have been very wise moves and should be undertaken as soon as possible.

A meeting was held at Westrys, near Rocky Mount, by your Secretary. He had promised Brother J. S. Overman, that if he would secure a lot and get enough help to build a house to the using point, that we would give them a two weeks meeting. This we did and organized a church as a result. Brother Mashburn, who was serving the Beulah church as preacher, preached there during a good part of the year, on first Sunday afternoons. It was not only very kind of him to do this, but very kind of the Beulah brethren to allow their minister this liberty. It cheated them out of a service. We feel that both preacher and church deserve praise for this unselfish service. We don't wonder that such a church would reach its full apportionment for State Missions, both the church and the Sunday School. Some good substantial material was gotten into this congregation and they have been moving forward since, buying an organ and improving the property of the church.

Our next meeting was with the Farmville church and was a very good one. Brother J. D. Bowles assisted us in this meeting as singer. There was some good material added during this meeting. A visit was made the Sunday following the meeting and a move was made toward a new church building. By virtue of the fact that the congregation was without a preacher following this meeting the work on this church has not progressed as rapidly as might have. Now that Brother C. M. Morton has taken up the work there we may expect this congregation soon to be well housed and ready for greater things in the future work of that important field.

We had expected to go to LaGrange for a meeting soon after the Farmville meeting, but on account of the busy season the meeting was called off for a while and has not been held yet. Instead of going to LaGrange we went to Scotland Neck for a meeting of ten days. Brother Bowles assisted us in this meeting. We had no additions, though we went there thinking that we would be able to organize a church. The time was not ripe for us in Scotland Neck and we made no effort to have additions but took up the time after we learned how the ground lay by preaching along the ground of our teachings, setting forth in full the position that we occupy. This meeting was held in the Baptist church of Scotland Neck, one of the strongest Baptist churches in the State. The use of the church was donated, together with the use of the Pipe Organ and the services of the choir. The minister and leading members attended regularly and helped in many ways. It was the hottest weather of the summer and yet the audiences and the interest were great, indeed. We have never enjoyed a meeting more, nor, do we count that we have ever held a greater meeting in our entire ministry. We have never preached the doctrine more strongly in one of our own churches and it was never received more graciously by our own people than it was by these good people. There is no good reason why the Baptist and our people should be longer separate and distinct bodies, if we can come to understand each other properly. We need a little more counting and a little more unprejudiced teaching and we will be able to get together.

Just previous to the Scotland Neck meeting Brother Bowles and your Secretary concluded a meeting which was being held at Fremont by Brother Cuthrell, in five nights of service. The weather was bad and not much was accomplished but it was better than to have the meeting close where it was. Brother Cuthrell had remained as long as he could.

Beginning on the first Sunday in August a ten days meeting was held at Mt. Pleasant church, near Greenville, with Brother Morton as minister to assist. There were several additions and we believe much good was done. Some seed were sown from which there will be after results. The heavy rains interferred very greatly with this meeting, though there were good audiences all the while.

Beginning on August 18th, an eleven days meeting was held at Bridgton, across from Newbern. We went there fully expecting to organize a congregation, but owing to a combination of local circumstances it was deemed wise not to organize at the time. The additions had and the members living there were advised to place their membership in the Newbern church for the present. The Newbern preacher and the members of his church attended all that they could and rendered valuable assistance in the meeting. Owing to the rain our meeting was not the success it might have been.

The next meeting held was at Reidsville, which began on September 2nd., Brother J. D. Bowles assisting with the music. We were in this meeting for two weeks and while there was only one addition, we believe that a great foundation has been laid for future work. We could have had a number of additions and have organized some kind of a congregation but we thought it unwise just at that time though it would have been to our credit to have organized here and elsewhere if we had been concerned about immediate results alone.

Besides these meetings your Secretary made monthly visits to Rocky Mount, visited the Piedmont Union, Asheville, the National Convention, and supplied for Farmville two Sundays.

A meeting was arranged for and held by Brother J. A. Erwin, of Wilmington, at Wilbanks, near Wilson, in which a church was organized with 23 members. A lot is being secured, much of the lumber has been sawed for a building, and a preacher engaged. Brother Erwin deserves credit for this meeting, and the community, which is almost a churchless community deserves credit for the way in which it has supported the move toward a church. We hope to have a good strong church there within a few years. One of our young men at the College has been called to this church. This suggests to you what such a work around Wilson means for the future.

It must be remembered that while the Corresponding Secretary was in the meetings that he held that he was looking after the work of his office and putting in almost full time, either writing for the paper or attending to his correspondence, which in itself is no little matter.

Special Fields of Work.

There are a number of places in which the State Board has been more or less interested financially, that must have special mention.

Gum Neck.

I. W. Rogers has been laboring in this field during the entire year, leading it in the building of a house of worship besides the preaching that he has done.

Columbia.

Here we have been helping another year that this little, but faithful band might make great effort to pay off the debt on their splendid little house of worship. They have worked away at this debt faithfully and it has been considerably reduced in spite of the fact that it belongs to that section which was greatly affected by the rains of the past three years, not to say anything about the general financial depression of the year. You will also hear from Brother Rogers in regard to this field.

Macclesfield.

Here Brother A. F. Leighton labored the greater part of this Convention year. As this congregation was also trying to lift the debt upon its property and at the same time trying to finish their house it was deemed well to assist it in the employment of a preacher and some aid was granted here. We feel that quite a nice little congregation will be built up at this point eventually. The first day of January will mean quite a good deal to this field as well as some other small towns that have been cursed with red liquor.

Fremont.

As stated above Brother C. F. Outlaw has been supported in this field and has done quite a good work in spite of many draw-backs, such as sickness and death in his family and that of his father's. No greater work has been done by any set in the State than by the few faithful in Fremont. They have one of the best houses of worship to be found in the State. It is the result of sacrifice and toil, and right richly does this struggling congregation deserve the help that has been rendered in the support of its preacher. A great work has been done at this point and the foundation has been laidfor a greater work, though the Cause will grow rather slowly in Fremont.

Spray.

The work at this important field has had a most trying trying experience this year on account of the mills closing down. We have had a good man on the ground, one who was ready to sacrifice for the sake of the Cause and he would not likely have been there but for the help that the Convention promised He has held this congregation as well as anyone whom they could have had and the work continues there unbroken in spite of the terrible times that the town has been knowing during the financial stringency through which we have passed this year.

Asheville.

This important field was granted assistance for this year before the Belhaven Convention in order to secure a minister to follow up the work that had been done there in the Taubman meeting. We feel that no mistake has been hade in this. Brother O. J. Helsabeck has been faithful with this band, assisted by his good wife, and a splendid work has been done. Financially the congregation has been greatly weakened during the last twelve months, by removals and other causes. Your Secretary visited there recently to find the number that remains more thoroughly united than perhaps ever in the history of the church and willing to make great sacrifices for the cause Those that were left have increased their contributions to the work to make up for four of their largest givers, who were the ones that were lost to them. They are ready for work and are doing good work, both men and women.

Rocky Mount.

Since no one has been secured for this work, as stated before, your Secretary has visited this congregation each month with the exception of one month, when Brother Caldwell went for him, preaching on the third Sunday. While no advance movement has been made during this time, the work has been held together somewhat by these visits and the congregation is more than ready to go forward when the right man can be secured for the place, with some assurance of support. We have asked this congregation to furnish half of what would be considered a fair amount for such service, allowing the State to bear the expense of the other half.

Newbern.

The Board co-operated with the Newbern brethren in the securing of a good preacher and promised them one hundred dollars, if necessary, on the preacher's salary, the Home Society furnishing two hundred. The year began with the first of June. A great work is being done and many improvements made, until we feel that such assistance was well worth while. We look for this congregation to soon become one of the strongest among us. It is already one of the most active. We have no better man for our work than Brother C. C. Jones. He is bringing modern methods of work into play and our people will be taught much that is worth while in church work by this splendid man of God. He has recently led that church in a most splendid meeting and our work has been brought forward in that city no little by his progressive work.

Wilmington.

There is so much to be said about this work and its workers that we hardly know where to begin, much less where to leave off Brother F. L. Davis finished out his year, which be brief. Brother F. L. Davis finished out his year, which ended with the first of March, leaving on account of the fact that the pay did not meet his living expenses, as he said, and he could not afford to work where he was running behind to the injury of the cause. Judge J. A. Erwin has been a very worthy successor of Brother Davis and he and his good wife have led this young congregation on to great things in the Master's work, until the whole state is proud of the work that has been done in this great field. There is now a splendid house of worship, located on one of the best situated lots in the entire city. It would seem that the smile of providence has been upon this work this year. God has been leading the hosts at Wilmington.

Thus in the different fields has the work gone on during the present Missionary year. We could have told more about several of these fields, but since their representatives are to be heard in behalf of their respective fields, we have only given that which was necessary for the permanent report—the report that is to be preserved in the Minutes. Considering everything a splendid year's work has been done in those fields that have been assisted by your Board.

W. G. WALKER,
Corresponding Secretary.

D. W. ARNOLD,
Committee.

Auditing Committee.

We, your Auditing Committee respectfully submit the following report:

We have looked over the books of the Corresponding Secretary and also that of the Treasurer, and so far as anything can be told in their unbalanced condition, which is due to the fact that money has been received during the Convention that the Secretary could not use in balancing the books when he prepared his report, and the further fact that this money could not be turned over to the Treasurer, by the Board in regular form, to be correctly reported.

Not being able to properly audit the books on account of the unfinished financial business, we recommend that the books be closed and audited by a competent accountant previous to the next Convention.

Further, we recommend that the Board have the books for this Convention audited by such an accountant, as soon as they can be put in shape for such work, and a report published concerning the condition in which they are found.

Paid on Thomason property, (Boy's Dormitory) . . .	2,594.57
Grand Total,	$11,952.57

By comparing the receipts of this year with those of last it will be seen that the Churches, Sunday Schools and Individuals contributed $513.76 more this year than was realized from the same sources last year. In view of the bad crop conditions and the "hard times" that have been upon us, generally, during this entire year, we ought to feel much encouraged over the outcome, in spite of the fact that we are considerably in debt as we close the Convention year. This indebtedness is largely due to the fact that the Belhaven Convention gave this Board more to do than had been formerly given and the further fact that the work had gone directly on for three consecutive years without a break, leaving no large sum in the treasury to begin the year on. Considering everything with which we have had to contend during the year, we feel in bringing you this annual report that we are presenting a marvelous record.

We wish to submit for your consideration the following amounts as outstanding against the Convention, the Board not having been in a position to meet these in settlement of same on account of lack of funds:

Amounts Due November 21st, 1908.

George Hackney,	$ 372.97
Atlantic Christian College Dollar Crusade fund,	429.15
C. B. Mashburn, (preaching at Lowlands),	10.00
I. W. Rogers, (Gum Neck and Columbia),	125.00
T. S. Frost, Spray,	125.00
C. F. Outlaw, Fremont,	35.75

C. M. Morton, (balance on salary),	50.00
C. C. Jones, (Balance sent by A. C. M. S.)	16.66
A. F. Leighton, Macclesfield,	35.00
C. C. Jones, (1-4 salary,)	25.00

OBITUARY

J. J. HARPER. by C. W. Howard

In the passing away of Elder J. J. Harper we lost one of our greatest and best preachers in North Carolina. Brother Harper was born and raised in Johnson county on a farm. He was a son of Brother John Harper, a prominent and successful farmer of that county. He died in January 1908, of pneumonia, after about one week of intense suffering. He was about sixty-six years old, but up to his death-sickness he was an active and strong man both mentally and physically.

His life had been a very useful one, more so than most of men with his opportunities. He had a liberal education, but was not a college man, never having attended a college as a student in his life. He took advantage of every opportunity to educate himself in his boyhood and young manhood days, in his own community, and began preaching when quite young. After he commenced preaching he left home and went to school to Elder Josephus Latham, who was an excellent man, a good teacher and a successful preacher.

After stopping school he continued to study in a systematic way until he mastered the English language and acquired some knowledge of other languages, and was well equipped for whatever he under took to do. He posessed great mental power and was regarded as a wise and safe man along many lines. He combined business with preaching and was a good farmer, and at one time conducted a successful mercantile business. His counsel was frequently sought in the public affairs of his county and he held prominent and responsible positions. He represented his county in the Legislative Assemblies of the State, and was for several years Chairman of the County Board of Commissioners of Johnson county, and could have had other offices, if he had desired. But in the prime of his life he severed his connection with all occupations and business that hindered him from devoting his entire time to the work of the ministry and the uplift of humanity and the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom.

He was the presiding officer of our State Convention a great many years and was always wise and prudent, guarding and guiding the Brotherhood in many ways. This work was dear to his heart. He could have succeeded in material things, and did accumulate good property. In his judgement we would be poor indeed, if we had no investments, save those in real estate and in material structures—things that are to-day, and tomorrow are not! It is just here that the queenly nature of religion becomes manifest in calling us to fix our affections on things above and not on things in the earth; to cultivate riches of the mind and heart rather than of material things. These pass away, but those will endure forever, and will be our permanent possession. "The things which we see are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Brother Harper wanted to do all he could for the Church of Christ in his native State and would sacrifice his pleasure and ambition if it was best to do so. It has been the privilege and pleasure of the writer to know Brother Harper very intimately, and we have often talked together. I have heard him talk to others about the things which effected or might effect the progress of the church in its different departments of work. He never ran into extremes; was conservative but progressive. He always recognized that more things were permanent and that progress could not be achieved without this permanency, and with it he was progressive in everything that influences for good. Doubtless he made some mistakes. No one can hope to always be right, but it is my conviction that he made fewer mistakes than most preachers.

His influence has had much to do with shaping and fostering the best elements of our religious movement. He was generally cheerful and always met his friends with a smile. He, perhaps, had his clouds and shadows, but was never narrow and despondent. He was sufficiently broad and liberal to see the good in others and give them a word of encouragement when it was proper to do so.

When our State Convention undertook the work of building up a College in this State Brother Harper was a most important factor. He was the first Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the College, and devoted his head and heart to that work. At one time most of the close friends of the College became discouraged, and it was difficult to get a suitable man to serve as President. Naturally the trustees looked to Brother Harper. They persuaded him to be President of the College. He took it without any visible provision in sight, having been made to meet expenses. The patronage paid expenses the first year under his management, except his salary. He worked without pay for some time and the interest grew and new students came, and at his death he left a good College with all the roms filled with students, and the brethren had confidence and believed that we had a permanent College. He does not need a marble statute over his resting place to perpetuate his memory. He has built one in the hearts of the people which is much better than cold stone. The College is a monument to him.

A good man, a strong friend, an able preacher, and a wise and prudent man has gone to reap his reward.

While President of Atlantic Christian College he received the honorary title of L. L. D. and afterwards was Dr. Harper.

He deserved all he received here and he laid up many treasures in heaven.

PETER STEPHEN SWAIN

By W. A. Winfield

The subject of this sketch, Peter Stephen Swain, was born on a farm near Plymouth, N. C., March 25th, 1862, and departed this life November 9th 1907. He was the son of C. W. and Anliza Swain. Brother C. W. Swain's house was headquarters for all our pioneer preachers, and before we had a meeting house in that part of the country his house was the meeting place for preaching. In this way Brother P. S. Swain became familiar with many of our pioneer preachers.

We may truly say of him "from a child he knew the Scriptures," and was taught their worth and to love them. Early in life he embraced Christ and was baptized by Brother John Gurganus.

There was no place where Brother Swain was more at home than in the Sunday School. I have not known a better Sunday School worker. Where others failed he succeeded.

Brother Swain was set apart to the ministry at the Kinston Convention , in 1894. About this time he was happily married to Mrs. Lora A. Harrison, who was a loving, faithful, devoted helpmeet.

About two years before his death the "Watch Tower" paid the following tribute to his worth: "Peter S. Swain, who lives at the old homestead about six miles east of Plymouth, like many others of our North Carolina preachers, is a farmer, and earns much of his income in that way, preaching for churches within reach.  Brother Swain is in the prime of life, being about forty years old. He has a wife and five children. He attended Pantego Academy, C. C. College three years, and took a part of the course at Bethany, W. Va. He has been the superintendent of education in Washington county, and has taken an active interest in educational matters.

"He is a recognized leader of prohibition in his county, having canvassed the county two years ago. In the recent election he was an independent candidate for representative on a temperance platform and received a very respectable vote, but not enough to elect, as the temperance vote was divided. His influence is being felt and it is probable that Washington county will soon be dry.

"In our Mission work Brother Swain has been an earnest and successful worker for years. In the Roanoke Union District work he has been one of the most active workers, having served as president of the Union for a considerable time. His efforts have helped to make this Union the most active in the State. For a year he has had preaching which kept him away, but he can now attend.

"He has been a constant supporter of State Missions, and has also shown himself a true friend of world-wide missions.

"He has preached for Albemarle church, Tyrell county, several years, and continues with them on first Lord's Days. He has served Zion's Chapel monthly, with such good results that they have engaged him for the second and fourth Sundays for the next year. He will preach for Saints' Delight, his home church, each third Lord's Day. Besides having very fair pulpit ability, his life and moral influence make him a great power for good among his people."

I visited Brother Swain about two weeks before his departure and found him suffering in body, but bright in faith and hope. It was the last time I saw him. He was ready to go. For two years before his death he was unable to preach.

At last the end came. Surrounded by friends and loved ones, on November 9th, 1906 he closed his eyes on things mortal and opened them on the eternal verities of the unseen world.

In closing this, the last tribute of respect, I deeply mourn his loss as a co-laborer in the Master's work, and sympathize with his family in this sad hour of bereavement.

Go on in eternal progress thou faithful husband, kind relative and consecrated servant of Jesus. Good-bye father, husband, brother and loved one. We shall meet again where partings are unknown.

W. O. WINFIELD.

PROCEEDINGS

OF

THE SIXTY-FIFTH SESSION

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION,

HELD AT WILSON, N. C., NOVEMBER 17-19, 1909.

WEDNESDAY, November 17th.

The sixty-fifth session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention convened in the Christian Church, at Wilson, N. C., at 9:30 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, November 17, 1909. J. W. Hines, President.

After a hearty song and praise service, Bro. S. P. Speigel, pastor of the Wilson Christian Church, welcomed the delegates and visitors to the hearts and homes of the Wilson people. Bro. Spiegel announced the presence of a band of twelve "white caps," who would take charge of anyone who wished information or assistance in any way.

The response was delivered by Bro. D. W. Arnold, pastor of the Greenville Christian Church, in a very spirited and happy way.

On account of illness in the family of Bro. J. R. Rountree, the Recording Secretary of the Convention, which made it impossible for him to be present, Bro. H. C. Bowen, of Belhaven, was appointed Recording Secretary pro tem.

Resolutions of sympathy for Bro. Rountree, on account of the illness of his wife, were unanimously passed, and Bros. George Hackney and C. Manly Morton were appointed to prepare a suitable message and wire to Bro. Rountree.

The program, as printed, was here changed, so as to get in the reports from the ministers. The reports of the President, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer were deferred until the afternoon. Verbal reports were made by the ministers of the State, of the work done by each, and of the conditions of the various churches served, as follows:

D. W. Arnold, Greenville; B. T. Bitting, Stokesdale; H. C. Bowen, Belhaven; Dr. W. H. Cobb, J. C. Caldwell, G. H. Crumpler, Smith's Schoolhouse; J. A. Erwin, Wilmington; Hayes Farish, Union Chapel; A. A. Ferguson, Kinston; Thomas Green; C. W. Howard, Wheat Swamp and Robersonville; R. V. Hope, Washington; J. R. Jennett, Live Oak Grove; C. C. Jones, New Bern; H. O. Lane, Dunn; C. B. Mashburn, Rountree and Hookerton; J. W. McCleary, Middleton; C. M. Morton, Ayden and Farmville; J. F. Owen; R. L. Philpot, Columbia; I. W. Rogers, Oriental; G. H. O. Stoney, Winston; S. W. Sumrell, Dover and Southwest; S. P. Spiegel, Wilson; J. R. Tingle, Grimesland and Bethel; and H. H. Settle, Salem and Mount Pleasant.

Wednesday—Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session opened with song service, led by Bro. J. A. Erwin, of Wilmington, N. C., and devotional service, conducted by Bro. R. V. Hope, pastor of the Washington Christian Church.

Report of the President of the Convention, J. W. Hines, of Rocky Mount, N. C. In this report President Hines commented on the general condition of the State mission work, and recommended some special action by means of which former difficulties to progress might be removed. The report was from the practical, business standpoint, and showed much thought, insight and consecration on the part of the speaker. As the report was verbal, it is impossible to give it very fully.

Next was the report of the Corresponding Secretary, C. Manly Morton. (See report.) Report accepted.

Report of Treasurer, George Hackney. (See report.) Report accepted.

On motion of J. C. Caldwell, all unenrolled ministers were accorded the privileges of the Convention until regularly enrolled.

The Convention sermon was preached by Bro. A. A. Ferguson, pastor of the Kinston Christian Church. Subject, "We Would See Jesus." Bro. Ferguson handled his subject well, and made a profound impression upon his hearers. The earnest, tender, sympathetic presentation of Jesus Christ as the Son of God and the Saviour of the world was ennobling.

Bro. Ferguson was followed by Bro. W. J. Wright, of Cincinnati, Ohio, Corresponding Secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society. Bro. Wright presented the work of Evangelization of the Home Land, and showed something of the growth and progress of the past hundred years—how that we had grown from a very few to be a great brotherhood. He also pointed out the possibilities of the future.

Convention adjourned until 7:15 P. M.

Wednesday—Evening Session.

The evening session was opened by song service, led by Bro. S. P. Spiegel, followed by devotional service, conducted by Bro. H. O. Lane, pastor of the Dunn Christian Church.

The Wilson choir very beautifully rendered the anthem, "Arise and Shine," by Meaker.

Bro. G. H. C. Stoney, pastor of the Winston-Salem Christian Church, then addressed the Convention on "Education and the Progress of Our Plea." Bro. Stoney's address showed thought, scholarship and wisdom. He handled his subject in a very interesting and helpful manner, showing what education is, its value to the boy or girl in every walk of life, its aid to greatness, and finally its relation to the work of our own movement for the Restoration of the Apostolic Ideal.

Bro. James H. Mohorter, of St. Louis, Mo., General Secretary of the National Benevolence Association, and a prince among Convention speakers, filled the next place on the program with an illustrated address and report of the work of the Benevolence Association. The gospel of the Helping Hand is always tender, but when presented in both picture and word it is especially tender. For more than an hour Bro. Mohorter held the vast audience spellbound.

After the address, an offering was taken for the support of the Orphanage at Baldwin, Ga., and more than six hundred dollars ($600) was raised, in cash and good pledges.

Convention adjourned to meet again at 9:30 A. M. Thursday morning.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

Song service, led by S. P. Spiegel. Devotional service, conducted by Marion Stevenson, of St. Louis, Mo.

On motion, the following new congregations were enrolled on the list of churches of the Convention: Jacksonville, West Belhaven, Westrys and Whitakers.

The reports from the Union Meeting Districts occupied the next hour. The roll of the Districts was called, and reports were received, as follows:

Pamlico—Not represented.

Roanoke—Represented by J. R. Tingle. Reported forty churches and Bible schools in the district. A great progress in the spirit of union and co-operation. Not very much evangelistic work because the district is pretty thoroughly evangelized, but every church in the district has had regular preaching and a protracted meeting. The weak churches have been helped. The Union has a corresponding secretary and a Committee on Evangelization, which co-operates with the Union in evangelizing the district. The work in the old Northeast Union has been taken up, and Brother D. W. Davis placed in the district to look after the churches already established and to do evangelistic work. Four new houses have been erected in the district.

Hyde—Represented by J. W. McCleary. Reported the work of the Union in good condition. Two new churches established, and plans for building at Englehard and Fortiscue's Creek.

Hookerton—Represented by L. T. Rightsell. Reported twenty-four churches in the district. Twenty churches and nine Bible schools co-operating during the past year. Four meetings held. Total amount contributed by churches, two hundred and thirty ($230) dollars. Amount given to churches, one hundred and eighty ($180) dollars.

Jones and Onslow—Represented by Foy Vause. Reported eleven churches in the district. One hundred and nine dollars and twenty cents ($109.20) raised during the year for all purposes. Wilmington and Southwest have been helped on their buildings.

Piedmont—Represented by G. H. C. Stoney. Reported twenty churches in the district. Two new congregations organized during the year. Four meetings held under the directions of the Union. Songs 448 and 500. Prayer by Dr. Bitting.

Dr. B. T. Bitting, of Stokesdale, presented Bro. Marion Stevenson, of St. Louis, Mo., National Superintendent of Christian Bible Schools, who delivered a very strong and forceful address on the value and importance of a wide-awake, active Bible School. Bro. Stevenson showed the evangelistic force of the Bible School and the fields for the accomplishment of great things through its doors. The address was inspiring and helpful.

THURSDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Song service, led by S. P. Spiegel. Devotional service, conducted by J. A. Saunders, of Kinston, N. C.

Address by Bro. J. A. Erwin, pastor of the Wilmington Christian Church. Subject, "Evangelization of the Larger Towns and Cities." Bro. Erwin has had much experience in city evangelization, and was prepared to bring to the Convention a message of much force. The success of the Wilmington work, under the direction of Bro. Erwin, shows that he not only knows the theory, but the actual practice of the work of the city.

Bro. H. C. Bowen, pastor of the Belhaven Christian Church, followed with an address on "Evangelization of the Rural Districts." Country evangelization must go hand in hand with city evangelization. Neither one can be neglected. Bro. Bowen threw his whole energy and might into the presentation of this great work, and made an excellent address.

Committee on Resolutions reported. (See report.) Report accepted.

Benediction by Bro. L. T. Rightsell, of LaGrange, N. C.

Adjournment until 7:15 o'clock P. M.

Thursday—Evening Session.

Meeting called to order by President Hines.

Several announcements were made.

It was moved and seconded that in the future the Convention be limited to two days, or three days, including C. W. B. M. Day. Motion carried.

After a short address by Bro. J. C. Caldwell, President of Atlantic Christian College, a very interesting program was rendered by the faculty and students of Atlantic Christian College, under the direction of Prof. Albert Muilberger, of the Department of Music. The program was of a very high order and reflected credit, not only upon those who took part, but upon the institution, of which we are all so proud, and the homes from which they came. This was one of the most enjoyable features of the whole Convention, and every delegate and visitor went home feeling prouder than ever before of their own Christian College.

Friday—Morning Session.

Song service, led by S. P. Spiegel.

Devotional exercises, conducted by Bro. L. T. Rightsell, of LaGrange.

The session was then turned over to Bro. Marion Stevenson, National Superintendent of Christian Bible Schools, who for two and a half hours conducted one of the best, most enjoyable and most instructive Bible School Conferences ever held in North Carolina. Bro. Stevenson devoted special attention to primary, junior and intermediate work, giving a short lecture on each phase of the work, and then opening the conference for questions and discussions. The Bible School work has been neglected in the past, but we hope that the new life injected into our people by Bro. Stevenson's work will serve to awaken a deeper interest in this department of the church work.

FRIDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Song and praise service by Bro. J. W. Perry, of Kinston, N. C.

Bro. Stevenson continued the Bible School work begun in the morning, giving special attention to the adult work. The value of this kind of work was shown—how to organize an adult class and how to build up the work. No part of the Convention was more instructive or helpful than the Bible School session. Bro. Stevenson did his work well, and left us far better than he found us. A vote of thanks was given Bro. Stevenson for his excellent work throughout the Convention.

The report of the Committee on Temperance was read and approved. (See report.)

On motion, the Convention expressed its thanks to Bro. J. R. Rountree for his faithfulness in giving us such an excellent paper and for his usefulness and untiring efforts for the extension of the cause of Christ in general.

After song No. 45, "Day is Dying in the West," President J. W. Hines declared the sixty-fifth session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention adjourned.

Prayer by Bro. James H. Mohorter.

COMMITTEE ON OBITUARIES.

To the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention—Brethren:

We, your Committee on Obituaries, beg leave to report that during the year now closing, God has seen fit to call from their earthly labors Brother J. B. Respass, one of the old veterans of our cause in North Carolina; Brother W. R. Williams, who was also for a long time a leader among us, and Brother George C. Respass, who for a long time labored as an elder among us.

Brother J. B. Respass was one of the oldest ministers identified with this Convention, having been a minister for more than fifty years. He was a man of much ability, widely known, and held in the highest esteem, not only in the church, but throughout the entire State, having served his people in various capacities as a public leader and official.

We feel that our loss is great and one that concerns very much, not only our own people, but the people generally, regardless of name or creed.

As we have not sufficient data for a lengthy obituary we recommend that Brother D. W. Davis be appointed to perform that duty.

We feel the loss of these brethren deeply, but with faith we look beyond the clouds and gloom that death always brings, to that time when Christ shall come to bestow upon them and, we hope, upon us the crown of eternal life. Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS GREEN,
S. W. SUMRELL,
J. R. JENNETT,
Committee.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELIZATION.

We, your committee, recommend:

First. That Fremont be allowed help sufficient to enable them to have semi-monthly preaching.

Second. That a reasonable sum be given to aid in holding a meeting at Macclesfield.

Third. That the Jacksonville Church be aided in having regular preaching.

Fourth. That condition at Greensboro be investigated, and help extended, if possible.

Fifth. That the Board provide for putting State evangelist in the field if, at any time, they see their way financially clear to do so.

Sixth. That the same apportionment of churches be as before, except where conditions make a change advisable.

Seventh. We recommend the appointment of R. V. Hope as State Superintendent of Bible Schools, and that he be asked to visit, as nearly as possible, every Bible school in the State during the coming missionary year.

We further recommend that the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention guarantee his expenses for traveling and correspondence.

We also recommend that he urge each Bible school to contribute to the N. C. C. M. C. very liberally for the support of this work.

We cordially recommend Brother Hope to the hearty and enthusiastic support of the ministers and Bible-school superintendents of the State.

Eighth. That all unpaid amounts on accepted apportionments of the past year be considered as sacred obligations, to be paid as soon as possible, and that the apportionments for the current year be raised as early in the year as possible.

Ninth. That preachers be urged to push the work of collecting apportionments and that they be assisted by the officers of the churches.

Tenth. That strenuous and aggressive efforts be put forth in evangelizing the State; that all fields now entered be held, and that new ones be entered as soon as possible.

Eleventh. That Whitakers be recommended as worthy of such help as may be advisable.

Twelfth. That each church be asked to send its preacher to hold at least one meeting in some needy field.

Thirteenth. That we pledge our earnest and enthusiastic support to the State Board in this effort for the good of the cause.

Fraternally submitted,
C. W. HOWARD,
L. T. RIGHTSELL,
H. C. BOWEN,
A. W. HASKINS,
Committee.

COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE.

To the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention:

Your Committee on Literature begs leave to report as follows:

First. We recommend that the State Board continue the publication of The Carolina Evangel, if possible, under such conditions as will not financially embarrass the Board and the brotherhood.

Second. We also recommend and urge upon the brotherhood the use of our own church publications in the Bible schools, Christian Endeavor societies, teacher-training classes, etc.

Third. We further recommend a more extensive reading of our own church papers, in order that our people may more fully familiarize themselves with the general work of the brotherhood at large.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. BOWEN,
J. A. ERWIN,
R. V. HOPE,
Committee.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee on Resolutions begs leave to submit the following report:

First. RESOLVED, That this Convention express its warm appreciation of the generous hospitality of the people of Wilson who, regardless of religious affiliations, have received us so cordially and entertained us so lavishly. We trust that the Convention may prove as helpful to them as their kindness has been to us.

Second. RESOLVED, That we express our hearty appreciation of the splendid provision made for us by the Wilson brethren, and we thank Brother S. P. Spiegel especially for his effective handling of the Convention and his care for our comfort and enjoyment.

Third. RESOLVED, That we thank our brethren and sisters who furnished such excellent music, especially Mrs. T. L. Willingham, whose singing added so much to the helpfulness of our sessions.

Fourth. RESOLVED, That we express our hearty appreciation of the splendid addresses of Secretaries J. H. Mohorter, of the National Benevolence Association; W. J. Wright, of the American Christian Missionary Society, and Marion Stevenson, of the National Bible School Association. Their work has been one of the most helpful, and we feel sure will be among the most fruitful features of our Convention.

Fifth. Resolved, That we heartily thank President J. C. Caldwell, the faculty and students of Atlantic Christian College for their hospitality and unwearied labors to make our stay pleasant and profitable. Whether by day or night the "White Caps" have contributed to our safety, comfort, ease and pleasure. May their work be abundantly blessed.

Sixth. Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the courtesy shown us by the newspapers, especially The Wilson Times, The (Raleigh) News and Observer and The Charlotte Observer, which have devoted much of their valuable space to the proceedings of the Convention.

REPORT OF C. MANLY MORTON, CORRESPONDING SECRETARY OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

One hundred years ago that religious zeal which had been smouldering and growing in the hearts and minds of certain of the great Christian spirits of that age burst forth in the great and immortal utterances of the declaration and address by Thomas Campbell, and the plea for a return to the apostolic idea, and the purer kingdom of Jesus Christ, coupled as it must of necessity be with the earnest plea for the union of all of God's people, swept like a whirlwind over the United States and thence to the utmost parts of the earth. Only a few weeks ago fifty thousand zealous, enthusiastic, consecrated Christians, who stand upon this plea for apostolic ideals, gathered in the city of Pittsburg in one of the greatest religious gatherings since time began to celebrate the first centennial of the history of this document, to look back upon the early history of one of the greatest religious movements since the establishment of the church, to catch a brighter vision of the days to come, and to receive new strength and enthusiasm for the battles which are yet to be fought.

No religious movement has ever gone forward with such leaps and bounds, no people have ever had such a leavening influence upon the religious thought and practice of the time, or done a more abiding work, than the Disciples of Christ. We have been instrumental in causing every religious body of any note in the United States to either revise or entirely abandon its creed; we have been instrumental in causing the religious world to lay aside its sword of religious warfare and join in a peaceful and harmonious battle for the Son of God and His righteousness; and we hope within the next few years to be instrumental in leading them to the point where they can all step out from their earthly distinctions and be one body marching under the banner of King Immanuel, with no name save Christian, no government save the Bible, and no creed save Christ.

In the realm of education, benevolence and missions we have done an abiding work, and from the standpoint of practical Christianity the Disciples of Christ have done a great work. Probably not as great as they should have done, but a work, nevertheless, which represents a healthy growth. The receipts of every one of our national organizations have made a steady increase, until this the centennial year we have a just cause for rejoicing.

Nationally and internationally we have gone forward very rapidly, and I am glad that we can gather in this the sixty-fifth session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention with such bright prospects for a great and glorious convention. The battle in North Carolina has ever been a hard one. The conditions are such that every victory must be won after a hard-fought battle. But with all this we have won some notable victories. When we think that twenty-four years ago we raised only forty-six dollars for State missions, and we had only about twenty-five churches and less than four thousand members in this entire State, we can very quickly recognize the fact that we have been doing something worthy of mention, although not as much as we would like to have done. Our growth has been greater than that of any other religious body in the State.

This year has been an especially trying one, but we have tried to do the best we could, trusting in the Lord for strength, and we have every reason to believe that North Carolina has had, taking everything into consideration, the best year's work in her history. The general work of the State has been the best in our history. If the reports which have already come in are representative of the churches in general, we have had more additions this year than any previous year in our history. Very few churches have reported no additions. Almost every one of our ministers has engaged in evangelistic work to a certain extent, and their meetings have been very successful. A great many new church buildings have been erected this year, and one thing worthy of special mention is that all of the new buildings which have gone up this year have been more modern and of a more abiding nature than those of the past. Our people are waking up to greater possibilities and are determining to do more for the kingdom of Christ in a substantial way.

We do not know the exact amount of money raised for all purposes, but if all of the churches have done as well as those which come to our knowledge, North Carolina has made a great gain in the total amount raised for all purposes. I do not think we have any cause to become discouraged in our work, still there are certain facts to be considered.

The Board cannot make such a great show of work done, but we believe we have done the best we could, and really think that the work this year, while not making such a great show, still amounts to a great deal more to the cause of Christ in this State and is of much more value than some work we could have done which would have made a greater show.

Last year at the Kinston Convention, after two years of active, zealous effort, with one of the best workers to be had as State Evangelist and Field Agent, we found ourselves face to face with a $1,449.-04 deficit. The Convention decided that it was best to discontinue the regular evangelist and the present Board was instructed to place a man in the field, only after the money was in sight to pay him. Besides this, the Convention instructed the Board to continue the publication of The Carolina Evangel, which, from its establishment, has been a losing proposition; and also the Board was instructed to continue to support the work at Wilmington, New Bern, Fremont and other places. Now, just a glance at these conditions will show something of the difficulties under which your present Board accepted the work and has had to labor through the year.

The first work which engaged our attention was to pay off the old debt of last year. This has been very slow. During the first part of the year, although the Convention at Kinston recommended that the churches send in their State mission money at least quarterly, very little money came in. We had no one to go after it, as had been the case two years previous. Our sole dependence was upon the ministers of the State. We had to look to them to see that the money was raised and sent in. Some of them have shown an earnestness and interest worthy of special mention, others have not shown as much interest as they should, while very few have shown entire indifference and an unwillingness to work. The work of your secretary has been entirely through correspondence. He could do no more than write letters to the ministers and clerks, urging the importance of the State work; to keep the work before the people through The Evangel, and to send out supplies. However, in this respect he has been quite active. About four hundred personal letters and numerous columns of matter for The Evangel have been written during the past three weeks, and many times this amount of work during the year. His regular work has been neglected. The work by which he received his daily bread has been given second place and his best thought and energy given to the work of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention.

Although we have had no man in the field this year, the amount of work done shows a very healthy condition of affairs. We have received from all sources.

This has come from the following sources:

STATE MISSIONS.

A. C. M. S.	$ 366.67
C. W. B. M.	300.00
Pamlico Union	219.96
Balance last year	177.00
1-2 Rally Day, A. C. M. S.	5.29
1-2 Sunday-school offering, A. C. M. S.	12.50
From churches and Bible schools	1,836.66
Total	$2,858.08

We wish to call special attention to the amount contributed by churches and Bible schools, as churches and Bible schools for State missions. This is next to the high-water mark of all our past endeavors, if not beyond it. Our churches have come up better on their apportionments than ever before, and if the amount of the special offerings had been as great as in the past years, when we had a man in the field, the totals for this year would be greater than for any year in our past history. This condition of affairs is due to the loyalty and earnestness and consecration of the churches and ministers, and we wish to give them the praise. We would be glad to hold up before you the name of each church, together with that of its preacher, which has had a part in making the progress of our cause possible, and thus give honor to whom honor is due and try to stimulate the few who have not worked so faithfully as they ought, to a greater endeavor.

Now let us see what has been done with this money. A great many think because we have had no evangelist in the field that nothing has been done, but if you will follow the reports as they are made and will think right carefully you will find that a very good work has been done, and while not a work to show so much, still a work that means much for our cause in this State.

The Convention at Kinston instructed the Board to continue The Carolina Evangel. The Evangel has been a losing proposition since its establishment, and had it not been for the direct instruction of the Convention the Board would not have run the paper at the expense which it did this year, but it felt a moral obligation to carry out the instruction of the Convention, and The Carolina Evangel has been run at a loss of about seven hundred ($700) dollars to the State. Whether this has been a wise investment or not is for the brotherhood to decide. We have had an excellent paper indeed. Brother J. R.

Rountree has given us one of the best papers ever published in North Carolina and he deserves the thanks of every Christian in the State for his unselfish and self-sacrificing service, for he has certainly made a noble sacrifice for the work. No man ever worked more faithfully, and no one ever deserved more praise for his unselfish spirit. The paper has done a great good, but we feel that it is not worth the amount it cost us, and we suggest that some steps be taken at this Convention to relieve the Board of this responsibility. It is too expensive in its present form. The Convention at Kinston also instructed that the work at Wilmington, New Bern and Fremont be continued. This we have done, and besides have assisted Whitakers, a new congregation, to have once-a-month preaching.

Wilmington, one of the most important works ever started in North Carolina, has been supported this year. The State Board giving nine hundred ($900) dollars, and the C. W. B. M. three hundred ($300) dollars. Brother J. A. Erwin has been kept at this point and has done a very good work. The Board felt that it was not wise to drop Wilmington, and it now feels that the nine hundred dollars placed at Wilmington did more good than if we had dropped Wilmington and have gone into some new field.

New Bern.—According to the recommendation of the Evangelizing Committee, the arrangements of last year with New Bern were continued, and Brother C. C. Jones was kept at this point. Brother Jones has put in a very good year and much has been accomplished for our cause at this place. Our church is in better condition at New Bern now than at any previous time, and the prospects are bright for the future. The old members have been revived and encouraged, a great deal of new material gotten into the church, and working forces greatly strengthened.

Fremont.—The Committee on Evangelization at Kinston recommended that Fremont be allowed one hundred and fifty ($150) dollars in order to have semi-monthly preaching. This has been done, and Brother C. F. Outlaw has preached for these good people during the past year. Brother Outlaw has worked faithfully and has added much strength to our cause at this place. A very neat, modern house of worship has been completed and dedicated and our forces are in very good working condition for the coming year. At no place in the State has a little money accomplished more than at Fremont. We should all feel proud of Fremont.

Whitakers.—The Board assisted Whitakers in employing Brother C. B. Mashburn for one Lord's day during the past year. Here we have a very neat, comfortable church building, all complete except painting, and the prospects for a great work in the future are bright. Brother Mashburn has done an abiding work. The work has steadily grown since its organization, a little more than one year ago, and Brother Mashburn deserves much credit for his part in this growth. We feel that we did a good work in assisting Whitakers.

This may seem like a little work, but, according to our best judgment, it is the best we could do. Each of these mean a great deal to our cause in North Carolina. This work had already been begun, and experience of the past has taught us that it is better to take care of what you already have than it is to start several new works and not be able to continue any of them. This is a work that is abiding, and a work that will mean a great deal to North Carolina within a few years. Had we received more money we could have done more work. We have done the best we could with what you have placed in our hands, and we leave the verdict as to whether we have done well or not with the people at large, and look to God for our reward, and press onward as best we can.

Sincerely in Christ,
C. MANLY MORTON.

TUESDAY MORNING.

WILSON, N. C., November 16, 1909.

The Annual Convention of the North Carolina Christian Woman's Board of Missions met in the Christian Church at Wilson, N. C., Tuesday, November 16, 1909; Mrs. J. F. Taylor, presiding.

Mrs. J. A. Erwin, of Wilmington, conducted the devotional exercises, which opened with song, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." The 90th Psalm was read, and Mrs. Ford led in prayer.

In a few appropriate words Mrs. T. L. Willingham gave the Convention a most cordial welcome, which was ably responded to by Miss Mary Parrott.

Mrs. F. W. Dixon, of the Hookerton Auxiliary, was then introduced, and delivered an address, "Historical Sketch of the C. W. B. M. Work in North Carolina." Mrs. Dixon showed how this noble work began in the homes of a few earnest and enthusiastic workers, about thirty-eight years ago, since which time the work has advanced step by step. It was first recognized by the State Convention, nurtured by the Christian Church. The C. W. B. M. work was organized in this State three years before the National C. W. B. M. Society was organized.

This was followed by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Erwin.

Reports from District Manager, Auditor, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer were read and accepted.

After announcement of committees, Mrs. Bessie Farrar Madsen, of India, addressed the audience. Mrs. Madsen appeared in the dress of the women of India, and as she told of the needs of India's people, in her sweet, appealing and touching manner, many eyes were filled with tears.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

After a short devotional service, Mrs. S. P. Spiegel conducted the Children's Hour. Mrs. Spiegel made a very impressive talk, telling of her interest and love for the children's work. A very interesting program had been arranged for this hour, and was well rendered by the Wilson Mission Band.

The report of the Superintendent of the Y. P. D. was read and the banner awarded. In a very impressive manner, Mrs. J. F. Taylor presented the banner, which was accepted in behalf of the New Bern Band by Miss Lila May Willis.

Mrs. Ford gave a short address on "Moses Memorial," in which she showed how that, instead of building some costly monument to our late National President, we might, by our gifts to the Lord, in the name of the Moses Memorial Fund, advance the cause of His kingdom and at the same time carry out the last wish of Mrs. Helen E. Moses.

EVENING SESSION.

Miss Etta Nunn presided at the evening session. Scripture lesson, 107th Psalm. Mr. Caldwell led in prayer. A solo, "God's Way," was rendered by Mrs. T. L. Willingham.

Reports of committees were read and accepted. Solo, "Somebody Knows," by Mr. Horace Settle.

Mrs. Maria Reynolds Ford, of Tennessee, who is to go from this Convention to Argentina as a missionary of the C. W. B. M., delivered a stirring address on "Our Relationship to Latin America." Mrs. Ford is a talented speaker, and presented the description and needs of her field of work in a forceful manner.

Mr. Hagan, of Japan, was then given a place on the program. Mr. Hagan gave a full and interesting description of the missionary work in Japan. Japan is a country of great idolatry, but Christ is coming to be truth in a large measure.

After closing hymn and benediction, we adjourned.

We feel that the inspiration given by the three missionaries will be helpful to the C. W. B. M. workers throughout the State, and that better work will be done for their having been with us.

MARY E. PARROTT,
Recording Secretary.

JONES—ONSLOW UNION.

As we review this important work, our hearts should be tuned to a higher note of praise for any success which, under the blessing of God, has attended our efforts the past year.

We are glad to report five auxiliaries; a new one at Comfort has been added. At Armenia the Auxiliary may be called "A No. 1." There are fifteen members and eighteen subscribers to The Tidings. The mission band is doing a good work. The auxiliary and mission band at Richlands has earnest, consecrated workers and will continue to grow.

We have auxiliaries at Dover and Catherine Lake. Eight subscribers to King's Builders at Catherine Lake.

A church has been organized at Jacksonville, the county-seat of Onslow. While attending the meeting in June I secured five subscriptions to King's Builders. We have one member of the Home Department at Pleasant Hill, and she has reported thirteen subscribers to King's Builders. I have attended only two union meetings and held C. W. B. M. services at each place. Have sent literature to many who were not members of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, hoping to interest them in the cause of missions. We think the best way to bring indifferent church members face to face with the facts of the good results of missions is by sending leaflets and papers. Perhaps, by gaining knowledge, they will grow in zeal and fidelity, qualities of the highest value, and well worth cultivating in every possible way.

I have written sixty letters, the majority of which met a welcome, as the response assured me that many are willing and anxious to work for the Master, if leaders can be induced to assume the responsibility. "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest."

Respectfully submitted,

Catherine Lake, N. C. Mrs. H. D. MURRILL.

MILL CREEK DISTRICT.

My report must necessarily be very short as the district work is new to me. I attended the Union in May, held with the Eureka Church, in Wayne County, but was not there in time for the C. W. B. M. session and we were not represented. At the August Union, held with the church at Dunn, we had a most interesting C. W. B. M. session.

I attended the October Union, held with the Selah Church, in Wayne County, and presented our work there. We have but two auxiliaries and two mission bands in the Mill Creek District, but our aim for the coming year is to place a missionary society in every congregation in our district. I believe there is a great power for good lying dormant among the women of our churches, and we must not be slothful in our Master's business in this respect. And we are glad to see indications of an awakening of a great interest among our sisterhood, and pray that the way may be shown, and that it is the Father's will that we may do a great work for Him in this district.

MRS. J. J. COOKE,
District Manager.

REPORT OF DISTRICT MANAGER OF PAMLICO DISTRICT FOR THE PAST SIX MONTHS.

None of the Unions have been attended by the District Manager, owing to unavoidable circumstances, but before each Union all the auxiliaries have been written to and urged to send delegates and a report of the work done by their society.

NINA E. BASNIGHT.
District Manager.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

KINSTON, N. C., November 13, 1909.

MRS. R. F. HILL, President N. C. C. W. B. M.:

I have audited the books of Mrs. R. L. Crisp, State Treasurer, and Miss Etta Nunn. Corresponding Secretary, and find same correct, with balance of $198.44.

Respectfully,
J. F. TAYLOR.

ANNUAL REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

As we enter the first year of the new century of the great restoration movement we consider the work of the past as a stepping-stone for a greater future. We have not done all that we hoped to do, nor have we accomplished all our desires in the work of the C. W. B. M., but our God has been with us, and it is with humble and grateful hearts we make the report for the year. We believe there has been much growth that cannot be told in numbers. It is the deep spiritual growth that will be permanent and telling.

More than ever our ministers have realized that the missionary society is a wonderful factor in the work at home as well as in foreign lands, and they have gladly given encouragement and assistance. We appreciate every word of cheer spoken by our brothers, and we crave their help for the coming year.

We have gained during the past year about thirty-three per cent in membership, and more than thirty per cent in offerings. For the first time we have a Roll of Honor. The conditions were:

First. To observe C. W. B. M. Day.

Second. To observe the Week of Prayer.

Third. To promptly make all reports.

Fourth. To continue an average of fifteen cents per member above the special offerings.

Eleven of our societies kept the conditions—these are: Catherine Lake, Dunn, Greenville, Grimesland, Kinston, LaGrange, Oriental, Pantego, Richlands, Washington and Wilson.

Last year eleven auxiliaries observed C. W. B. M. Day; this year there were twenty-one. Last year only seven kept the Week of Prayer; this year twenty-two observed this season of spiritual blessing. And so, year by year, we grow and broaden and develop into larger service.

This year thirty-three auxiliaries and five circles have reported. Besides these, eight auxiliaries and one circle have been organized during the year. All but two of them—Wheat Swamp and Bethany—were organized by your State Missionary. The new societies are: Bethany, Comfort, Hookerton, Philippi, Stocksdale, Saint's Delight Circle, Wheat Swamp, Whitakers and Wilmington.

The following societies reported disbanded early in the year: Bath, Dover, Plymouth, Wilson's Mills, Bay Creek Circle, Selah Circle, Winston-Salem Circle and Zion's Chapel Circle.

Of these, Bath, Dover, Wilson's Mills, Bay Creek, Zion's Chapel, have been reorganized.

The following statistical report is made up from the quarterly reports of the different societies:

While 624 members have been reported during the year, Selah Circle with ten members, and Winston-Salem with eleven members have given up the work. This leaves us with 603 members. Two other societies—Philippi and Zion's Chapel—made no report last quarter, but as they do not report disbanded we leave them on roll.

Most of the societies have been very prompt in making their reports and, as a rule, where reports have been late there has been a good excuse.

The auxiliaries not reaching their apportionment for State work are: Asheville, Bath, Belhaven, Dover, Farmville, LaGrange, Old Ford, Rountrees, Stoneville, Wilson's Mills, Winston-Salem. Those exceeding the apportionment are: Armenia, Grimesland, Kinston, Oriental, Pantego, Richlands and Washington.

As we plan the work for the new year let "the love of Christ constrain us" to undertake great things, knowing that we "can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth us."

Your Executive Committee recommends:

First. That we continue the salaried officer, who shall give her time to the work, acting as Corresponding Secretary, State Missionary, and Superintendent of Home Department.

Second. That we accept the $200 apportionment for the Moses Memorial.

Third. That in compliance with the request of the National Board, we take Station Support as our special work, pledging six shares of $50 each to the work in South America.

Fourth. That we adopt as the State motto, Romans xii, 11: "Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord."

In closing the year's work your secretary wishes to express her gratitude for the many letters and words of encouragement, sympathy and appreciation. Without them the service could not have been quite so full of joy. She wishes to thank all auxiliary and circle officers for not one society shall disband, but that all may strive to increase in numbers and to grow in missionary spirit.

We earnestly pray, during this year, for their hearty co-operation and their earnest efforts for the advance of the work.

ETTA NUNN,
Corresponding Secretary.

STATE MISSIONARY REPORT.

Days in the field	168
Places visited	56
Auxiliaries organized	6
Auxiliaries reorganized	3
Circles organized	1
Circles reorganized	2
Mission bands organized	4

As your missionary has gone from place to place she has been impressed with the earnestness of the women and the gracious hospitality of all our people. She has made many friends and learned to love them. Some of these have already been called to their reward, and are now with the King whom they have so faithfully served. The State officers wish to express their deep sympathy for the Rountree's Auxiliary in the loss of their beloved president, Mrs. Ida Allen, and its faithful treasurer, Mrs. Caleb Cannon. They were an inspiration to all who came in touch with them, and the whole sisterhood feels the loss. We pray that the auxiliary which they loved and led may be true to the work and live up to the high ideals held by these consecrated women.

The State Missionary has visited every society except three, and regrets not having reached these. Some have been visited several times. Many churches having no auxiliary have been visited, and we hope the seed sown may yet grow and bear fruit. She has also attended four Union meetings and the National Convention.

It has been a year of blessed service and she feels grateful for the privilege of doing such work. ETTA NUNN,
State Missionary.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF HOME DEPARTMENT.

This has been the most discouraging part of the work. Many letters were written, but the responses were few. Almost every society has some Home Department members, but only seven reported directly to the superintendent. These have done splendid work, reporting promptly each quarter. One has been the means of reorganizing an auxiliary. The letters that have been received have been a source of help and encouragement. We trust that many will be added to this department during this year. ETTA NUNN,
Superintendent Home Department.

CENTENNIAL SECRETARY'S REPORT.

It gives great joy to report the reaching of both Centennial aims, and in recognition of this, receiving of the Centennial medal and honorable mention from the National Centennial Secretary.

In October, 1905, we reported 280 members. We now report 603—the doubled membership plus 43. We were asked for $200 as a Centennial gift. Last year we voluntarily increased the pledge to $500. Our national officers credit us with $502.15 for this purpose. Of this, $273.10 was given the past year. All societies making Centennial pledges, except one auxiliary and two circles, paid the pledge in full, and many making no pledge gave generously.

We have shown in this "crowning year" that we can do great things. Let us never be satisfied to do less, but ever "press toward the mark for the prize of high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

ETTA NUNN,
Centennial Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

We, your Committee on Young People's Work, beg to submit the following report:

First. That the observance of those plans that have already proven so successful, such as the Honor Roll, Apportionment, Easter Service. Self-Denial Season, Support of Orphans, and Light Bearers, be continued.

Second. That the mothers and superintendents encourage the boys and girls in prompt attendance and a more careful study of the Bible and mission studies as given in The King's Builders each month, thereby increasing the spiritual growth that this may be in every way the best year of our existence. To this end we urge the superintendent to impress the importance of the young people reading The King's Builders.

Third. That each junior society and mission band make a special effort to raise $30 for the support of one of the boys or girls in one of our orphanages in India or Porto Rico; and that every organization strive to at least raise its apportionment.

Mrs. J. F. TAYLOR,
Mrs. S. P. SPEIGEL,
Mrs. E. M. HODGES,
Mrs. J. F. LATHAM,
Miss FLORA PETREE,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FUTURE WORK.

We, your Committee on Future Work, do recommend the following:

First. That we adopt the national watchword: "Christ Enthroned in Our Hearts, Christ Pre-Eminent in Our Gifts, Christ Honored in Our Literature."

Second. That we continue the Roll of Honor with the following requirements: (a) The observance of C. W. B. M. Day on the first Lord's day in December, or as soon after as possible. (b) Keeping the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial Period. (c) Reporting promptly each quarter. (d) The average of fifteen cents per member above special offerings. (e) Having some part in the Helen E. Moses Memorial Fund.

Third. Recognizing the need for information, the source of inspiration, in all lines of work, we urge that all our women read and study missionary literature, particularly The King's Builders and The Missionary Tidings.

Fourth. That C. W. B. M. Day and the Easter Self-Denial and Season of Prayer be observed by all auxiliaries in our churches.

Fifth. That we accept the suggestion of the National Executive Committee and raise $200 for the Helen E. Moses memorial.

Sixth. That for special offering we raise $300, this to be appropriated for evangelistic work in Argentina, South America.

Seventh. That we ask our National Board to continue the appropriation of $300 for the Wilmington work.

Eighth. That the efforts of the Centennial Campaign for increased membership in our Missionary Phalanx be continued throughout this year, each auxiliary striving to add to its own membership, also to organize and foster other societies, having for aim that suggested by our National Board, an increase of at least one-fourth in number of women enlisted throughout this special personal effort.

Ninth. That renewed efforts be made by all auxiliaries to cultivate and maintain societies for the young people in circles, junior endeavors, and mission bands, by training and encouraging leaders, having representatives meet with these societies and by supplying them with needed literature.

Tenth. That always we keep in mind and in spirit our State motto, and Romans xii, 11: "Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit, serving the Lord."

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. JOS. J. COOKE,
Mrs. H. D. MURRILL,

RESPESS.

John B. Respess, one of the oldest disciple ministers of North Carolina, died at his home in Pantego, Feb. 12, 1909. His was one of the most remarkable minds of all this section of the country. Though unlearned in the scholastic sense, he had a wonderful grasp of any subject upon which he fixed his attention, and commanded the closest attention of any audience he was called upon to address. Mr. Respess usually took a deep interest in the political issues of the day, and was in great demand as a public speaker in national campaigns. He was for many years postmaster at Washington, N. C., and served at different times in the State Legislature.

of

THE SIXTY-SIXTH SESSION NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION

Held at Washington, N. C., November 23-24, 1910

WEDNESDAY, November 23rd.

The sixty-sixth session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention convened in the Christian Church at Washington, N. C., at 10 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, November 23rd, 1910, with J. W. Hines presiding. Song service led by Bro. R. V. Hope, prayer by Bro. L. T. Rightsell. J. R. Roundtree, of Kinston, Recording Secretary, being absent, C. C. Ware, of Greenville, was appointed Secretary protem.

The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. R. V. Hope, pastor of the local Church, in his characteristic, genial way. Response was fittingly and touchingly given by D. W. Davis, of Hertford. President J. W. Hines then gave a pointed speech, suggesting that there be one Secretary of the State Board instead of two. That the State Board be enlarged; that the future Corresponding Secretary be not considered a member of the State Board, and that if possible, future Conventions be held at a more suitable time.

The ministers of the State, who were present, then gave oral reports of the work of the past year in their respective fields, as follows:

H. S. Davenport, Hyde County; S. P. Spiegel, Wilson;

Bernard P. Smith, Kinston; R. V. Hope, Washington; G. H. C. Stoney, Winston-Salem; H. C. Bowen, Belhaven; S. W. Sumrell, Grifton; E. E. Moore, Grifton; W. O. Winfield, Bath; Thomas Green, Pantego; L. T. Rightsell, LaGrange; Dennis Davis, Hertford; I. W. Rogers, Bridgeton; J. F. Sumrell, —; J. R. Tingle, Grimesland; C. C. Ware, Greenville; H. C. Boblett, Rocky Mount; C. B. Mashburn, Hayes Farish, H. H. Settle, J. J. Walker and B. F. Oden, of A. C. C., Wilson; Jesse T. Moore, Rocky Mount; J. W. Brickhouse, Holly Neck; Prof. Moreuch, Wilson.

WEDNESDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

Session opened at 2:30 with song and praise service led by J. W. Perry. C. M. Morton, Corresponding Secretary, then read his report. (See report.) Report duly accepted.

George Hackney, Treasurer, then made report which was accepted. (See report.)

Dr. J. C. Caldwell, President of the Atlantic Christian College, then presented financial report for the College, showing that pledges on liquidation of College debt to the amount of $9,651.50 had been paid, with unpaid pledges to the amount of $1,921.60. Report accepted.

Dennis W. Davis made an impressive plea for the A. C. College urging that the $15,000 necessary for the liquidation of College debt be raised immediately, if possible. Whereupon cash and pledges to the amount of about $325 were received. Committees were then announced by President J. W. Hines.

The next day being Thanksgiving Day, Bro. Bernard P. Smith moved that the Convention hold praise service at 11 o'clock A. RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, delegates to this North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention here assembled, have been so cordially received and entertained by the people of Washington, and have been so richly blessed by Almighty God in their deliberations, be it resolved:

1. That we heartily thank the people of Washington for their unexcelled hospitality.

2. That we sincerely appreciate the courtesies of other religious bodies of the city in tendering their houses of worship for our use, and the manifest fellowship of their representatives in the sessions of the convention.

3. That we sincelely thank and commend Brother Robert V. Hope, minister of the local Christian Church, for his untiring zeal and notable efficiency in looking after the comfort of the delegates.

4. That we heartily appreciate the assistance of Mrs. Travis Hooker, J. M. Perry, Mr. Franklin and the Atlantic Christian College quartette, trio and soloist and Mrs. Clara Barry, local organist, in the music of the convention.

5. That Bros. A. McLean, R. M. Hopkins, R. P. Shepherd, John H. Wood, Dr. Jenny Crozier and the organizations which they respectfully represent, be thanked for their presence at this convention and the inspiration that they have given.

6. That we truly appreciate the services of the executive and advisory boards of the N. C. C. M. C. for the past year and that we especially commend Bro. C. M. Morton, who has worked under much responsibility and large difficulties.

7. That we heartily commend Bro. J. C. Caldwell who has worked cheerfully and strenuously for the A. C. C. and we recommend that all pray fervently and work earnestly to retain his valuable services to A. C. C.

8. That we gratefully acknowledge the courtesies of the local newspaper (The Daily News) and those of other cities in giving publicity to this convention.

9. That the N. C. C. W. B. M. heartily concurs in these resolutions.

10. That copies of these resolutions be presented to the local daily paper and Carolina Evangel for publication.

I. W. Rogers,
Hayes Farish,
Chas. C. Ware,
Committee on Resolutions.

Corresponding Secretary's Report

Number of mission points, 6; number of additions under work of missionaries, 26; number of meetings held under Board, 2; amount raised from churches and Sunday schools, $1,120.41; received from A. C. M. S., $400; received from C. W. B. M. for Wilmington, $300. Total, $1,820.41.

Wilmington, the most important and largest mission ever undertaken in North Carolina, has been cared for and while about one-half of the time no regular minister has been on the ground, the pulpit has been supplied. As a result of the year's work sixteen have been added to the membership. Whitakers, Pollocksville, Trenton, Dover and Freemont have also been assisted to have regular services once each month. The work has been commendable and some progress made. At Trenton six were added as a result of the year's work. At Whitakers four were added The Board has endeavored to make every dollar count as much as possible and the only reason why more work has not been done and a more aggressive campaign operated has been because of the instructions of the convention and the lack of funds.

C. Manly Morton.

STATE CONVENTION REPORTS.

Report of President of Atlantic Christian College.

We beg to submit the following report:

Our College has so far this year enrolled a total of a hundred and forty-three students. Of this number a hundred and eight are in the College or Preparatory Departments; sixteen are in the Business Course, and nineteen are special students. Of this number twelve are preparing for the ministry. This is eighteen more than we have ever enrolled before the Convention even though the Convention is one month earlier. We are better pleased with the personnel of the studnt body and of the teaching force than at any time in the past. Students have come to us better prepared, and, during the last two years, our Preparatory work has been as full as is wise to accomplish the best results.

We are insisting so strenuously on maintaining the recognized standard ofthe best College in our College work that few students come to us ready for our Freshman class. During the past summer we have materially increased the equipment of the College: First in the building of a new Dormitory as a home for our young men. Four years ago there were only nineteen young men who were students of the institution. The College was preeminently a girls' school with a few boys taking Business Course and a few young men studying for the ministry. At that time even, it was realized that some social center was necessary or even these would be lost. A piece of residence property was bought which answered for a year. The next two years another residence adjoining was rented and run as a "club house." Last year these proved absolutely inadequate and we stood face to face with the danger of losing the p restige and patronage we had won. The College had just been cleared of all debt except about two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) for current expenses which had accumulated during the four previous years. I was anxious to see this absolutely wiped out, which I thought could have been done during the summer from churches which had not been canvassed during the past few years.

About this time the interest of the citizens of Wilson largely outside of our own Church, became so intense and the demand for adequate accommodations for our young men so urgent that when the Chamber of Commerce of the town voluntarily took up the matter it was deemed wise to erect the new building, provided five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) could be raised. At that time we only contemplated a two-story building that would room about twenty boys and provide a social center for facilities for feeding a larger number who might room in the neighborhood. It was thought this could be done without involving the College in an indebtedness of more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). However, when our Board of Trustees met at Commencement in June, they deemed it wise to make the building three stories instead of two. This gave us a building which cost, furnished, twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00).

We had realized for several years that there was one weak place in our literary work. We were unequipped to teach, in a satisfactory way, the Natural Sciences. While we were building the Dormitory and competent labor was at hand, also reduced prices on building material which had been obtained for the larger undertaking, it was thought this was the most economical time to build and to equip a Laboratory, also to thoroughly repair and refurnish the living apartments of the young ladies. This was done so that you may feel that your sons and your daughters in your own institution have both the equipment and furnishing necssary to create an environment that makes for the best in both culture and refinement.

I regret that we may have to come to you again with a tale of debt and woe, but, when you realize that we must compete with State institutions that are given thousands year by year and with older religious colleges whose endowments run sometimes to a million, while we have only the loyal hearts of a loyal people who have a real vital interest in the religious culture of their own children and a burning desire to be a contributor to the general welfare. In a measure you wiil say, "that if the boy has grown so that his trousers are above his shoe tops he needs a new pair for the shins of a gawky age are ungainly to our eyes." Ever, as in the past, we have tried to make the College a real religious factor. Our boys during the past year have preached for 21 churches that otherwise would have been preacherless. So far as I know, during the past year there has been only one preacherless church in the State. It could probably have been supplied had its needs been known in time. Our young men have also held 18 protracted meetings and their labors during the year have resulted in 277 additions to the Church, while the untold influence of 701 sermons for hearts full of enthusiasm and love for souls can only be told in that great day.

We thank you for your interest, your prayers, your money and trust that you will not forget that if your sons and your daughters are to be saved for God and His Church in this age of skeptiscism, doubt and materialism, you need to have them, too, in an atmosphere that loves no less the culture but that loves God more. Adopted.

TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, recommend the following:

(1) That the State Legislature be called upon to make such laws as are necessary for the enforcement of our present prohibition laws.

(2) That every member of this Convention use his influence for the election of faithful and fearless officers to positions of trust and ever urge all people to uphold said officers in their strictest enforcement of the law.

(3) That the ministers shall preach to the end that the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors be abolished.

(4) That we heartily endorse the work of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League and its literature, and urge that our Church give it their moral and financial support.

(5) That we heartily concur with the resolutions of the Hyde Union and urge our ministers to use their influence individually and collectively in interesting our Congressmen and Senators in the following:

That, whereas the shipment of whiskies into our State and other States representing "dry territory" is a menace to our moral and intellectual life and tends to make our prohibitory laws of no effect, this Convention petitions our national representatives to separately and together secure the passage of such a bill, or bills, prohibiting the shipment of intoxicating liquors into States which have the prohibition laws.

J. T. SAUNDERS,
HAYES FARISH.

Resolution amended by motion of Brother B. P. Smith: That we appoint five delegates as representatives of this body to the National Anti-Saloon League Conference, in Washington, D. C., on December 11th to 14th, and, if necessary, the expenses of at least one delegate be paid, and the president of this Convention to see that at least one delegate goes.

LITERATURE.

We, your Committee on Literature, beg leave to report as follows: Realizing the great value of representative literature in the propagation of any plea, and especially since the plea that the Disciples of Christ are making for a restoration of the apostolic principles and a return to the intellect as well as the heart and emotions of the people, it is necessary that we carry on an educational campaign through our literature, we therefore recommend

(1) That we commend the work of the Evangel, being our local State paper, and we urge that our preachers and others already taking the paper use every effort possible to place it in every home of Disciples in this State.

We note and commend the recent changes: 1st. The transfer of ownership from the Roanoke Union to a self-perpetuating committee that shall own, operate and control the paper. 2d. The change of place of publication from Belhaven, N. C., to Wilmington, N. C., and the changes in the local members of the committee. 3d. The change of name from Carolina Evangel to The Evangel. We also commend and urge our national papers, especially the Christian Evangelist and Christian Standard.

(2) We recommend the use of more leaflets, pamphlets and books setting forth our principles to the people. We especially recommend the distribution of missionary literature and ask that our people read and become more familiar with this great question.

(3) We urge that our preachers make fuller and more complete reports to our papers, especially The Evangel, and also our national papers.

C. M. MORTON,
H. C. BOWEN.

OBITUARIES.

We, your Committee on Obituaries, beg to submit our report. We find that since last Convention God has called from our numbers Brother D. H. Adams. We therefore recommend that Brother C. L. Davis prepare a suitable obituary to publish in the minutes of this Convention.

J. R. TINGLE,
THOMAS GREEN,
I. W. ROGERS.

Daniel H. Adams, after a long life of useful service for God and his fellow men, passed to his reward on March 15, 1911, being eighty years old, a member of the Church of Christ about sixty years and a minister about fifty years. Brother Adams preached monthly for his home church at Pungo, Beaufort county, and many to the church.

He preached the Word in season and out of season, had many difficulties of which the young know but little, but in all things showed himself a true minister of God. It is truly said of him that he lived what he preached, was indeed upon the rock, and put on the whole armor of God. His daily conversation was pure, his speech was seasoned with salt for he let no communication proceed out of his mouth but that which was good to edifying.

Farewell, thou true yoke fellow and faithful servant of God and defender of the faith, once for all delivered unto the saints. Our venerable Brother H. S. Gurganus, of more than 85 years, has gone to be with you and others will go soon.

C. L. DAVIS.

Leechville, N. C.

(2) That Prof. E. L. Barham, of Wilson, and Joseph Rice, Jr., of Wilson, be ordained and enrolled as regular preachers of this State, and that Brothers S. P. Speigel and J. C. Caldwell have in charge this ordination service.

(3) That the names of H. S. Gurganus, D. H. Adams and C. H. Swain, who have joined the church triumphant, be dropped from our list.

(4) That the names of W. B. Brickhouse, G. A. Moore, Cecil Outlaw and D. H. Petree, having moved to other States, be dropped from the list of preachers of this State.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

OF

Christian Woman's Board of Missions

HELD IN

Ayden, N. C., October 31, 1911.

The Annual Board Meeting of the C. W. B. M. was held Tuesday morning at 9:00 in the Methodist Church, Ayden, N. C., Miss Etta Nunn presiding.

The Auxiliaries were well represented. After a devotional period Miss Nunn read recommendations from the Executive Committee which were discussed and accepted by the Board, and referred to the Convention for further acceptance.

After a general discussion of business the meeting adjourned with the C. W. B. M. Benediction.

MRS. F. F. BROOKS,
Recording Secretary.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The North Carolina Christian Woman's Board of Missions met in Convention, Tuesday afternoon, October 31, 1911, at Ayden, Mrs. M. E. Harlan and Miss Nunn leading the devotions. A most happy and cordial welcome by Mrs. J. R. Tingle met with a fitting response by Mrs. W. B. Herring, of Wilmington.

A splendid report from Jones—Onslow District was read by Mrs. Murrill and then received by Convention. (See Report.)

The Auditor's report came next revealing the condition of the books. (See Report).

Then the reports of Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer were received. (See Reports).

Mrs. Harlan made a brief talk explaining the National Development Fund.

Miss Nunn reported the field work of the State Missionary which was accepted as was also the recommendations from the Executive Committee. (See Reports).

The medal awarded the Society giving the greatest amount per member, being won by the Newbern Auxiliary, was presented by Mrs. Harlan, and accepted by Miss Nunn in behalf of her Auxiliary.

Miss Nunn then gave a very encouraging report of the Jubilee Rally at Greensboro; telling of the efficient work of Miss Florence Miller, and of the beautiful way in which they were received by the different churches. At the denominational meeting there were 17 members present and an offering of $127.00 was made for the beginning of the work there; and the hope that in the near future we will have a church established in Greensboro seems bright. Dr. J. C. Caldwell who also kindly aided Miss Nunn and Miss Miller in the work at Greensboro gave a very encouraging report.

Mrs. Harlan then told of the work of the Training School.

Adjourned until Wednesday evening.

WEDNESDAY.

The Board met again Wednesday at 9:00 a. m. at the Methodist Church, with the President presiding. Report of the Hookerton District read by Mrs. Taylor, the District Manager (Mrs. J. M. Mewboorne) not being present, also report of the Y. P. D., both reports accepted. (See Reports).

A motion prevailed that the aim for the children's work be raised to $700 instead of $600 as at first recommended.

The banner was presented to the Kinston Mission Band and accepted by Mrs. J. F. Taylor. Mrs. D. W. Arnold was elected District Manager of the Mill Creek District.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Devotions led by Mrs. Clara Grainger. Prayer by Mrs. Harlan. Then followed report of Nomination Committee which was accepted. (See Report.) Then came the delayed President's message which was very helpful and inspiring. This was followed by a quartette of the Wilson College girls.

Mrs. M. E. Harlan, Indianapolis, Ind., made a splendid address on "The Power of a Declared Purpose."

Miss Carrie Bowen, of Wilmington, sang very sweetly "Open the Doors of the Temple." The closing address of the evening was by Dr. A. L. Shelton, of Tibet, and was given in a very original and impressive manner. At the close of this address an offering of $27.44 was made to be equally divided between the Foreign Society and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

After the adjournment of the C. W. B. M. session of the Convention,there was a meeting of the Board and District Managers at the home of Mrs. Hodges.

Mrs. Harlan presided over the meeting. There was a general discussion of plans for the work. Mrs. Harlan gave some very helpful information and suggestions. Mrs. Arnold also told of some good plans for the children's work that she had used successfully. The following District Managers were elected: Mrs. Fred Latham, Roanoke Union; Mrs. A. F. Messick, Piedmont District; Mrs. O. W. Haskins, Pamlico District. The Board set as an aim for the year to gain 100 new members. Meeting adjourned and we were dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Harlan.

Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF STATE MISSIONARY.

The Field Work has been, largely, to strengthen the societies already at work. At the close of the year we could report only four new auxiliaries and one new Mission Band organized by your State missionary. During 122 days spent in the field 37 places were visited, 141 meetings held and more than 600 leaflets distributed. I attended our State Convention, helped in six C. W. B. M. Day services and at six places for Week of Prayer, three union meetings and the great Jubilee Rally in New York. Two weeks were spent in helping Miss Mills in rally work. Except for a month of field work in South Carolina, the rest of the time has been spent in secretary's work. We have not enlisted many new workers, but our women are finding out what they can do and the outlook for our work in North Carolina is more hopeful than ever before.

I cannot close this report without thanking our women throughout the State for the welcome given me in the homes, for all the kindness shown me, for the assistance in the work, for the words of love and sympathy and cheer when the way seemed dark. I cannot tell you all that it has meant to me. I am not satisfied with the year's work; we have not done all we hoped to do. Perhaps we have not worked enough, or is it that we have not prayed enough? Have we asked our Father for great things and expected Him to give them to us? ETTA NUNN.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

This has been the great jubilee year in Woman's Missionary work and we have tried to make it such in our State. We were fortunate in having Miss Florence Mills with us for two busy weeks and, while offerings reported at the time were not great, we know that many previously not interested were led into the work and have made gifts.

We regret not being able to report an increased membership. Four new auxiliaries (Royal, Trenton, Timothy and Albemarle) have been organized, but three organized last year (Middletown, Scranton and Selah) have disbanded and two of the older ones (Rountrees and Stoneville) have given up the work and so we now have but 33 societies. The average membership for the year is 555.

But we feel encouraged. There was a 16 per cent gain in number of churches and auxiliaries observing C. W. B. M. Day, with a corresponding increase in offerings. Our pastors of the churches having no auxiliaries have not given us much help in this way. Only five churches having no auxiliary observed C. W. B. M. Day. In one of these a Home Department member was responsible for the interest shown, in another your field worker had it in charge, and in the third some interested women saw to it. This shows that only two of the ministers of the churches having no missionary society granted the request to speak of the work and take an offering. A letter was sent to each one urging them to do this.

The number of societies observing the Week of Prayer increased 14 per cent., with a 43 per cent. increase in Easter offerings. Through the efforts of Home Department and interested women three churches made Easter offerings.

The special offerings, other than C. W. B. M. Day and Easter, have increased 236 per cent. over last year. A number of Life Memberships have been taken and six memorial named-plates have been placed in the Missionary Training School.

At our last convention it was decided not to ask for any extra offering for State development this year and so we have done less along this line. The deficit has been almost made up by the appropriation of $100 from the National Development Fund.

Eleven auxiliaries met all requirements for the Honor Roll. These are: Belhaven Catharine Lake, Comfort, Farmville, Kinston, LaGrange, New Bern, Oriental, Pantego, Royal, Wheat Swamp and Wilmington. A number missed the Honor Roll because all the regular monthly offerings had not been made. We must mention Catharine Lake's free-will offering for State fund and also the State offering from LaGrange. Two other societies deserve special mention. Farmville has done fine work and has given three times as much as last. Royal, organized in December with seven members, now has 17 and in ten months they have given $50.39, placing them fourth in average offerings.

Last year in only six societies was the average gift per member as much as $3.00. This year 14 auxiliaries have passed the $3.00 mark. The five highest averages are: Pantego. $4.29; Royal, $4.58; Wilson, $4.74; Kinston, $5.29; New Bern, $5.60.

Some time ago cards were sent out asking for the number of members in each society attending every meeting of the year; the names of any who have been taken from us; the names of new life members. Very few secretaries have answered these cards. Timothy reports three present at every meeting; Wilmington, 2; Wheat Swamp, 2; Mt. Olive, 1; Catharine Lake, 1; Greenville, 1; Grimesland, 1; Kinston, 4; Farmville, 1.

Belhaven reports two new life members: Miss Lida Wilkinson and Miss Lorena Barfield. New Bern, Mrs. N. F. Nunn and Mr. F. M. Bowden; Wilson, Mr. P. T. Cobb, Mr. George Hackney, Mr. J. B. Deans, Mr. H. C. Boblitt; Wheat Swamp, Mrs. Sue Hardy; Kinston, Mrs. Annie LaRoque, Mrs. Susannah Rountree, Mrs. Amanda Green. The Death Angel visited our ranks and we have keenly felt the loss of Mrs. J. C. Barrington, president of Dunn Auxiliary; Mrs. W. R. Horne, secretary at Farmville; Mrs. W. W. Gibbs, secretary at Bath; Miss Eldie Amerson, of Wilson Auxiliary.

One month of the new missionary year has gone. We are glad to know that two of our old auxiliaries, Dover and Dunn, have reorganized and are planning to do a full year's work.

The best thing of the month was the great Jubilee Rally in Greensboro. We were proud of our representative there, Miss Florence Miller, and of the splendid response from the scattered Disciples in Greensboro. We believe this will mark the beginning of a permanent work there and are grateful that the C. W. B. M. and its workers could be used to such an end.

Sisters, has your society had a part in the October campaign for members and Tidings? Have you seen to it that every woman in your church has been urged to join the Missionary Society and to subscribe to the Tidings? If not, let us make November the busiest month we have had and so come to the C. W. B. M. Day service with many new members. So shall we be "Workers together with Christ."

ETTA NUNN,
Corresponding Secretary.

New Bern, N. C.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Your State Board recommends:

1. That our Honor Roll conditions be the same as last year: (1) The observance of C. W. B. M. Day; (2) observing the Week of Prayer and Easter; (3) promptly reporting each quarter; (4) the average of 15c per month per member; (5) increase in membership, Tidings subscriptions and offerings.

2. That November be the month for the Special Campaign for new members, and for Tidings and King's Builders Subscriptions; that the campaign be continued throughout the year and monthly reports of progress be made through the Evangel.

3. That we emphasize the work of United Mission Study and try to organize classes; that this year be made a special year of Mission Study of our own work, using the new literature that has been issued by our own Board.

4. That our Financial Aim for the National Treasury from our Auxiliaries be $2,000; from the Young People's Soceties be $700.

5. That the National Watchword——Knowledge, Growth, Fulfilment—be our State Watchword.

REPORT OF DISTRICT MANAGER FOR JONES-ONSLOW UNION.

It has been a privilege to work for Christ and His Kingdom another year. Acknowledging our entire dependence on the Giver of All Blessings, we make this report.

We have endeavored to keep in touch with our congregations in the district, visiting when possible, sending letters to all sections where we have regular services, urging those having no auxiliary or mission band to attend the unions. The whole duty of Christians might be summed up in the Master's words, "Go tell." Our Savior said, "A kingdom divided against itself cannot stand." We should be loyal subjects for one who refuses to respond to the call of his Sovereign rebels against Him. All the churches except one were represented in the district meeting at Richlands in January. Our jubilee year was explained and each member was earnestly requested to make this a great, glorious year in His service. In April our district meeting at Trenton was a success, as our corresponding secretary organized an auxiliary and gave an account of her trip to the Golden Jubilee in New York. When Christians meet as one in effort and lay hold on God, in earnest, united prayer, then we are co-laborers with Christ in the salvation of the world.

We were unable to attend the union at Dover, but prepared the program for our service, which was observed with Mrs. C. D. Brown as leader.

Since our report in September we have a new mission band of 23 members as a "section" of Catharine Lake. This arrangement seems most advisable in localities where the members are widely separated. We are planning to get other Sunday Schools to work for missions, for knowledge comes quite as much, or more, by doing, as by thinking.

C. W. B. M. Day was observed by most of the auxiliaries, also the Week of Prayer and the Easter service. Sickness interfered at two places, after the usual preparations were made.

I have written 53 letters, distributed leaflets, Tidings and King's Builders. In every place the Y. P. Work is emphasized, for we know the world's manhood is secure when we have gained its childhood.

We earnestly pray for the hearty co-operation of all church members in this labor of love, for we know the spirit of missions is the spirit of Christ. Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. D. MURRILL.

REPORT OF THE HOOKERTON DISTRICT MANAGER FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER, 1911.

In the district we have ten auxiliaries, nine of these reported at each meeting.

The meetings have been well represented by delegates from a majority of the societies.

I have attended all the meetings except one and helped with the programs.

I have written forty letters urging the auxiliaries to send reports and delegates to the unions.

The meetings have been well attended and our women are doing a splendid work in the district. Total collection amounting to $13.85. Respectfully submitted,

That we have only two colleges east of the Alleghany Mountains on the whole Atlantic Seaboard, where history has been made and where so much wealth exists, still we have so few in membership. Thousands of converts were baptized under his ministry mainly in Eastern North Carolina. At the time of his death he was serving as evangelist in the Roanoke Union District. He was married three times, first to Miss Lula Ann Squires about 1845, next to Miss Caroline Burgess and last to Miss Mollie Satchwell. Brother Whitley was baptized about 1857 by Amos J. RESOLUTIONS.

We, your Committee on Resolutions, submit the following:

Inasmuch as all delegates and visitors to this Convention have been royally entertained and cared for, and inasmuch as a few choice spirits have been responsible for our pleasure, entertainment and benefit, therefore, be it Resolved,

1. That we extend our heartiest thanks and highest appreciation to Brother C. B. Mashburn and the Farmville Church for their untiring attention to our needs and comfort. They deserve all the good things that we can say about them; they have manifested an excellent spirit throughout all the trying hours of caring for the great throng of visitors.

2. That our kindest thought, hearty thanks and highest appreciation be extended to the citizens of Farmville in whose houses we have stayed. At the cost of their effort and an exertion of their hospitality we have fared sumptuously by day and by night.

3. That we extend our thanks to the following brethren, and the organizations they represent: Brethren Grant K. Lewis, of the American Christian Missionary Society; J. H. Mohorter, of the National Benevolent Association; Geo. W. Muckley, of the Board of Church Extension; Robt. M. Hopkins, J. Randall Faris, and Miss Lilly Faris, of the Sunday School Department of the American Christian Missionary Society; Stephen J. Corey, of the F. C. M. S.; and Mrs. Oliver, of Virginia, who is representing the C. W. B. M., for the valuable service they have rendered this Convention.

4. That we express our highest appreciation of the work of our State Board, who have labored so strenuously in the discharge of the duties laid upon them by the Convention.

5. That we express our appreciation and satisfaction to the Committee who have arranged the program of this Convention which has been so admirably executed.

6. That we express our hearty thanks, appreciation and gratitude to those who have furnished music to the highest degree of satisfaction to all; especially Brother H. C. Boblitt for his excellent leadership, which to a large measure has been responsible for the success of the music. Miss Laura Pope, who has rendered such excellent service at the piano, and Miss Carrie Bowen, who has thrilled us with her beautiful solos.

7. That we express some consideration for the publicity that the papers, Christian Evangelist, Christian Standard, News and Observer, and other local papers have given to this Convention.

8. That we call attention of this Convention to the fact that the Christian Board of Publication in declaring its dividend of $10,000, distributed the proceeds among our different Missionary enterprises, chief among which is, the Sunday School work, which received $5,000. This donation enables the Sunday School Board to employ such experts as we have named above, also is a great contribution to the Sunday School work among our Southern States. Such contribution to our work commends to our people the wisdom of such patronage as we may be able to give to the Board of Publication.

9. That we remind this Convention of the great work which is being done by President Jesse C. Caldwell and his able Faculty of the Atlantic Christian College.

The C. W. B. M. convening with this Assembly in joint Convention, desire to heartily concur in these resolutions.

Respectfully,
J. J. WALKER,
HORACE SETTLE,
HAYES FARISH,
Committee.

NORTH CAROLINA

Christian Missionary Convention

WILSON, N. C.

Report of The State Secretary

To the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention

As your servant in the organized work of our Lord the annual report of service rendered is herewith submitted.

THE OFFICE

The President ordered, and later, the board confirmed the purchase of a modest but necessary supply of office furniture consisting of a desk, letter and card file combined, three small desk files, a cutting table, a letter tray and one chair which is now the property of the society.

The office can now file all communications and reports from the missions, churches, and preachers and others as they may need to be preserved, and the office end of the service is now quite well organized.

THE FORCES

The last national yearbook shows that there are 159 churches with 15,239 members, 58 Bible schools with 4,130 pupils and 77 preachers. There are now 12 churches that have preaching full time. According to this showing there are 101 churches that have no Bible school

To the list of churches there should be added the names of Double Creek, Rockford: Greensboro; Rosemary, Roanoke Rapids; Westside, Winston Salem and Saratoga.

STATE SECRETARY

A summary of the work of the State Secretary for nine months beginning with January 1st and up to October 1st, is as follows:

Days' service, 276; churches visited, 67; sermons delivered, 156; conversions, 7, additions otherwise, 30; total additions, 37. He attended 4 district meetings, visited nine times in the missions, and dedicated the Southside Church building, Winston-Salem. The collections are $410.84 and the expenses, including office and traveling expenses, are $197.12.

He held short meetings at Scranton; Westside church, Winston-Salem; Spray, First and Second Churches; Wilson's Mills; Dunn; Mt. Pleasant; Greenville; Corinth; Germanton; Wilbanks and Statesville.

One week was spent at Statesville prospecting for the organization of a church but the conditions were not favorable.

He organized a church of 30 members at Greensboro and on the request of Miss Nunn and the advice of Dr. Caldwell, this mission was turned to the C. W. B. M. for their care in the future. This mission has now a good lot for building and Dr. Caldwell preaches for it once a month.

The secretary made a strong campaign for American missions for the month of May, which resulted in offerings being made by 50 churches against 25 of last year, though the offering did not quite double.

Leading up to the state convention he made an aggressive campaign for offerings through the month of October.

At the end of each month your secretary renders a report to the board through Mr. W. C. Manning, secretary, and it shows itemized accounts of the expenses and collections.

SOUTHSIDE CHURCH

Please inform me of any errors that they may be corrected.

GREENVILLE CONVENTION—COMMITTEE REPORTS

Resolutions Committee. We, the Committee on Resolutions submit the following: First, Whereas there are forces at work looking to the alliance of religious and civil authority, and whereas such alliances in other countries in all times past have proven to be a menace to human welfare, be it resolved: that, while according to each the full right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and making no stricture or reproach on the religious faith of any person, this the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention desires to go on record as unalterably opposed to any alliance between church and state beyond wholesome and efficient religious instruction and to any attempt of anyone to dictate or manipulate the affairs of any other. Further we believe that all schools, convents, monasteries and Houses of refuge and orphanages under whatever name or organization should by national and state laws be under, at all times, efficient inspection.

We wish especially to express our thanks and appreciation to Brother W. C. Manning for his untiring and efficient work as Secretary of our State Board.

Third, Resolved: That we express to Brother J. W. Hines, President of this Convention, our deepest sympathy in the recent bereavement which has come to him in the loss of his faithful and devoted wife.

Fourth, Resolved: That we express our thanks and appreciation for the splendid service the local and state papers have given us in liberal space and publishing the proceedings of our convention from day to day.

Fifth, Inasmuch as all delegates and visitors to this Convention have been royally entertained, be it resolved: That we extend our thanks to the Mayor and citizens of Greenville for the welcome and loving entertainment we have received in the city and homes of the good people of Greenville. That we extend our hearty thanks to Brother J. J. Walker and the other members of the committee on entertainment for their zealous care and careful thought for our comfort while in the city. That we extend our thanks to the representatives of our different organizations representing our national and world- wide aims, for their messages of love and zeal in the efforts of our great Brotherhood to win the world for Christ. That we express our appreciation to our field secretary, Brother J. Fred Jones, for the work so royally begun in our State. That we express our appreciation for the co-operation of the C. W. B. M. with our State Board in the work of the State..

The C. W. B. M., in joint Convention, heartily concurs in these resolutions.

Signed,
A. F. LEIGHTON,
H. C. BOWEN,
GEO. A. MOORE,

Bible School Committee. First, we recommend that an annual School of Methods be instituted for North Carolina. That the one for 1914-1915 be held at Wilson, March 29-April 2, 1915. Second, we we recommend that the Convention ask the unions of the State to join with Roanoke Union in employing Miss Frances Tuten as State Bible School Field Worker if this arrangement is agreeable to the Roanoke Union. That R. V. Hope be selected to make this possible arrangement. Third, we recommend that the Convention advise the Unions to have such worker, if employed, give her time and attention to the weaker schools and churches that have no schools. Fourth, that the Convention recommend and urge that the Bible Schools of the State to generally and generously make the offering for American Missions November 22nd, or near that time, looking to the time when the A. C. M. S. may give us an expert Bible School superintendent for the States of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. Fifth, we recommend that the Convention Program Committee give the morning of the second day of next year as the time for the Bible School session. Sixth,, we recommend that the Bible

Ordination and Examination Committee. We would call attention to the need of bearing in mind that this Convention has no authority to prohibit any church from ordaining whomsoever she will, a that this committee is purely advisory, an aid to order and culture, and a safe-guard against unworthy aspirants for the ministry. But it is our judgment that the work of the Committee well done is also a great help to the candidate. With these things in view, we have examined young men as to the following: character and qualifications, based on their faith in Jesus, their knowledge of the Gospel and confidence in the Word of God os His message and their knowledge in general Third, adaptability. Fourth, motive. Fifth, willingness to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

We recommend that S. B. Waggoner, A. C. Neal, W. O. Lappin, and J. E. Reynolds be enrolled, and that A. C. Fodrey, Joel E. Vause

J. A. Taylor, and W. H. Marler be ordained to the ministry at time and place most suitable.

Obituary Committee. Since the last Convention, two of our preachers have been called from their earthly labors to their Heavenly reward—Brother J. S. Henderson, who had grown gray in a long and useful service for his Master and Brother J. P. Davis, who had just given his young and promising life to the ministry of the Word. We wish also to speak for our loss of two other of God's saints. Though not in the active ministry, they were among the best known and most beloved of the disciples of North Carolina—Brothers E. A. Moye and W. M. Lang. Only those who were associated with these brethren in State Work can realize what a great loss they are to us. May the precious memory of these two lives be a stimulus to us to more active service in the Master's cause.

Signed,
S. W. SUMRELL,
C. F. OUTLAW,
RICHARD BAGBY.
Adopted.

Temperance Committee. The Committee on Temperance is glad to note the increased activity for temperance reform throughout the State and nation. The recent State-wide victories in Virginia and other States, have given quite an impetus to the work. The indications are that South Carolina, Maryland, Kentucky, New Mexico and Idaho, and other States will be fighting for state-wide prohibition next year. We note from the papers and reports of the Anti-Saloon League that generally the sentiment is growing fast in this state, that the officers are more vigilant, and that the church is more emphatic in its stand for the strictest prohibition laws.

The doom of the liquor traffic seems sure and national prohibition is no longer a dream, but a sure prophecy, whose fulfilment is close at hand. The passage of the Sheppard-Hobson resolution will put this question squarely before the states of the Union, and when once submitted, it will be speedily ratified by the Legislatures of one State after another until thirty-six States have fallen into line, and prohibition will be written in the U. S. constitution.

In view of the above, your committee recommends: First, that this Convention memoralize the next General Assembly to enact a law advocated by the Anti-Saloon League, to prohibit the passession and delivery of intoxicating liquors. Second, that this Convention memorialize Congress to pass the Sheppard-Hobson resolution, submitting national constitutional prohibition to the States. Third, that this Convention endorse the work and literature of the Anti-Saloon League, assure it of our moral and financial support, and urge our churches and preachers to use its speakers whenever practicable.

Signed:
H. S. CARAWAN,
ALFRED C. NEAL,
R. V. HOPE.
Adopted.

Education Committee. We submit the following: That this Convention heartily commend Pres. Caldwell and his able faculty for their splendid work; that the following trustees be elected for three years: J. W. Hines, C. W. Howard, Geo. Hackney, Jr., S. G. Mewborn, A. J. Moye; and for two years, F. R. Hodges.

Signed,
GEO. HACKNEY,
McD. HOLLIDAY,
A. J. MOYE.
Adopted.

Resolution subjoined and adopted: Whereas, during the last two or three years owing to the fact that there has been no concerted action o nthe part of the churches to raise funds for the support of the Atlantic Christian College, it is now necessary to meet the current expenses of the institution, to raise approximately $3,000.00 by January 1st, 1915. Be it resolved by the Convention that the State Board do apportion such current deficit among the churches on the basis of the apportionment for State Missions, and that through the State Secretary the Board use its best efforts to secure from the churches a voluntary and united effort for the extinguishment of this deficit by January 1st, 1915.

Outlaw, Chairman, motion was made by E. P. Tingley, seconded by L. A. Bellonby, that Charlotte be inserted in the Committee's report in place of Kinston, as the designated place of next Convention, the said motion precipitating a prolonged and spirited discussion, and finally prevailing by majority vote. Upon motion of B. P. Smith, Charlotte was made unanimous choice of convention, as place for 1916 Convention. (By subsequent action of Charlotte congregation, 1916 State Convention must be held elsewhere—Cor. Sec.) Reports were then made by Corresponding secretary and treasurer. Thanks of Convention were tendered P. A. Hodges, Recording Secretary and L. J. Chapman, Treasurer, for their efficient services. PUNGENT POINTS IN APPENDED STATISTICS

Only 33 churches out of 164 failed to make 1915 report. It is hoped that we will make this reporting unanimous next time.

Of the eight districts the Roanoke is much the largest, having almost twice the number of churches and members as any other district. It will be seen, however, that the Piedmont embraces the larger number of counties and more of the largest cities.

For State Missions there is but one unanimous district, the Nash-Edgecombe; the Hookerton being nearly so, only four churches failing to make the offering. Every district should strive to be unanimous in the support of missions in our own great State, whose Home Missionary opportunities are so much larger than we have been able to grasp.

Of our 53 Ministers actively preaching, 13 are giving full time service to one church in their respective fields. Two more fields, Farmville and Washington, are accustomed to full time ministry, but unoccupied at time of compilation of these statistics. It thus appears that at least 40 of our ministers give only part time to any one church, many of them not being in the communities of their churches more than one day out of the month, respectively. Thirty-seven churches each have no regular Minister.

In District Missions, in proportion to membership, Hyde District leads, her 782 members giving slightly in excess of 19 cents per capita, per annum.

Roanoke District leads in Bible School enrollment, exceeding Hookerton by 256, but she has a membership in her churches of 3,000 more than in Hookerton. Of 164 churches in the State, 45 have no iBble Schools.

Hookerton District leads in number of additions, having 549 to her credit. In proportion to her membership, however, Jones-Onslow leads Hookerton slightly in her increase, and Nash-Edgecombe leads all the Districts with a 28 per cent increase, the increase in the State being about 10 per cent.

The average membership of a North Carolina church of Christ is 108. In Mill Creek District, the average is 154, as she has some large county churches.

Pamlico District is seen to be well supplied with Ministers, having only three preacherless churches. These should be speedily and properly supplied.

The total property valuation of North Carolina churches of Christ is $346,625.00, but insured for only $61,850.00, less than one-fifth of their value. Two whole Districts, namely Hyde and Nash-Edgecombe, whose church property aggregates $24,750.00, report not a dollar of insurance. Why is the property of North Carolina churches of Christ not better insured?

Of the 100 counties in North Carolina, 34, having total population of 917,418, have churches of Christ. The remaining 66, having to tal population of 1,288,869, have no church of Christ, their names being as follows: Alamance, Alexander, Alleghany, Anson, Ashe, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Camden, Caswell, Catawba, Chatham, Cherokee, Chowan, Clay, Cleveland, Columbus, Cumberland, Dare, Davidson, Duplin, Durham, Franklin, Gaston, Gates, Graham, Granville, Haywood, Henderson, Hertford, Hoke, Iredell, Jackson, Lee, Lincoln, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Mitchell, Montgomery, Moore, North Hampton, Orange, Pasquotank, Pender, Person, Polk, Randolph, Richmond, Robeson, Rowan Rutherford, Scotland, Stanly, Swain, Transylvania, Union, Vance, Warren, Watauga, Wilkes, Yadkin, Yancey. Of the 100 county seats in the state, there are churches of Christ in 18. Of the 110 towns and cities in the State having population of 1,000 or more, 23 have churches of Christ and 87 have none. The seven largest cities having no church of Christ are, in the order of their size, Durham, High Point, Elizabeth City, Concord, Fayetteville, Salisbury and Statesville.

Mission points being cultivated which are yet unorganized churches are: Havelock, Wilmar, Deep Run, Otway, Everetts, East Winston, Jacksontown, and School houses, Pierce's, Sounders', Pratz' and Gwyn's.

Annual Statistics, Churches of Christ in No

NOTE—Each church from which no 1915 report could be obtained has X prefixed before name, as appears in first records, obviously meager, and probably unreliable. It will be observed, however, that 131 churches out of the entire largest number ever making extended reports within a single year. For this we are duly grateful. May the Brethre booklet which were practically unavoidable.

After Jan. 5th, 1916 when these tables went to press five other churches reported, namely, Pantego, Bethlehem, S reserved, of course, for future compilation. It is to be noted that State Missions column gives statement covering pe belated State Work offerings might be given explicit recognition.

We, your committee, recommend Wilson as the place of the 1917 Convention.

As to the time, we recommend the early part of November, the exact time to be set by the Wilson church and the State Board. We refrain from setting an exact date because some local conditions might interfere.

BRIEF SURVEY OF THE FIELD

According to latest available figures there are in North Carolina 179 Churches of Christ with about 18.000 members located in 38 of the 100 counties. Of these 179, 19 or 10 6-10 per cent have no regular services of any kind, and thus are properly classed decadent. All these decadent churches are rural. This leaves 160 churches having regular services, served by 59 employed ministers. There is a Church of Christ in the county seat of each of 19 of the 38 counties having Churches of Christ. Of the 160 active churches, 33 or 20 6-10 per cent are in towns or cities having 600 population or upward, leaving 127 rural churches, or 79.4 per cent of the whole number of active churches.

As to ministry there are 18 full-time churches, one three-fourth-time church, nine half-time churches, leaving 132 churches, or 82 per cent each having only monthly preaching services.

As to location of these 179 churches, following is an analysis by counties:

Twenty-one in one county; 13 in one county; 12 in one county; 11 in one county; nine in one county; eight in each of two counties; seven each of three counties; six in each of two counties; five in each of three counties; four in each of two counties; three in each of seven counties; two in each of six counties, and one in each of eight counties. Eighty-two churches, or 45 per cent of the whole number are in the following seven counties: Beaufort, Pitt, Martin, Pamlico, Hyde, Lenoir and Craven.

RESUME OF THE YEAR'S MISSIONARY, BENEVOLENT AND EDUCATIONAL OFFERINGS

North Carolina Churches of Christ for last missionary year gave, in total offerings, as follows: Foreign missions $1,069.96; church extension, $111.56; ministerial relief, $106.01; National Benevolent Association, $827.48; Christian Woman's Board of Missions, $2,844.67; state missions, $1,965.29; Atlantic Christian College, $1.396.15; A. C. M. S., $364.94; Bible School department, A. C. M. S., $121.52; District missions, $1,601.10; grand total $10,408.68.

Related to the previous year, this marks thoroughgoing gains without a single exception, according to the following percentages: Foreign missions, 43 per cent; church extension, 42 per cent; ministerial relief, 41 per cent; National Benevolence Association, 68 per cent; Christian Woman's Board of Missions, 11 per cent; State Missions. 60 per cent; Atlantic Christian College, 291 per cent; A. C. M. S., 33 per cent; Bible school department, A. C. M. S., 135 per cent; District Missions, 45 per cent.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. C. WARE, Cor. Sec.

FINANCING THE STATE WORK

It is not our porpose to offer anything particularly new on this vitally important topic in this appended note, but to outline with emphasis some well known, conclusively demonstrated principles of finance as related to our state missionary service.

Best of all plans in church finance is that of the "Every-member-canvass" which elicits support from all, or virtually all, church members when properly worked. Solicitation of every member of pledge for liberal definite, weekly, giving to common missionary funds, budgeted sanely, followed up with system of supervision, intelligent, prayerful, persistent and tactful, is the last word of efficiency in the stable financing of missions. This method is quite practical in our 18 full-time churches; somewhat less so in the ten others who have more than monthly preaching, yet altogether practical even in them. The every member canvass and budget plan can be successfully worked in the country church with monthly preaching if an efficient committee can be found to push the offerings and if they have the thorough-going cooperation of a peracher with missionary conscience and vision. The increased offerings in our national societies are. as a matter of course, due to more thorough and systematic, as well as liberal, giving of the brotherhood individually and collectively.

We cannot too greatly emphasize the importance of the minister's intelligence and sympathy in the matter of missionary giving in the churches. He is the leader. He is the shepherd. At least one sermon a year should be devoted in its purpose exclusively to a clear cut state missionary appeal to the church collectively and individually, and if the offering is taken only once during the year, let that sermon by all means, be immediately in connection with the offering, or immediately preceeding it. Where our people do not give intelligently, they do not, as a rule, give liberally, or cheerfully, or regularly, and worst of all, they do not give increasingly as the Lord has prospered them. The minister can get his knowledge and enthusiasm to some appreciable extent at national, state and district conventions, and if he can not attend these, then the state office is always willing and desirous to impart whatever facts and inspiration it commands. Our entire state missionary offering in North Carolina last year (1914-15) was only six cents per member. If we are to do great things in this great state it is largely up to our preachers to help us increase this offering. Our state mission's 60 per cent increase is due very largely to preachers this year. Our joys of fellowship with them have been rich and deep.

It is vitally important that the state mission work be kept on the highest organization plane possible. Witness the exemplary success of the C. W. B. M., in this state in the amount of their offerings. For an efficient missionary organization, manifest in the amount of their offerings, as otherwise, they certainly stand at the forefront in this state.

It would be well if churches generally would take state mission offerings more frequently, as the total in that way in almost all cases would be larger; witness the giving to district missions, in which several instances can be readily found where a church gives only as much to state missions in a whole year as it gives to district missions in only one-quarter of the year, and thus the total given to district missions is four times greater than that to state missions.

We believe the apportionment system, generally speaking, works well, because it furnishes a definite and realizable goal. This year, in most instances however, the apportionments have been too low. Several churches each have had the good grace to give beyond their respective apportionment. But when we prepared the apportionment table in March, we could not foresee 18 cent cotton in October.

Now fundamentally the great dynamic in our giving is to please our Lord by the more thorough establishment of the New Testament church in our great state. If it is not worth while to plant a real living church of Christ in Charlotte, in Wilmington, in Greensboro, in Raleigh, in Goldsboro, in New Bern, in Littleton, in Wendell, in Fremont, and in Whitakers, then nothing in this world is worth while. May God speed us in the accomplishment of this well-defined task!

CHAS. C. WARE, Cor. Sec.

NOTES GRAPHIC AND PARAGRAPHIC

One hundred and sixty churches out of the entire number of 179 reported for 1916 missing the unanimous by the unprecedentedly close margin of 19 churches. Eighty-nine per cent made the 1916 report. Much credit is due the church correspondents and preachers for their extensive, valuable reporting.

In the last North Carolina Year Book statistics were given for total of 164 churches, showing total membership in State, 17,760; this year the total membership is reported 19,639, but this year the figures for 179 churches are shown, of which 15 churches either were not in existence in 1915, or their existence was unknown to the State Secretary. Furthermore the membership of the entire roster of 179 churches is given this year, whereas the membership of only 157 last year could be ascertained so as to be registered. This taken in connection with 1,415 accessions to the churches, clearly accounts for the swelling of the membership by nearly 2,000.

There are 62 counties in North Carolina yet unoccupied by the disciples. In the 38 which are occupied, exactly half of the county seats are churchless by our folk. The fifteen decadent churches should not long remain thus. North Carolina is a great mission field for the disciples of Christ!

Some mission points now under ministerial cultivation, not yet organized churches, are: Church's Island, Currituck Court House, Havelock, Hazaline, Jacksontown, Mt. Pleasant (Hyde), New Holland, Otway, Pantego Swamp, Piney Woods, Rose Bay, Sandy Ridge, Swainsland, Tiny Oak, Vanceboro, and School Houses: Baum, Dunn, Everetts, Graingers, Highland, Latham's, McGowan's. Church building plans are reported for New Holland (million-dollar pumping plant), and Otway.

Scattered disciples never having been organized, and with sporadic, or, as in most cases, with no preaching at all, are known to be located in number as follows: Bacon Neck, 3; Bethel (Pitt), 4; Durham, 2; Elizabeth City, 1; Fayetteville, 4; Kenly, 6; Middlesex, 1; Momyer, 2; Selma, 1; Smithfield, 1; Tarboro, 32.

Of the total of 71 ministers of the churches of Christ resident in North Carolina, 32 give their service exclusively to the ministry, 27 supplement their ministerial salaries by secular employment, and of the remaining 12, who preach occasionally, none are employed for regular service by any church. Of the 39 having secular employment, 19 are farmers, 13 are teachers, two are county officers, and the remaining five are respectively, a bookkeeper, an engineer, a writer, a merchant, and a tobacconist.

Churches of Christ in North Carolina are located at seats of colleges as follows: Asheville, Ayden, Charlotte, Greensboro, Greenville, Littleton, Raleigh, Washington, Weaverville, Wilson, Winston-Salem.

Churches of Christ are located in number immediately at stations of the Railways as follows: Norfolk Southern Ry., 27; Atlantic Coast Line Ry., 24; Southern Ry., 10; Seaboard Air Line Ry., 4; Dover Southbound, 4; Washington and Vandemere, 3; Eastern Carolina, 3; Norfolk and Western, 2; Danville and Western, 2; Winston-Salem Southbound, 2; Piedmont and Northern, 1. Thus of the 179 churches, 65 are located within immediate access of Railway stations, and the remaining 114 are more than a mile from any station.

Following churches have parsonages: Asheville, Farmville, Greenville (in trust), Kinston, La Grange (fund), Mill Creek District (Newton Grove), Reidsville (equivalent), Rocky Mount, Washington, and Wilson.

Average membership of a church of Christ in North Carolina is 109. In Mill Creek District it is 146, but in Nash-Edgecombe District only 84. Ten largest churches are in the order of their size, Kinston, Phillippi, Old Ford, Beaver Dam, Wheat Swamp, Spray (1st), Washington, Wilson, Eureka, Winston-Salem (4th St.). Ten strongest counties in the order of their numerical strength are Beaufort, Pitt, Lenoir, Washington, Martin, Pamlico, Hyde, Wayne, Rockingham, and Jones.

In District Missions, Nash-Edgecombe leads with 28 cents per annum, per capita with Hyde a close second with 24 cents. Least of all is Hookerton with 4 cents per capita, with exception of Piedmont, which meets once per year. However, Hookerton leads in C. W. B. M. offerings, giving almost 50 per cent of the State total.

The per capita gift to all missions and benevolence, for 1916, by Districts as by reported membership and offerings, is as follows: Hookerton, $1.11; Hyde, 53c; Jones-Onslow, 37c; Mill Creek, 32c; Nash-Edgecombe, 63c; Pamlico, 50c; Piedmont, 40c; Roanoke, 32c; for the entire State, 58c. And the per capita giving for local church purposes for entire State, $3.71.

Average annual salary of ministers of churches of Christ in North Carolina for 1916 is $580.15, an increase of 12 per cent over the average of preceding year. Average annual ministers salary for the 19 full time churches is $1,028.00, aside from parsonages and other perquisites.

The amount of annual State Mission offering for 1916 broke all records, with 132 contributing churches, 89 of which reached or exceeded their apportionment. But this offering represented only 10 cents per capita of the membership. Brethren, we ought to continue to do better for State Missions!

For Atlantic Christian College which has trained nearly a hundred ministers, with 66 pulpits of the Carolinas now being served by her dynamic educational output, the disciples of North Carolina and South Carolina gave this last fiscal year $1,228.09. The next fiscal year should see a substantial increase. This College provides pivotal church leadership, and is thus of vital importance. It is the West Point for the army of 21,000 Carolina disciples. May the growing educational conscience of Carolina disciples fully realize this!

AN EPITOME OF THE WILSON CONVENTION

The 73rd Annual Session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention met at Wilson, Nov. 5-8, and was entertained by the First Christian Church with Atlantic Christian College duly participating. There were registered 231 out-of-city attendants, representing 75 churches; 44 resident N. C. preachers attended. The representation of the Churches in the spirit and ability of its personnel was notably of high quality, not being surpassed or equalled perhaps by any other N. C. Convention.

The strength and interest of the program was maintained at such a high point almost continually that it is not easy to point to outstanding features. The ministers of the State appearing on the program were W. S. Martin, J. Thos. Brown, P. B. Hall, Lawson Campbell, S. W. Sumrell, J. M. Perry, J. A. Taylor, J. E. Reynolds, Joel E. Vause, C. W. Howard, B. P. Smith, R. V. Hope, Jno. M. Waters, R. A. Smith, W. T. Mattox, R. L. Topping, Hayes Farish, J. J. Walker, W. A. Davis, C. M. McEntyre, L. T. Rightsell, J. W. Lollis, Richard Bagby, J. P. Ellis and S. T. Smith. In the special sessions, R. A. Smith presided for Atlantic Christian College, R. V. Hope for the Bible Schools, Hayes Farish for the Rural Churches, and W. P. Jordan for the Christian Endeavor Societies, and Mrs. R. F. Hill for C. W. B. M. Speeches from the laymen that added much force to the program came from Calvin Woodard, Wilson; L. J. Chapman, Grifton; W. C. Manning, Williamston; J. W. Hines, Rocky Mount; S. G. Mewborn, Wilson,

D. S. Carawan, Mesic; T. J. Stancill, Greenville; A. Z. Jarman, Richlands, and H. Galt Braxton, Kinston.

Visitors from without the State bringing special appeals to stir the Convention were E. B. Bagby of Washington City for Home Missions and Church Extension; Mrs. Lowell McPherson of New York, for C. W. B. M.; Homer F. Cooke, from Jacksonville, Fla., our Southeastern Bible School Field Secretary; F. M. Rains, of Cincinnati, O., for Foreign Mission, Ministerial Relief and Men and Millions; and Belt White of Roanoke, Ala., for National Benevolence. The presence of J. Boyd Jones, of Terre Haute, Ind., a veritable Tar Heel, did us all good.

Some of the more important actions of the Convention executed in adoption of committee reports were as follows: The five College Trustees whose terms expired this year were reelected, and Claude Kiser of Greensboro was elected to fill the place of the late Jno. B. Deans of Wilson, on this Board of Trustees. $3,000.00 was set as aim for Education Day for A. C. C. A resolution asking that Congress pass House Bill No. 6320 increasing number of chaplains in the U. S. Army to the proportion of one chaplain to each 1,200 enlisted men was passed. Likewise another resolution to the effect that in view of the higher cost of living, the churches wherever possible should increase salaries of their ministers, and that State Secretary should advise official boards of churches that this hearty and deliberate suggestion is commended to their serious attention. Still another resolution recommended that the names of the young men from churches and Bible Schools joining the National Colors in the Great War should be inscribed on a special honor roll, and that spiritual touch with them should be maintained. The C. W. B. M. State Officiary was changed very largely and now centers in Wilson instead of Kinston. Mrs. R. A. Smith was elected President. W. C. Manning was appointed to represent N. C. disciples with two others whom he shall appoint, at the forthcoming National Anti-Saloon League Convention at Washington City. Extension of the State Missionary front to Tarboro and Charlotte was recommended to consideration of State Board, also that continuation of support be granted Wilmington, Greensboro, Raleigh, Goldsboro, Wendell, Fremont and a new mission to be assumed at Saratoga. A standing Press Committee is to be appointed to give publicity to next Convention which meets at Robersonville, Nov. 1918.

State Secretary's annual report showed that eight workers had been constantly employed by State Board, reporting total of 92 additions, raising on salaries, $2,058.14, and for all purposes, $10,062.38. Education Committee:

Your committee on education make the following recommendations:

1. That this convention re-elect all of the members of the Board of Trustees whose terms expire in 1917. Their names are:

J. W. Hines, Rocky Mount
S. G. Mewborn, Wilson
W. E. Stubbs, Belhaven
C. W. Howard, Kinston
A. J. Moye, Farmville.

2. That Mr. Claude Kiser of Greensboro be elected to fill the vacant place of Mr. John B. Deans, deceased.

3. That the Churches of Christ of N. C. raise $3,000.00 on Education Day for Atlantic Christian College.

4. That the churches express their hearty appreciation of the able manner in which President Raymond A. Smith has conducted the entire affairs of the College during his encumbency, and that they assure him of their confidence and support for the ensuing year.

5. That the members of the Churches of Christ in N. C. not only give their pecuniary support to Atlantic Christian College, but that they send their children to their own school when they are fitted for college. Loyalty to "the faith once for all delivered to the saints" demands this; loyalty to the brotherhood of N. C. calls for this. The spiritual life of our children must be our first concern.

6. That public acknowledgement be made to the members of the churches for the liberal response made last Summer to the appeal of the College for a maintainance fund of $5,000.00 a year for five years. The sum of $25,200.00 was pledged.

7. That each pastor preach a sermon once or twice a year on education and be constantly on the watch for young men and women who may be helped to decide to enter definite Christian work, especially the work of the ministry and home or foreign missions.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE HACKNEY, Chairman
W. S. MARTIN
J. THOS. BROWN.

Committee on Resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we express our thanks for the most efficient and hearty hospitality of the members and friends of the church in Wilson, and for the service of the Press Committee, and also the newspapers that published the reports of the convention, and the good and pleasant dwelling together in all the sessions of the convention.

2. That it is the desire and hope of this convention that a closer and more useful co-operation exist between the various District Conventions and the State Executive Board, and that the districts take up the subject of grouping churches for greater efficiency.

3. That we approve and recommend the resolution of the General War Time Commission in regard to an increase of the number of chaplains in the U. S. Army. The resolution is as follows:

"Resolved, That in view of the increase of the size of the regiments ,and the large bodies of troops and units of the service which under our recent law cannot have chaplains; in view also of the fact that chaplains should have the position of dignity and efficiency which belongs to the medical and paymaster and which should be associated with religion:

The Commission places on record its conviction that there should be one chaplain for every twelve hundred men of the entire personnel of the Army, and that in rank, pay, allowance and promotion, the chaplains should be placed on a par with the medical corps. Also,

Resolved, That the General Committee on Chaplains be requested to take such steps as they deem wise to promote the purpose of these resolutions."

4. That we request the pastors of the churches to instruct the brethren in the necessity of a closer fellowship in the furtherance of the gospel in the State, and that the churches instruct their delegates as to the responsibility of representation.

5. That it shall be the duty of the pastors to present the minutes of this convention to the churches they serve, and that it shall be the duty of the State Secretary to remind the pastors of this duty from time to time.

6. That we express our appreciation of the very excellent services of our Secretary, C. C. Ware, and that we commend him to the Lord for more grace and power to do more work.

7. That we appreciate the presence in our convention of Brothers F. M. Rains, E. B. Bagby, Homer F. Cooke, Belt White, and Sister Lowell McPherson, representatives of our church societies.

8. That the Bible Schools be requested to observe the custom of "White Gifts" at Christmas time.

9. That as a means of bringing the churches in closer touch with the national and state conventions, we recommend as worthy of imitation the charming custom of some churches in sending their pastors to these conventions, the churches paying the expenses thereof, and that the pastors be required to make a full report of the proceedings of the convention to their respective churches.

10. That the Committee on Program shall be a Standing Committee, and shall be composed of the Secretary of the State Board of the N. C. C. M. C., of the N. C. C. W. B. M., of the State Bible School Organization, of the President of the State Organization of Christian Endeavor Societies, of the pastor of the Convention church, and of the President of Atlantic Christian College.

11. That it would be most fitting and good for the churches and Bible Schools to have a special honor roll of all the young men of such school and church who answered the call to the national colors, and to keep in touch with them whether in the cantonments or in the firing line.

Respectfully submitted,
PRESTON BELL HALL, Chairman

S., duplicating that of 1916, provides $300.00 appropriation to Wilmington minister's salary, likewise same amount to salary of State Secretary. Within this State Convention year, to summarize at this point, we have received from the A. C. M. S. $600.00, and directly from N. C. churches and Bible Schools in State Missionary offerings, $2,406.63; total from all sources for our State Missionary service, $3,006.63.

2. Some Field Observations:

A study of the disciples' map of N. C. shows that 145 or 81 per cent of the 179 Churches of Christ are located east of Raleigh. The large central portion of the State unoccupied as yet by Disciples tends somewhat to isolate the 34 churches in the western part of the State, and several of these remotely situated churches cooperate formally or informally with adjoining States, a number having a non-resident Tennessee or Virginia ministry. Churches in Ashe, Avery, Mitchell, and Watauga Counties co-operate with Tennessee. In Guilford, Rockingham, and Surry counties, some churches have a Virginia ministry. As a matter of sheer expediency, of course, it is quite natural that this should be the case, however, it should be stated that this makes the unifying of State work in N. C. more problematic.

There are 15 decadent churches, or churches having no regular services of any kind. Combined they have 569 members. Six of these are in Western N. C., and of course inaccessible to A. C. C. ministerial students, and many of the remaining 9, which are in Eastern N. C., are likewise inaccessible. Yet the number of these decadent churches can be substantially reduced by a sacrificial interest of the ministry, backed up by stronger churches. Witness the Wilson church supporting a local suburban ministry, Greenville minister planting and cultivating the church at Stokes; Belhaven minister feeding the Yeatesville flock; Union Chapel pastor motoring regularly to Mary's Chapel (Onslow); Beulah (Nash) pastor preaching 1st Lord's Days, P. M., at Momeyer. This is to give only a few instances. This service should be much more extensive. Conservation of spiritual resources is more important than all other kinds of conservation. We have not adhered to the grouping principle on any considerable scale, largely because ministry and laity have continually negatived this principle with obstructions real or apparent, and by following lines of least resistance. Our losses, however, by this individualistic behavior may almost, if not entirely, be obviated, if each minister and the church he serves exercises a militant missionary spirit.

In only one State of the Union do the Disciples have a greater proportion of their strength rural, than in North Carolina. Our cross-roads-country-schoolhouse-grape-arbor preaching has done great good and laid enduring foundations, let us mistake not. However, in this particular we have not followed so grandly in the footsteps of the Apostles, who literally gave their lives that the church might be established in metropolis or capital, such as Jerusalem, or Damascus, or Antioch, or Ephesus, or Thessalonica, or Rome. For forty years we had but the one "City" church—Kinston—and she had only 40 members in 1871. In the last two decades we have been slowly but substantially winning a place in the life of some of the representative cities of the State, the ten largest cities in which we now have organized representation being Charlotte, Wilmington, Winston-Salem, Asheville, Raleigh, Greensboro, Rocky Mount, New Bern, Wilson and Kinston. The ten largest cities in which we have no organized representation are Durham, High Point, Elizabeth City, Concord, Fayetteville, Salisbury, Gastonia, Henderson, Burlington, and Statesville.

There may be those who would advocate measures looking to a radical expansion, a gourd vine growth among us. But just as it is a principle in physics that for the bottle to remain intact, the temperatures of both sides must be properly correlated, so your State Missionary service cannot safely go beyond the cash register of your faith. Furthermore, we are confronted with a staggering immediate task. Doing now in the larger cities four times the work we did in 1916, we are entrenched in some obviously far flung salients which must be held resourcefully and persistently, if held at all. If the exigency demands it, it is a sound military principle to consolidate the positions won by any offensive. None the less it is a sound missionary principle in this warfare of our Lord. Succinctly, the present administrative ideal of our State missionary service is, to consolidate the positions already attained, and extend the lines to other tenable salients as speedily as it is found wise and practicable.

3. General Summary of the Year's Missionary, Benevolent, and Educational Offerings.

Notwithstanding the unprecedented gains of 1916, the gains of 1917 are quite as substantial, consistent, and truly gratifying. Disciples of Christ in North Carolina for the last missionary year gave in cash offerings, as follows: Men and Millions Movement, $7,905.00; C. W. B. M., $3,945.28; A. C. College (Nov. 1), $3,854.99; N. B. A., $1,673.30; District Missions, $1,388.74; State Missions, $2,406.63; Foreign Christian Missionary Society, $1,298.75; A. C. M. S., $416.14; B. S. Dept. A. C. M. S., $211.81; Church Extension, $175.38; Ministerial Relief, $154.98. Grand total, $23,431.00.

This record related to the previous missionary year shows the following: C. W. B. M., gain, 38 per cent; A. C. College, gain 104 per cent; National Benevolence, gain 102 per cent; District

Missions, loss 13 per cent; State Missions, gain, 22 per cent; Foreign Missions, gain 21 per cent; American Missions, gain, 14 per cent; B. S. Dept., American Missions, gain, 74 per cent; Church Extension, gain, 57 per cent; Ministerial Relief, gain, 46 per cent; gain in grand total of these offerings, 125 per cent.

Respectfully submitted,

In North Carolina there are 21,432 Disciples of Christ, who gave last year (1917) to all Missions, Benevolence and Education, $23,431.00, an average per capita of $1.09.

CONVERSION AND LICENSING OF BARTON W. STONE

During the period immediately following the American Revolution, the Presbyterians were the leading educators of North Carolina. Of these, David Caldwell, D.D., was first. He came from Princeton University, where he taught languages in 1764, and located in Guilford County, North Carolina, where he conducted an academy, the first of the State that continued for any considerable time.

On the first day of February, 1790, there entered Dr. Caldwell's Academy a young man from Virginia, by the name of Barton W. Stone. About this time a great religious revival, conducted by James McCready, led about thirty of the students to accept Christ. Stone was powerfully influenced by the preaching of McGready, as he had heard him on several occasions during the year. In the main he was spiritually depressed. Finally in Alamance church, under the influence of a sermon, by William Hodge on "God is Love" he was led to find peace and comfort. After a time his money was exhausted, and he felt he was not able to complete his course, but Dr. Caldwell waited on him for the amount due, and enabled him to finish. After he had finished his course of instructions offered in this Academy he made known to Dr. Caldwell his great desire to preach the gospel, also his hesitation because he had no assurance that he was called and sent. Dr. Caldwell assured him that he had no right to expect a miracle to convince him, and if he had a hearty desire to glorify God and save sinners by preaching, and his fathers in the ministry should encourage, he should not hesitate. He also gave him a text to write up and present in the next Presbytery. In 1793, therefore, he became a candidate for the ministry, and put himself under the direction of William Hodge. He and Samuel Holmes, who was afterwards President of the University of North Carolina, did their reading, in preparation for the ministry, together, and were assigned the "Being and Attributes of God" and the "Trinity" on which to write. Witsius was placed in their hands, but did not satisfy, and they turned to Dr. Watts. The examination in Theology was continued by old father Patillo, who held Watts' views, and who asked few questions on these much discussed subjects. Before the next Presbytery, however, when he had received his licensure, he became again depressed, decided to give up th ministry, and went to Washington, Ga., to teach. He returned to the Orange Presbytery in 1796 and received his license. Soon after this he went West and settled at Caneridge in Burbon County, Kentucky.

SHRAPNEL

Disciples in the 29 churches with "full-time" ministry number 4,747, while 14.533 disciples in 142 churches have "part-time" ministry, and 2,152 in the remaining churches have no regular ministry at all. A considerable number of "part-time" churches should evolve into the "full-time" column speedily. We refer especially to the strong rural churches. This is the day of intensified communication, and intensified agriculture, and emphatically the day for the intensified Church of Christ, if it is not to be hopelessly out-of-date and practically defunct. Let the flock be dynamically alive with the shepherd in its midst, where all efficient shepherds are naturally disposed to be. Where rural disciples have been giving $5.00 and $10.00 yearly for preaching let them give $25.00 and $50.00; likewise let the fifties be hundreds, and the ones and twos become fives and tens, and due simple sacrifice from abounding resources has solved the problem of finance. How much longer will rural churches with such powerful resources as Wheat Swamp, Bethany (Pamlico), Old Ford, Phillippi, Oak Grove, Pantego, and Timothy continue with "part-time" ministry?

Seven of the N. C. Churches with membership of 770 have a non-resident Tennessee and Virginia ministry.

Within the past year revivals were held in 95 of the 192 churches, an average of $42.41 being paid for each revival. In 38 of these 95 revivals, more was paid by the local church in each instance for its own evangelizing of a few days, than was given for a whole year's evangelizing of the whole world through Missions, benevolence and education by that same local church. These 38 churches were located by districts as follows: Hookerton, 2; Hyde. 4; Jones-Onslow, 4; Nash-Edgecombe, 5; Pamlico, 4; Piedmont. 7; Roanoke, 12. Manifestly, we should not give any less in the vital matter of our own local evangelizing, but we should give more for the evangelizing of the whole world.

Average annual salary of ministers of Churches of Christ in North Carolina for 1917 was $654.36, a gain of 12 per cent over the average for 1916, and a gain of 24 per cent over the average for 1915. Churches known to have acted in line with suggestion of Wilson State Convention to increase ministerial salaries in view of higher cost of living are Arthur, Armenia, Charlotte, Dover, Elizabeth Chapel, Farmville, Goldsboro, Hassell, Littleton, Macclesfield. Riverside, St. Clair's Creek, Walstonburg, Wendell, and Wilmington.

Ministers known to be equipped with automobiles for their personal use, thus adding largely to their immediate pastoral efficiency are Lawson Campbell, W. P. Jordan, T. J. Glenn, Ira A. Kirk, Asa J. Manning, W. H. Marler, C. B. Mashburn, C. E. Otey, J. M. Perry, Fred B. Powell, W. O. Winnfield, and A. F. Leighton.

The per capita gift to Missions, Education, and Benevolence, exclusive of Men and Millions Movement for 1917 by districts, as by reported membership and offerings, is as follows: Hookerton, $1.42; Hyde, 56c; Jones-Onslow, 46c; Mill Creek, 47c; Nash-Edgecombe, 46c; Pamlico, 59c; Piedmont, 38c; Roanoke, 40c; for the entire State, 61c. And the per capita gift for local church purposes for entire State, $3.69. In North Carolina we are spending six times as much upon our local church work as for world evangelization.

Of the total of 87 ministers of the Church of Christ resident in North Carolina, almost two-thirds supplement their salaries by secular employment: 31 give their service exclusively to the ministry, 33 are regularly employed ministers, but have some secular employment, supplementary, and the remaining 23 all have secular employment, and preach occasionally, but are not regularly employed by any church. It would seem both desirable and eminently practicable to use these ministerial reserves coordinately in the 38 preacherless churches with their 2,369 shepherdless disciples. However, both churches and preachers would need to have an indefatigable missionary spirit before such a vision of service were realized.

In District Missions Hyde leads with 23 cents per capita, per annum. Roanoke averages only 7 cents per capita per annum, and if Roanoke gave as Hyde in proportion to membership, she would have given $1,840.36 this past year to District Missions instead of $556.29. It is hoped that next year will show gain in offerings for District Missions in all Districts.

Hookerton District led in C. W. B. M. offerings, giving over half the total for the State. This was due largely to the Living Links of Kinston and Wilson.

There are 58 counties in North Carolina unoccupied as yet by disciples, and many of her fairest cities likewise. NORTH CAROLINA IS A GREAT HOME MISSION FIELD.

Some mission points now under ministerial cultivation, not yet organized churches are: Church's Island, Enterprise, Friendship, Havelock, Hazaline, Head of Lake, Highland, Momyer, New Lands (Tyrrell), Otway, Rose Bay, Tiny Oak, Truitt, Wilkinson, Young's Springs and School Houses, Baum's, Bennett's, Buck's, Everett's, Lang's, and Lilley's.

Among the fifteen Southern States, North Carolina ranks sixth in number of disciples, being exceeded only by Kentucky, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia. But North Carolina ranks first in number of disciples in the eight South Atlantic, Gulf, and Mississippi Valley States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi North Carolina and South Carolina.

The State Missionary front in North Carolina in 1918 is 437 miles long. The seven cities in which the work is being supported have a combined population of about 175,000. The amount of State missions offerings for 1917 again broke all records with 128 churches and 51 Bible Schools giving total of $2,406.63 for the State Convention year. This, however, is only 11 cents per member, and the total would show most gratifying increase if churches and Bible Schools were unanimous as well as increasingly generous in their sustaining of this vital home service.

For Atlantic Christian College, favorably and familiarly known as "Disciples Dynamo in the Carolinas," there was given this last fiscal year $2,516.41 by disciples in the Carolinas. The current fiscal year closing next June 30, 1918, is certain to show a substantial increase. This College is not yet endowed, and it is hoped that disciples in the Carolinas will assuredly give the equivalent of 6 per cent income from $100,000.00 at least this year. Whatsoever Carolina disciples sow to this College that shall they also reap.

And how shall the record be written for 1918—this year red on the calendar of Destiny with the blood of heroic sacrifice? As for 1917, the statistical table published herein, like some crystal mountain lake, reflects the workers at their best. Or, like some delicate instrument, this table is vibrant with every touch of the hand of fellowship. Will it be possible to effect another general gain of 125 per cent this year of grace? Let the fellow-workers will, and pray, and see!

"Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples."

STATE MISSIONS REASONABLE

I. Help Those Who Help Themselves

As given in the report for the last State Missionary year, (1918), the nine State Mission points gave total cash for local church purposes, $11,373.53, and Disciples for entire State $95,585.43. THIS SHOWS AVERAGE GIVEN PER MEMBER FOR LOCAL CHURCH PURPOSES AT THE STATE MISSION POINTS $19.67; FOR ENTIRE STATE $4.63. Note this comparison!

II. Help Those Who Help Others

For all Missions, Benevolence and Education, in the Missionary Year, 1918, Greensboro gave total in cash, $428.30; Charlotte $320.90; Wendell, $246.65; Wilmington, $206.37; Saratoga $167.00; Tarboro, $133.73; Raleigh, $114.00; Goldsboro, $108.13; Fremont, $75.65. Total for the nine State Mission Points $1,800.73. Total for entire State $31,161.08. THIS IS AN AVERAGE PER MEMBER FOR MISSIONS, BENEVOLENCE, AND EDUCATION, FOR THE NINE STATE MISSION POINTS, $3.11; FOR THE ENTIRE STATE $1.50. Also note this comparison!!

III. Help the Builders

At the nine State Mission points for 1919, three have no building, three have just completed building, and three have buildings previously completed. Charlotte, Raleigh, and Tarboro have no buildnigs; Greensboro, Saratoga, and Goldsboro have just built; and Wilmington, Fremont, and Reidsville, have buildings previously completed, but $3,000.00 yet due Church Extension on Wilmington property. WE HAVE ONLY $44,625.00 IN CHURCH PROPERTY EQUIPMENT AT THESE NINE STATE MISSION POINTS. IMPERATIVELY, WE MUST HELP SUPPLY THE VITAL MINISTRY TO EFFECT ADEQUATE ENLARGEMENT OF THIS EQUIPMENT.

$4,000.00 will hold this frontier of our Faith for a year!

Altogether for $4,133.33 cash for State Missions in the 1919 United Budget!

Greenville Convention

The seventy-fourth North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention was held in "one day executive session" in the Christian church at Greenville, on Tuesday, Dec. 3rd. The epidemic of influenza had imposed very material difficulties for the holding of this Convention, which was originally planned for Robersonville, Nov. 5-8, but after a second postponement of date, was held in Greenville. Indeed, in view of the unprecedented circumstances, there was explicit gratitude that it could be held even for one day, as this year concludes an unbroken chain of seventy-four such annual conventions for the North Carolina Disciples.

There were about 150 in attendance, who found a most comfortable and substantial hospitality extended by the local disciples in their new modernly-equipped plant. The elaborate dinner served in the basement of the church saved most valuable time, and concentrated delightful fellowship.

The day's work was enlivened in its beginning by excellent impromptu talks by W. C. Manning, President of the Convention, and the following ministers: J. F. Atkins, H. L. Freeman, Thos. Green, P. B. Hall, W. P. Jordan, Chas. M. McEntyre, L. T. Rightsell, S. Lee Sadler, B. P. Smith, J. A. Taylor, and J. R. Tingle. Their general theme was "Opportunities in our State today." It was announced that $25,000.00 had been offered as a gift, tentatively, by a brother for the property of an orphanage for N. C. disciples, if the brethren of the State would undertake to provide operative expenses. This proposal was taken under advisement by a special committee. The plan of the United Budget as promoted by the Men and Millions Movement was briefly presented and cards signed for orders of their literature by the vaious representatives of the churches. The United Budget was heartily endorsed by the Convention. The officers of the Convention were re-elected for ensuing year. Cheering reports were heard from representatives of mission points. Three missions are building houses of worship this year, namely, Greensboro, Goldsboro, and Saratoga. Wendell graduated with the good degree of self-support, and Saratoga proposes to do likewise a year hence. The other missions are Charlotte, Raleigh, Tarboro, Fremont, Wilmington, (A. C. M. S.), and New Bern (C. W. B. M.) Brother H. C. Mayhew, the promising young minister of Reidsville, presented the case for her, and she is added to the list of mission points. $3,600.00 has been raised in cash by the Reidsville mission this past year and applied to debt. She is now completing and furnishing her building. Two new ministers were gladly welcomed to the State, namely, J. E. Stuart, of Wilson, and J. F. Atkins, of Ayden. Their work opens with large promise.

The C. W. B. M. had their usual fine session in the afternoon. Mrs. R. A. Smith of Wilson is President of the State organization, and Miss Etta Nunn of New Bern is Field Secretary. State Secretary Ware presented a collation of facts covering the union, showing "The Present Crisis in Ministerial Supply," and President R. A. Smith gave an excellent address on "Meeting This Crisis," laying stress on the vital function of the Christian College in this relation. An October, 1918, survey of our N. C ministry showed net loss of more than a quarter of our ministry during the preceding year, and 63 of our N. C. chuches, or nearly one-third of total, without regular ministry. A similar lamentable condition is discovered by authentic survey in nearly all the States. The next North Carolina Convention will probably meet in Robersonville in November, 1919.

A wise measure was executed in the appointment of a standing committee on Examination and Ordination, of whom P. B. Hall is Chairman, and Thos. Green Vice Chairman, and before whom henceforth all applicants for ordination to the ministry from within North Carolina should appear for appropriate action upon their requests.

Report of Corresponding Secretary showed a general gain of 63% as compared with previous year, in offerings from North Carolina to all missions, benevolence and education; the grand total, $38,278.77 being almost $15,000.00 in excess of the previous year. State mission receipts have of course been greatly retarded by conditions arising from the epidemic, but it is confidently hoped that belated offerings will suffice to effect the coming year's enlarged program of missionary service in the "Old North State."—Dispatch to the religious press.—C. C. W.

Literature Committee

Your Committee begs leave to make the following report:

Evangelizing Committee

The Committee presents the following report:

1st. We recommend that Reidsville be added to list of mission points assisted by State Board.

2. That Saratoga be continued with view of its becoming self-supporting by the end of this missionary year.

3. That Goldsboro be continued and an additional $100.00 be appropriated, provided the congregation there increase its minister's salary a like amount.

4. That the Board continue its present help of the work at Greensboro, and that such further increase may be made as to make the congregation able to secure a suitable preacher for this work.

5. That the American Christian Missionary Society be asked to increase its appropriation to Wilmington and such other help from the State Board be given this point as to insure the speedy establishment of a strong congregation there.

6. That the support of Raleigh and Charlotte be continued.

7. That the State Board through the ministers of the State plan and carry out such a campaign of education in the unoccupied districts of the State as will make our position and message better known in the State.

. We recommend that in the counties and districts where we already have working churches, but also some decadent churches and good opening for new work, that the brethren through co-operative county and district committees try to revive the decadent ones and establish new churches.

9. On account of the high cost of living, we recommend that our churches make a proportionate increase in the salaries of their ministers and that the State Board through our Secretary communicate with them suggesting the matter.

10. In appreciation of the most excellent and telling work of our State Secretary, Brother Ware, and also, in order to relieve him of the strain of expense, that this convention authorize the State Board to increase his salary at least to $2,000.00 per year and traveling and office expenses.

11. That our preachers and congregations be urged to faithful practice of New Testament Evangelism.

12. We further recommend that all congregations be urged to unite in carrying out the Every Member Canvass for United Budget.

(2) THE SUPPORT. Itemized Treasurer's report shows date, source, and amount of each offering. 1918 contract with A. C. M. S. provided for appropriation of $270.00 to minister at Wilmington, and likewise $330.00 was offered to Raleigh, but never applied, as Raleigh located no minister. The Board of Managers met quarterly as follows: in November at Rocky Mount; in February at Greenville; in May at Wilson; and in September at Greenville. Summary of year's receipts for State Missions, classified as to source, shows total of $302.50 received from A. C. M. S.; $805.16 from Men and Millions Movement (Emergency Drive); $2,056.38 from N. C. Churches and Bible Schools in State Missionary offerings; and grand total of $3,164.04 from all sources for our State Missionary service.

2. Some General Observations on Our State Missionary Front.

WILMINGTON. Our mission here lost decidedly when their pastor left them recently for a stronger work. The great new shipbuilding interests at this, our greatest seaport, have brought a lage inflow of new people, a proportionate number of whom are disciples. We must soon find a capable, self-sacrificing minister for this, our oldest State Mission field to which an appropriation is presently applying. This work is supported by the A. C. M. S. through the State Board.

GOLDSBORO. There are some most encouraging phases in her work, chief of which is her substantial progress in building a house of worship on her well-located lot. Bro. Taylor is doing a splendid work with this people. He has the largest Bible School of any of the mission points. We confidently look forward to the establishment of a thrifty self-supporting church in this prosperous capital of Wayne County.

FREMONT. She has a most creditable house of worship for such small membership. No very rapid progress has been made here, nevertheless considering the faithfulness of the members, and the substantial growth of our influence in this conservative community, our small help here is entirely justified in the results attained now, and sure to be attained later.

SARATOGA. This is a new mission of the State Board, and we are justly proud of the substantial nature of the work being done there in the building of the new church, and the more secure establishment of the cause in this prosperous farming community.

TARBORO. This work is opening up most hopefully. The Jewish Synagogue has been rented, which makes most excellent meeting-place, both with respect to location and interior accommodations of the building itself. We have great cause to be thankful for our most hopeful beginning in this conservative capital of Edgecombe. Bro. Fred F. Grim begins most encouraging ministry there.

WENDELL. This is the one work in the State we have brought to self-support this year, and her name may now be written on the enlarging roll of churches in the "Old North State" that our State Missionary service has helped to the honorable estate of self-support. Our State service has had no more substantial and speedy returns for the outlay at any point than at Wendell, and we are gratified at her acceptance of the status of self-support.

RALEIGH. This is the only State Capital in the Union, with no building owned by disciples where disciples are numerically as strong as in N. C. Nothing but patient, far-seeing, indefatigable, State Missionary effort will change this situation to accord with our righteous desires. We unquestionably have a fine nucleus for a real church in Raleigh. We have been grievously delayed this year in locating a minister with them. A capable young minister upon whom we had relied for this work, answered the call to the colors. We trust we will be able to locate the right leader in this strategic field very soon.

GREENSBORO. This is our most prosperous mission. Her new building brought to completion this year is a quite creditable one, and with this new equipment, she is certain to make most substantial progress in the coming year, and when brought to self-support, which will be within a few years, we confidently expect she will be one of the most gratifying products of our State Missionary and C. W. B. M. service.

CHARLOTTE. She is the only Southern metropolis in which the disciples are wholly unrepresented with church property. Charlotte is the greatest Carolina home for the travelling man. She is, in fact, the Hub City for the regional business offices, operating in the Carolinas. Here also, for many months, we have had a fine nucleus for a real church. We count on effecting favorable results the coming year, looking to the solid establishment of our cause in this, our greatest city.

Summarizing, we would say, that this long line with its great strategic opportunities will certainly be held and developed for safe and fruitful permanency by the State Missionary service, if our people will but visualize our opportunities in this field, which are in effect as yet undeveloped, yet withal so rich with possibilties. This vision should of course find executive expression in the rendering of commensurate, adequate support. Not otherwise can these proposed foundations be laid.

3. General Summary of the Year's Missionary, Benevolent, and Educational Offerings.

For the third time in as many successive years, the record has been broken in N. C. in the total offerings for the year for missions, benevolence and education. The total cash offerings during the year for these various services are as follows: Emergency Drive, $13,790.09; A. C. College, $6,081.52; Men and Millions Movement (regular) $4,700.00; C. W. B. M., $4,367.68; N. B. A. C. C., $2,221.19; F. C. M. S. $1,583.58; District Missions $1,612.53; State Missions (exclusive of A. C. M. S.), $2,861.54; A. C. M. S., $334.81; B. S. Dept., A. C. M. S., $262.51; Min. Relief, $285.52; Church Extension, $120.30; American Temperance Board, $29.00; Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity, $28.50; Grand total, cash offerings, $38,278.77.

This record related to the previous missionary year shows the following A. C. College, gain, 141%; C. W. B. M., gain 10%; N. B. A. C. C., gain, 32%; State Missions, gain, 19%; District Missions, gain 16%; A. C. M. S., loss 19%; Min. Relief, gain 84%; B. S. Dept. A. C. M. S., gain, 24%; Church Extension, loss, 32%; American Temperance Board, gain 1350%; Association for Promotion of Christian Unity, gain 24%, gain in grand total of these offerings, 63%.

THE PRESENT CRISIS IN MINISTERIAL SUPPLY

The following data is an epitome of "The Present Crisis in Ministerial Supply" based on reports given in October, 1918, by the State or Regional Missionary offices in the respective territorial units under consideration. Where the period of a year is considered, it is the year closing September 30, 1918.

ALABAMA. One-eighth of her full time churches are pastorless and likewise about 10% of her part-time churches.

ARIZONA. About one-fourth of churches are pastorless.

ARKANSAS. Over a third of her churches are without a regular ministry.

CALIFORNIA, NORTH. Considerable difficulty in keeping her pulpits manned is admitted. Nearly 20% of her churches are pastorless.

CALIFORNIA, SOUTH. Within the past year she has suffered net loss of 20% in the personnel of her active ministry. 15% of her churches are now pastorless.

FLORIDA. 16 2-3% of her churches are pastorless

GEORGIA No figures are submitted on the Georgia situation, but it is said that there are many pastorless churches

ILLINOIS It is thought that there are more preachers in Illinois now than a year ago. But an actual present survey of this problem has not been made. It is known, however, that about 200 of her churches are pastorless, which includes about 25 full-time churches.

INDIANA. It is not thought that Indiana has suffered any net loss in her active ministry excepting those who have gone into War Work. Yet a large number of her churches are pastorless.

INLAND EMPIRE (NORTH IDAHO AND EAST WASHINGTON). A tenth of her ministry have left their churches for War Service.

IOWA. About 25% of her ministry have left for War Service. Of the unusually large number of pastorless churches, some are in that condition because of relocating of ministers for salaries more nearly adequate to the high cost of living.

KANSAS. One tenth of her preaching force has gone into War Service. 142 churches are pastorless, which is 37% of her total number.

KENTUCKY. While Kentucky has suffered only about 2% net loss in her ministry, yet she has about 250 churches without ministers.

LOUISIANA. While no net loss in her ministry is reported, yet about a sixth of her churches are without preachers.

MARYLAND, DELAWARE, AND DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. One-ninth of their churches are unsupplied with ministry.

MICHIGAN. A tenth of her ministry was lost within the past year. About a dozen of her churches, each paying from $800.00 to $2,000.00 per year now looking for men. About twenty-five other churches that in ordinary times could support preachers are now pastorless by stress of war conditions.

MISSISSIPPI. She has had no net loss from her ministry, fortunately but two-thirds of her churches are pastorless.

MISSOURI. Ministerial supply in Missouri is about 15% below normal. War Work has engaged about 10% of her ministry, and the high cost of living is said to account for the additional loss of about 5%. Also it is said "A few are being constantly eliminated because they were not originally prepared to do effective work in a period of revolution and reconstruction on particular social and religious ideals."

NEBRASKA. Ten of her ministers have left the ministry for secular occupations, also ten have left for War Service. The situation there is frankly conceived as a problem of ministerial support rather than supply of personnel.

NEW ENGLAND STATES. They have lost 16 2-3% of their ministry within the past year, and over one-third of their churches are pastorless.

NEW YORK. One-tenth of her ministry has gone to the front. Five of her pulpits are vacant.

NORTH CAROLINA. Net loss in ministry, 17, which is 28% of entire ministry within the State during the year. 63 of her churches are pastorless, which is 32% of her whole number. There are only 54 men left in the active ministry, and if the same ratio of loss should continue, she would suffer a total loss of ministry in a little more than 3 years. And, as only a little more than half of her net loss is due to enlistments in War Service, she would still suffer a total loss of ministry in about seven years, if the present ratio of loss continues, with war conditions thus entirely eliminated from consideration.

NORTHWEST (MINNESOTA, NORTH AND SOUTH DAKOTA). They have lost one-fourth of their preachers, and one-fourth of their pulpits are unoccupied.

OHIO. She has 150 shepherdless flocks of disciples. The shortage in ministers there is ascribed to the "temporary influence of the war and the commercial spirit of the times." And "parents do not encourage their sons to enter the ministry and young men of ability and promise feel the pull of business with its promise of splendid achievement more than that of the church."

OKLAHOMA. She has lost 20 preachers, which is 10% of her total number, and is confronted with the problem of 125 preacherless churches which is one-fourth of her total number of churches.

PENNSYLVANIA, EAST. Her net loss in preachers is 10% and 20% of her churches are without ministerial leadership.

PENNSYLVANIA, WEST. Only two of her preachers were given to War Work, but nine to business, and one-fifth of her churches are unsupplied.

TENNESSEE. Net loss of her ministry within the past year is 10%. One-half of her churches are pastorless.

TEXAS. Out of a total number of 487 churches, 300 are pastorless. The problem is so serious that the greater effort of the field workers is devoted to locating ministers and providing for their salaries.

VIRGINIA. She has suffered net loss of 11% of her ministry within the past year, and one-third of her churches are pastorless.

WASHINGTON, West. She has lot 12 preachers, net, which is 17½% of total number, and 40% of her churches are pastorless.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT, UNITED BUDGET, NORTH CAROLINA

CHAS. C. WARE, State Chairman, Box 164, Wilson, N. C.

In the following tables is given a clear, compact, and concise comparison between the apportionments, or quotas, of the 1919 United Budget in North Carolina, and the actual total cash offerings to Missions, Benevolence, and Education, for the Missionary Year, 1918. These actual total cash offerings for the Missionary Year, 1918, comprise gifts as follows:

1. Emergency Drive, April 1st, 1918 to Dec. 31st, 1918.
2. Atlantic Christian College, July 1st, 1917, to June 30th, 1918.
3. Christian Woman's Board of Missions, Oct. 1st, 1917, to Sept. 30, 1918.
4. State Missions, State Convention Year, closing Dec. 3rd, 1918.
5. National Benevolent Association, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.
6. Foreign Missions, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30th, 1918.
7. American Missions, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.
8. Ministerial Relief, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.
9. Bible School Dept., American Missions, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.
10. Church Extension, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.

11. American Temperance Board, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.
12. Christian Unity, Oct. 1st, 1917 to Sept. 30, 1918.

The rank of each church as given in the first column relates specifically to her total amount, cash offerings, for the Missionary Year 1918, as above defined, comparatively considered. In the United Budget column is given the apportionment of each church for 1919, which is manifestly too low for many of the churches. 66 of the 195 churches, and 14 of the 26 County Units actually gave more in 1918 than they are apportioned for 1919. Thus, there should be the usual exceeding of apportionments in 1919, or, this enlarged program of Christian service in this year of greater need and greater opportunity, will assuredly be halted, and a future peril forced. Most assuredly, $30,000.00 or more should be raised in the United Budget in North Carolina, in 1919, when as an actual matter of fact, more than $30,000.00 was raised in North Carolina for the same purposes in 1918!

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT, UNITED BUDGET, NORTH CAROLINA, BY ORGANIZATIONS

In the following table is given a clear, compact, and concise comparison between the total receipts of the organizations named for the Missionary Year 1918, and the total amounts expected from United Budget, 1919. The Emergency Drive receipts were divided pro rata among the ten organizations named, and are thus appended to the table as a lump sum, that the totality of the figures submitted be concisely accurate for purposes of comparison with United Budget for North Carolina, for 1919. The reader will especially observe that while $29,541.00 is the total budget apportioned for 1919, that there was actually raised in cash in North Carolina for the same budgetary interests in 1918, the total of $31,161.08, which is 5% more than is actually apportioned for 1919. The figures for A. C. College include $500.00 expected from South Carolina inasmuch as both Carolinas comprise the territorial unit assigned A. C. College by our National Board of Education.

ABOUT BIBLE SCHOOL OFFERINGS

Every One Hundred Per Cent. Bible School according to National Standard of Efficiency makes at least four Missionary offerings. So any N. C. Sunday School, who would make good according to this Standard would make during this year offerings as follows:

1. For American Missions, on Thanksgiving Sunday and send to Robt. M. Hopkins, 108 Carew Building, Cincinnati, O.

2. For National Benevolence, on Easter Sunday, and send to J. H. Mohorter, 2955 N. Euclid Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

3. For Foreign Missions, on first Sunday in June, and send to Bert Wilson, Box 884, Cincinnati, O.

4. For State Missions, in October, and send to C. C. Ware, Cor. Sec., Box 164, Wilson, N. C.

As a matter of course all of these offerings from Bible Schools will count in the United Budget.

GLEAMS FROM THE SEARCHLIGHT

It is not known exactly, of course, how many North Carolina disciples experienced military and naval service in the World War. It is safe to estimate the number at not less than one thousand. Some of these paid the "last full measure of devotion" the very day upon which the armistice was signed. Our mission church at Wilmington has twenty-seven stars upon her service flag, the largest ratio of any church in the city. While none of these stars have turned to gold, yet none of the boys whom they represent had returned as late as Jan. 26, 1919. Let all the Churches and Bible Schools who have had young men in the war, give them a genuine, vigorous welcome upon their return, and let them feel that their religious jobs are more open than ever. And for those who gave their all for the liberty and democracy of man, let each Church or Bible School from which they went preserve a fit memorial.

Ministers of North Carolina Churches of Christ who wore the uniform in some branch of War Service, were 11 in number, as follows: Richard Bagby, L. C. Carawan, Perry Case, F. X. Credle Hayes Farish, W. T. LaPrade, Wright T. Moore, M. E. Sadler, J. J. Walker, Jno. M. Waters and C. F. Whitney.

The North Carolina fellowship in the Emergency Drive was notably extensive. 170 of the 195 churches participated in cash and pledges, and some of these 170 churches which participated are decadent. Surely no missionary effort in North Carolina has before enjoyed so thorough-going a response. Alphabetically, this fellowship extended from Airy Grove to Zion's Chapel; geographically, from Coinjock to Newland (602 miles apart by the most direct line of travel), and from Christian View to Wilmington; and in amounts from individuals varying from $500.00 to the penny thrown into the sporadic open "collection." It is to be remembered that this nation-wide Emergency Drive brought a most substantial relief to Home Missions which has established so many thousands of our American churches; to Foreign Missions, whose specific business it is to help "disciple all nations"; to Atlantic Christian College, which has trained nearly 100 young men for the Christian ministry, and which also in 1918 had scores of her boys in the World War, the stars for some of whom turned to gold; to Benevolence, sorely pressed in caring for the widow and the orphan; and to all other missionary interests participating. Surely it was a great fellowship, serving a great end.

While in 1917 there were only fifteen churches in North Carolina which gave more than $175.00 to Missions, Benevolence, and Education, there were in 1918, 44 such churches giving in excess of that amount.

It should be particularly observed by those who have the interests of our State at heart that the State Missions part in the United Budget for North Carolina is $4,133.33, which is 14% of the entire State Budget of $29,041.00. Now, although more than $29,041.00 was raised in cash for these same budgetary interests in 1918, State Missions received only $2,861.54, so one may readily see that when the United Budget succeeds in North Carolina, the 1919 increase for State Missions will be nearly $1,300.00. And, this increase of $1,300.00 is most emphatically needed for the effecting of the enlarged State Missionary service, the actual projected maintenance for missionaries stationed at the objectives being almost ten times what it was four years ago. Now to do this ten-fold work will not require ten-fold receipts, but it does require $4,133.33, and it is said with all candor that if the United Budget does not bring to State Missions $4,133.33, there will certainly be a deficit accordingly, in 1919.

The per capita gift for Missions, Benevolence, and Education for 1918 as by reported membership and offerings, by Districts is as follows: Hookerton, $3.20; Hyde, $1.08; Jones-Onslow, $1.34; Mill Creek, $1.28; Nash-Edgecombe, $1.30; Pamlico, $1.39; Piedmont, $1.26; Roan Mountain, 31c; Roanoke, $1.08; for the entire State, $1.50. And the per capita gift for local church purposes for the entire State, $4.63. This shows a notable relative increase in Missionary giving in North Carolina. While in 1917 N. C. disciples gave six times as much for local church purposes as for Missions, Benevolence, and Education, we see that in 1918 they gave only a little more than three times as much. This is highly gratifying; still we see that the State as a whole reaches only a third of the way toward the ideal—"As much for others as for ourselves."

Each year sees a slight increase in North Carolina in the number of "Major League" churches, who have "full-time resident ministry." It is hoped that the twenty-three thus classified will have increased in number again in 1920.

Average annual salary for ministers of Churches of Christ in North Carolina for 1919 is $841.11, showing a 28% increase over preceding year. In 1918 the average salary was $654.36; in 1917 it was $580.15. Notwithstanding this steady consistent increase in salary, we have an unusually large number of vacant pulpits. While all wide-awake disciples will increase their ministers' compensation relatve to the demands of living, still we are persuaded that other means more radical are required to recruit properly the ministry. Disciples everywhere should pray the "Lord of the Harvest" even more fervently than we prayed last May 30th for Allied Victory, that "He may send forth laborers into His harvest." Commercially speaking, the church is out of the category of the world; witness the shipyards paying one man more in one month than many a North Carolina church pays in the whole year. Until we get more of our worthy young men trained personally to the viewpoint of Paul—"Woe unto me if I preach not the Gospel," our flocks must continue to suffer fearfully the dearth of satisfactory shepherds.

The additions to the churches in 1918 number 1375, and represent an increase over preceding year. The total membership in the State is given as 20791, which shows decrease from the reported total of 21432 given for the preceding year. This is readily accounted for by the greater conservatism in 1918 of the correspondents in making their annual church reports to the State Secretary. No doubt this conservatism was in most instances induced by the influenza epidemic having demoralized church attendance, by the number of absentees in War Service, and by other abnormal factors.

There are 57 counties in North Carolina entirely unoccupied as yet by disciples. And many of her fair cities likewise, some of which, each having a few disciples unorganized, are as follows: Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, Durham, Concord, Lexington, Sanford, Weldon, Burlington, Elkin, Louisburg, Maysville, Dobson, Danbury, and Bayboro. NORTH CAROLINA IS A GREAT HOME MISSION FIELD.

AN EPITOME OF THE ROBERSONVILLE CONVENTION

The Seventy-Fifth session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention met at Robersonville November 3d to 6th. There were present thirty-six ministers who preach regularly within the State, nearly all of whom participated on the program, and about four hundred other persons representing altogether the two hundred churches of the State. From without the State there was welcomed at this meeting Brethren J. H. Mohorter, Grant K. Lewis, Robt. M. Hopkins, H. C. Armstrong, and Harry Schaefer. Some women speaking for the C. W. B. M. were Mrs. G. M. Anderson from Indianapolis, Miss Etta Nunn, Regional Secretary from Richmond, Va., and Miss Mrytle Azbell, the recently elected C. W. B. M. State Secretary, who will make her headquarters at Atlantic Christian College.

W. C. Manning of Williamston presided at the Convention, and the local pastor, J. M. Perry, directed the music. The following persons presided at the special sessions: O. A. Smith of Jacksonville, Fla., for the Bible School; Mrs. R. A. Smith of Wilson, N. C. for the C. W. B. M.; J. H. Mohorter of St. Louis for the two "team-sessions" on "The Whole Task of the Church," and "Sustaining the Whole Task of the Church"; and H. Galt Braxton for the Christian Endeavor. The solos by our Brother J. A. Carroll, of the McLendon Evangelistic Co., were a most desirable feature of the Convention music. And the Robersonville Orchestra gave commendable service in accompaniment. N. G. Newman, pastor of Elon College church, was received as fraternal delegate and spoke on "Christian Union—Its Prospective Achievement."

The two words that might aptly express the most out-standing features of this Convention are harmony and progress. Any thoughtful observer might have seen that the North Carolina disciples are evidently united in purpose, and determined as never before, perhaps, to get ahead with their work. The conditions of this harmony were finely stressed in the welcome address of J. M. Perry and the Convention sermon by Jno. M. Waters, both of which addresses were representative in a very large degree. The addresses on the United Budget gave facts for the inspiration of the workers, and the Convention, after prolonged deliberate, open discussion, unanimously endorsed the resolution to assume the $40,212.67 as the State United Budget aim for Missions, Benevolence, and Education in 1920.

The Wednesday night's speech by J. H. Mohorter concluded with an appeal for a voicing of sentiment as to the raising of a quarter of a million of dollars within North Carolina in a campaign for enlargement, of which $200,000.00 is to go to Atlantic Christian College for endowment; $25,000.00 for building the Southern Christian Home in Atlanta, Ga.; and $25,000.00 for establishment of the Raleigh church. The large congregation gave enthusiastic endorsement to this epochal plan, which it is expected will be executed within this Convention year.

An innovation meeting with popular favor was the election to the Board of Trustees of Atlantic Christian College of two of its Alumni namely, Jno. M. Waters and Hayes Farish.

The Convention voted to place a copy of the World Call in every College and High School Library in the State.

The Robersonville people lived up to their fine reputation in providing material things for this gathering.

Report of State Secretary C. C. Ware showed a thorough-going gain in total North Carolina gifts to the ten Missionary, Benevolent, and Educational causes of the 1919 United Budget, as compared with the previous year varying from 1½% to 192%. The grand total amount in cash offerings, exclusive of Men and Millions Movement was, $25,116.55. There was a gratifying increase, especially in the gifts to State Missions, the annual total for this cause alone being $4711.26, which comparatively is more nearly consistent with the magnitude of our missionary task in the "Old North State." This total includes a gift of $225.00 to our Permanent Fund for State Missions, which it is hoped will surely and steadily grow. Next North Carolina Convention will be at Goldsboro, November, 1920.—Dispatch to the Religious Press.—C. C. W.

COMMITTEE REPORTS, ROBERSONVILLE CONVENTION

RESOLVED: 1. That we express our hearty appreciation and gratitude to Robersonville church and the citizens of the town of Robersonville for their surpassing hospitality.

2. That we heartily commend the system of church grouping with located pastors.

3. That we urge the very closest possible co-operation between local district and State workers to the end that we may more nearly accomplish the whole task of the church in North Carolina.

4. That we commend to a restless world the principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for its ultimate satisfaction.

5. That the committee on Program shall be a standing committee, and shall be composed of the President and Secretary of the State Board of the N. C. C. M. C.; the secretary of the N. C. C. W. B. M.; the regional Bible School Superintendent; the President of the State organization of the Y. P. S. C. E.; the pastor of the Convention church and the President of Atlantic Christian College.

6. That we express our hearty and grateful appreciation of the service rendered by our State officers.

7. That we express our appreciation with joy and gratitude to our visitors from without the State for their excellent help on the Convention program, and the blessings brought to us by their visit.

8. That we urge upon our ministers and churches that they encourage in every possible way volunteers for the ministry and mission fields.

9. That this Convention endorse the 1920 United Budget for missions, benevolence and education, and that the quota for North Carolina of $40,212.67 for the ten causes embraced in this United Budget be adopted as the State aim. Furthermore, we recommend that the President of this Convention appoint an apportionment committee who shall distribute this State quota of $40,212.67 to the quotas of the several churches respectively. We recommend also that each church have an Every Member Canvass as soon as it is most expedient for that church to the end that the full quota at least of this United Budget may be provided during the year.

R. A. SMITH.
J. A. TAYLOR.
GEO. H. SULLIVAN.
Resolutions Committee.

After conference with representatives of churches asking appropriations we recommend the following:

That the N. C. C. M. C. give to Greensboro $450.00; Saratoga, $60.00; Tarboro, $180.00 for one-half time service, or $90.00 for one-fourth time service; Goldsboro, $400.00; Reidsville, $300.00; Fremont, $25.00; and to the Currituck Group, $150.00; with expectation of a man living upon the field.

We recommend that Wilmington be left for consideration of State Board and A. C. M. S.

We also recommend that in order to have a good man located in Dunn and care for the new mission at Four Oaks, we appropriate $300.00 to that field, all offerings made at Four Oaks to be credited upon this $300.00, thus lessening amount to be paid out of the State treasury.

In view of the possibilities at Terra Ceia, we suggest that our State Secretary consider opening work there.

We also suggest that the State Board consider the advisability of engaging one or more evangelists to do work in the State during the favorable season.

W. H. HOLLIDAY.
S. A. CONGLETON.
Evangelizing Committee.

We beg leave to recommend the re-election of the present officers of the Convention, namely President, W. C. Manning; Vice-President, C. W. Howard; Recording Secretary, P. A. Hodges; Treasurer, L. J. Chapman.

We further recommend that the following brethren be elected as members of the Board: George Hackney, J. W. Hines, and J. E. Stuart, with term for each expiring at our State Convention, 1922.

RICHARD BAGBY.
R. L. HILL.
W. H. STANCILL.
Nominations Committee.

We, your committee, wish to report the following:

1. That the seventy-sixth session of the N. C. C. M. C. convene with the Church of Christ at Goldsboro.

2. That the Convention meet on or about the first of November, 1920, the exact date to be determined by the State Board, and with due regard to local conditions.

J. M. PERRY.
W. H. IVY.
SULLY COOPER.
Time and Place Committee.

We beg to submit the following report:

1. Resolved that we heartily endorse the recent action of Congress in not allowing War Time Prohibition to stand vetoed, and that we endorse most heartily the vigorous enforcement of said law and the undivided support of National Prohibition when such law shall become effective.

2. Resolved that we deplore the present lax enforcement of the Prohibition law in the State, and that we will do everything in our power to aid the strictest official enforcement of said law.

3. Resolved that we endorse the great forward movement of the Anti-Saloon League to thwart all attempts of Brewery Associations in entering test cases to overthrow and render void War Time Prohibition and to weaken in advance National Prohibition.

4. Resolved that we endorse all Christian organizations which aim for prohibition and particularly the W. C. T. U., the Intercollegiate Association and our own American Temperance Board. We recommend that all of our churches remember the American Temperance Board in their annual budgets.

5. Resolved that we recommend to each minister of our churches to preach and exhort the members of their churches to exercise temperance in the soft drink habit and warn them against the excessive use of tobacco, the indiscreet attendance upon moving picture shows which do not give proper moral or religious education, and all other indulgences and participations which become not a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

J. F. ATKINS.
W. H. MARLER.
H. S. CARAWAN.
Temperance Committee.

We beg to report the following churches as newly organized: Antioch (Buncombe), Mt. Pleasant (Hyde), and Tarboro.

C. E. OTEY.
S. W. SUMRELL.
H. L. FREEMAN.
Enrollment Committee.

We beg to submit names of N. J. Rouse, J. E. Stuart, G. T. Gardner, Hayes Farish, and J. M. Waters as Trustees of Atlantic Christian College, with term for each expiring at our State Convention in 1922.

S. LEE SADLER.
GEORGE HACKNEY.
HAYES FARISH.
Educational Committee.

We beg to recommend to this Convention that in this day of radical commercialism, it will be most helpful for the disciples to get back to the study of the Bible in the homes daily. The family altar badly needs to be set up. This is especially necessary since the study period in Bible Schools has been cut down to fifteen or thirty minutes and not half the children in N. C. go to Bible School.

We commend the Bible School literature published by our own Publishing Companies.

We unqualifiedly commend the reading of the World Call in every disciple home, with the request to hand each copy on to a neighbor. We also recommend that a copy of World Call be provided for each Public School, College, and Class A. High School Library in North Carolina.

For general information on the work and movements in our Brotherhood, it is necessary to read our State and National papers, which we all know. Failure to read them will mean lack of loyalty, lack of activity, shortage of finances, and short-sightedness.

J. M. WATERS.
R. C. HOLTON.
H. T. BOWEN.
Literature Committee.

We, your committee, beg leave to report the following recommendations:

1. That the Bible Schools of North Carolina heartily endorse the work and seek the assistance of O. A. Smith, Regional Secretary for the Bible Schools in the Southeast.

2. That Schools of Methods be conducted in all Union Meeting Districts in sufficient numbers to reach all the Schools of that District.

3. That the new Standard Teacher Training course be established in all our Bible Schools in the State.

4. That the Bible Schools of the State introduce and use just as fully as possible the Graded System of Teaching.

5. That the Bible Schools of the State raise at least $600.00 for American Missions, to be used for the work of the Bible School Department of the American Christian Missionary Society.

6. That special attention be called to the November issue of the World Call, this being the Bible School number.

7. That we urge hearty co-operation among the Schools of the State in carrying out the aims for the local Bible Schools as set forth by the Bible School Department of the A. C. M. S.

8. That the highest recognition be given to the program of the Bible School Department of the A. C. M. S. for enlargement of work and Bible School extension.

S. LEE SADLER
HAYES FARISH.
GEO. C. ZEIGLER.
Bible Schools Committee.

We, your committee on Auditing, beg to report that upon examination of the Treasurer's books, we found same correct and in good condition.

We especially commend the efficient manner in which our Treasurer keeps his records.

J. A. MIZELL.
C. H. RAWLS.
J. B. BENNETT.
Auditing Committee.

Brother R. A. Phillips, a senior in Atlantic Christian College, appeared before the Committee bearing a letter of commendation and a recommendation that he be ordained to the Christian ministry. Also President R. A. Smith personally commends him to the committee for recommendation for ordination.

After a general examination the Committee finds that Brother Phillips has a commendable knowledge of the New Testament, the Church and the Scheme of Redemption; that he has had some experience in preaching; that he has a favorable personal appearance; and that he is a young man who bids fair to be a good minister of the Gospel.

We, therefore, recommend that Brother Phillips be ordained to the Christian Ministry in accord with the custom of the church, and that the ordination be intrusted to the Christian Church in Wilson, N. C., under the direction of the pastor, J. E. Stuart.

We recommend that Brother Phillips give himself to reading, especially in regard to Bible history and teaching, and the general history of the church. We also recommend that he closely follow the instructions of Paul to Timothy and Titus in regard to the minister's teaching and manner of living.

The cash total of $2,022.39 was raised for distribution as follows:

Cash, United Budget, Undesignated	$1139.04
Cash, United Budget, Designated	475.60
Cash Emergency Drive Collections	407.75
Total Cash	$2,022.39

These four efficient young men in the United Budget Field Service wrought a great result in leading many North Carolina churches to give to some extent to all of the ten good causes embraced in the United Budget. They presented the "Whole Task of the Church," and now we find as an evidence of their service for "sustaining the whole task," the following striking facts:

In North Carolina in 1918, only 70 churches gave to Foreign Missions; whereas in 1919, 113 churches gave.

In 1918 only 43 churches gave to American Missions; whereas in 1919, 100 churches gave.

In 1918 only 61 churches gave to the C. W. B. M.; whereas in 1919 about 100 churches gave.

In 1918 only 91 churches gave to Benevolence; whereas in 1919, 146 churches gave.

In 1918 only 12 churches gave to Ministerial Relief; whereas in 1919, 99 churches gave.

In 1918 only 5 churches gave to Christian Unity; whereas in 1919, 95 churches gave.

(2) The Support. Itemized Treasurer's report shows date, source, and amount of each State Missionary offering. The 1919 contract with the A. C. M. S. provided for appropriation of $270.00 for minister at Wilmington; $330.00 likewise for Raleigh; and $300.00 likewise for Charlotte, but, as we could locate no minister at any one of these points, no money was given to North Carolina by the A. C. M. S. this year. The State Board of Managers met quarterly as follows: in November at Wilson; in March at Greenville; in May at Wilson; and in September at Greenville. Summary of year's receipts for State Missions, classified as to source, is as follows:

148 Churches gave	$3,471.38
43 Bible Schools gave	409.45
Men & Millions Movement gave	605.43
Permanent Fund, (received July 10th, 1919)	225.00
Total Receipts	$4,711.26

There is held intact the following Government securities, ($318.99 received in 1918, and $177.58 received in 1919) which have been accounted in this report as cash, at face value:

22 War Savings Stamps	$ 92.07
18 Thrift Stamps	4.50
7 Liberty Bonds	400.00
Total Government Securities	$496.57

II. General Summary of the Year's Missionary, Benevolent, and Educational Offerings.

For the fourth time in as many successive years, we can report consistent gains in North Carolina in the cash offerings to the various missionary, benevolent and educational organizations. The total cash offerings for these various services are as follows: A. C. College, $6,172.87; C. W. B. M., $4,845.31; State Missions, $4,711.26; N. B. A. C. C., $3,681.36; Men & Millions Movement (regular), $2,531.65; District Missions, $1,887.12; Foreign Missions, $1,828.57; Emergency Drive, (calendar year 1919), $1,720.02; A. C. M. S., $564.43; Ministerial Relief, $377.09; Bible School Department, A. C. M. S., $279.10; Church Extension, $161.86; Christian Unity, $82.37; Temperance, $55.22; Grand Total Cash Offerings, $28,898.23.

This record related to the previous missionary year, shows the following: A. C. College, gain 1½%; C. W. B. M., gain, 10%; State Missions, gain, 64%; N. B. A. C. C., gain, 65%; District Missions, gain, 17%; Foreign Missions, gain, 15%; A. C. M. S., gain, 68%; Ministerial Relief, gain 32%; Bible School Department A. C. M. S., gain, 6%; Church Extension, gain, 34%; Christian Unity, gain, 192%; Temperance, gain, 90%.

III. Some Recommendations.

Inasmuch as the United Budget system in missionary, benevolent, and educational gifts of the churches is being observed, we earnestly recommend that each church set apart at least 14% of her entire quota of United Budget, for State Missions. This 14% is certainly the very least with which we can hope to maintain our constantly enlarging State Missionary service. If some church has a quota of $100.00 in United Budget, and because of personal pledges or special interest, gives $75.00 to some one particular cause in the Budget, leaving only $25.00 remaining of the $100.00 quota, and then finally gives the $25.00 with the understanding that that completes her quota, then nine causes are, in large measure, neglected, and State Missions receives only 14 per cent of $25.00, which is only $3.50, instead of $14.00, which State Missions is supposed to receive from that church. Thus State Missions loses $10.50 in one such specific instance. It can be readily seen that if such a custom prevailed throughout the State, our State Missions losses would be such as to paralyze our State work. So, we earnestly suggest that the churches adopting the United Budget will assuredly take care to see that State Missions receives at least 14 per cent of their respective quotas.

It is our conviction that a Church of Christ can be established in Raleigh if we go about it patiently, persistently, sacrificially, and with a vision that comprehends the central importance of our Capital City to the disciples of Christ within the State. There are some 25 disciples there now, quite as devoted as any group elsewhere in our State. They cannot establish the work alone. The disciples throughout the State are privileged to build our work in this last prominent State Capital of the South where we are unrepresented in permanent form. To this end, I recommend urgently to this Convention that some plan be endorsed for raising $15,000.00 net cash in a five year period in personal pledges of North Carolina disciples, which is the equivalent of $3,000.00 per year for five years. And, of this $3,000.00 per year for five years, we recommend that $1,000.00 per year be used in appropriation to the Raleigh minister's salary, and $2,000.00 per year to apply in purchasing church property in Raleigh which shall be deeded to the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention. Furthermore, we recommend that there be no soliciting of church offerings as such, for this Raleigh Development Fund, but that the entire $15,000.00 net cash be raised in personal pledges. We recommend also that this $15,000.00 shall be considered entirely separate and apart from the United Budget, so that the regular State Missionary service be not made to suffer dangerously thereby. Again we recommend that if this Convention shall approve of raising this Raleigh Development Fund, that our ministry of the State give the great strength of their pulpits to the informing of the brethren to the end that they may most intelligently desire to co-operate in its realization, and that wherever expedient each several church lend its preacher for a period of two weeks embracing two Sundays for engagement in team work that we may make this Raleigh Development Fund an actuality. (This recommendation was subsequently embodied by the State Convention in the Carolina Enlargement Campaign, and the amount agreed upon as imperatively necessary for Raleigh was increased from $15,000.00 to $25,000.00.)

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. C. WARE, Corresponding Secretary.

The Treasurer shall receive from the Corresponding Secretary all funds, and pay them out on order of the Board, keep an accurate account of same and make report at the Annual Convention.

Art. IX. The Annual Convention may annually contribute a percentage of the funds raised for missions to the Treasurer of the General Christian Missionary Convention, such per cent. to be determined by the Convention.

Art. X. The Convention shall meet annually at such time and place as may have been determined by the preceding convention. In case of the convention's failure to appoint a time and place of meetings, such time and place shall be selected by the Board of Managers.

Art. XI. This Constitution may be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any regular meeting of the Convention; provided, such amendment shall have first been recommended by the Board, or a year's notice shall have been given.

Art. XII. The Convention may divide the State into districts, to be known as Union Meeting Districts, and each district may choose its own method of works, and may contribute its collections for missionary purposes, or any part thereof, to the Treasurer of the Annual Convention.

Constitution Amended

Art. XIII. All who contemplate entering the ministry, and becoming members of the N. C. C. M. Convention, shall be examined by a committee of three on examination for ordination, appointed by the President of the Convention, and duly ordained by said Convention. But the Board of Managers may examine and ordain such applicants or appoint a committee to do so when the Convention is not in session.

APPENDED REPORT AND NOTE

Following is the report of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee, adopted at the Greenville State Convention, December 3, 1918:

We, the Committee, make the following report:

We recommend that the Section of the Constitution referring to the qualification, examination, and ordination of young men to the Christian Ministry should be more closely observed.

We recommend, however, that regularly ordained ministers coming into this State to preach may not be subject to the examination and ordination as above referred to.

Signed by the Committee,

THOS. GREEN,
J. F. TAYLOR,
ROBT. WORTHINGTON.

Note.—By subsequent action of this State Convention, a standing committee on examination and ordination was appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Managers of the N. C. C. M. C., before whom any candidate for ordination may appear at any time for appropriate action upon his request. This Committee is composed of the following members: P. B. Hall, C. W. Howard and J. R. Tingle.

COMPOSITE UNITED BUDGET REMITTANCES UNDESIGNATED

From April 25, 1919, to March 15, 1920, there was remitted from the Churches of Christ in North Carolina through C. C. Ware, State Chairman of the United Budget, a total of $3,397.68 in composite United Budget remittances undesignated. Of this total of $3,397.68 there was $1,509.78 remitted from April 25, 1919, to September 30, 1919, and the remainder, $1,887.90, was remitted from October 1, 1919, to March 15, 1920. This period, April 25, 1919, to March 15, 1920, of course, covered the entire period of such remittances. In due course all such composite undesignated remittances for the United Budget were distributed as per published percentages for the 1919 United Budget. So this $3,397.68 was distributed to the ten causes of the United Budget in twelve different remittances by C. C. Ware, State Chairman, amounting to totals as follows:

Foreign Missions	$ 237.87
American Missions	170.11
C. W. B. M.	679.65

There were ninety-six Churches of Christ in North Carolina which altogether gave this $3,397.68 in composite undesignated remittances for the United Budget. As a matter of course a good many designated remittances for specific causes in the United Budget were made through C. C. Ware, State Chairman, but please bear clearly in mind that such designated offerings are not herewith reported, for the simple reason that all such designated offerings to the United Budget are specifically accredited in the statistical columns of gifts of the 1920 Year Book of the American Christian Missionary Society, as well as our State Year Book, that is, if these designated offerings were made prior to September 30, 1919, but if made after September 30, 1919, they will duly appear thus properly accredited in the same Year Books of 1921. The ninety-six churches which gave this total of $3,397.68 in undesignated composite United Budget remittances through C. C. COMPARISON OF RECEIPTS

The following table gives comparison by years of the annual total cash offerings from North Carolina sources to State Missions, to Atlantic Christian College, and to the C. W. B. M., respectively. The comparison, as is obvious, covers a five-year period.

Year	State Missions	A. C. C.	C. W. B. M.
1915	$1,224.33	$ 356.69	$2,921.04
1916	1,965.29	1,228.09	3,213.42
1917	2,406.63	2,516.41	3,945.28
1918	2,861.54	6,081.52	4,367.68
1919	4,711.26	6,172.87	4,845.31

ABOUT BIBLE SCHOOL OFFERINGS

Every One Hundred Per Cent. Bible School according to National Standard of Efficiency makes at least four Missionary offerings. So any N. C. Sunday School, who would make good according to this standard, would make during this year offerings as follows:

1. For American Missions, on Thanksgiving Sunday and send to Robt. M. Hopkins, 108 Carew Building, Cincinnati, O.

2. For National Benevolence, on Easter Sunday, and send to J. H. Mohorter, 2955 N. Euclid Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

3. For Foreign Missions, on first Sunday in June, and send to Bert Wilson, Box 884, Cincinnati, O.

4. For State Missions, in October, and send to C. C. Ware, Cor. Sec., Box 164, Wilson, N. C.

As a matter of course all these offerings from Bible Schools will count in the United Budget.

FACTS OF THE HOME FIELD

There are in North Carolina 21,422 disciples of Christ in 197 churches, all of which are located in 44 Counties of the State, and ministered to by 67 active preachers.

The church property of disciples in N. C. is valued at $717,125.00, with indebtedness of only $36,341.00. This debt amounts to only 5 per cent. of the church property valuation.

There were 1,488 additions to the N. C. Churches of Christ this past year (1919); 1,372 in 1918; 1351 in 1917. Let us make it 2,000 in 1920.

Disciples are now paying their 67 active preachers annual salaries which total $71,884.92, which is an average per year of $1,072.89; in 1919 the average was $841.11; in 1918, $654.36; in 1917, $580.15. The 1920 gain among N. C. disciples in average minister's salary over 1919 is 27 per cent.; 1919 gain over 1918 was 28 per cent.; 1918 gain over 1917 was 15 per cent. There is still much room for improvement. Considering the high cost of the necessaries of life, a large proportion of our preachers are still unquestionably receiving less than living salaries.

Disciples reported holding of 93 revivals in N. C. this past year, for which they paid a total of $8,180.28, which is an average of $87.96 per revival. Roanoke District reported largest number of additions, 521, with Hookerton next, with 284.

For local church purposes there was given this past year by disciples in N. C. $137,533.84; for all Missions, Benevolence and Education, $28,898.23. We are giving nearly five times as much for ourselves as others.

For Missions, Benevolence and Education the disciples in N. C. this past year gave only $1.34 each, which is only 2½ cents per week, and only 1-3 of a cent per day. Let us pray and work to the end that we may do better, much better than a third of a cent per day, per member, for this extension of the Kingdom this year of grace.

W. O. Winfield preaches to the most numerous membership, there being 1,142 members in the four churches to which he ministers, namely: Beaver Dam, Old Ford, Bay Creek and Rountrees. W. A. Davis is next in line in this regard, preaching to a membership numbering 1,033 in four churches, namely: Bridgeton, Athens Chapel, Phillippi and Scuppernong.

Disciples have only sixteen parsonages in the State, namely: Asheville, Bethany (Pamlico), Charlotte (equivalent), Dunn, Farmville, Goldsboro, Greenville, Kinston, Pleasant Union, Plymouth, Richlands, Robersonville, Rocky Mount, Spray (First), Washington and Wilson. It is to be hoped that the number of parsonages will show steady, substantial increase, for, as a matter of fact, a good parsonage is, in many instances, the determining factor in the congregation's securing the location of a good preacher.

Eleven churches out of the 197 have no church property (building). The congregations in most pressing need of buildings are probably Raleigh, Charlotte and New Bern. The churches which are now completing some building operation, or seriously contemplating such constructive task in the near future are as follows: Asheville, Ayden, Bethany (Pamlico), Charlotte, Dunn, Gold Point, Grifton, Grimesland, New Bern, Oak City, Plymouth, Poplar Springs, Raleigh, Reidsville, Richlands, Rocky Mount, Rosemary (Halifax), Spray (First), Tarboro, Washington, Wilmington, Wilson and Winston-Salem (Fourth Street).

There are forty churches without any regular minister. This is a happy decrease from the same period one year ago, yet this number is distressingly large. Only two of the 25 full time pulpits are unoccupied.

Hookerton District this past year gave more to the C. W. B. M. than all of the eight remaining districts combined. One district, namely Roan Mountain, gave nothing to State Missions.

It is hoped that many of the resourceful rural churches will increase to full-time preaching in the years immediately ahead. There are only 156 churches in the State which have any preaching, and 133 out of these 156 have the non-resident, itinerant ministry of 48 preachers, practically all of whom have confessedly not the time on the field to cultivate an intensive pastoral acquantance with the disciples whom they serve.

Disciples have 140 Bible Schools in the State, with enrollment of 10,590. There are 59 churches without Bible Schools, many of which with well-directed local effort might rightly and readily supply this serious deficiency. North Carolina is a Great Home Mission Field!

BIBLE SCHOOL OFFERINGS TO STATE MISSIONS

Within the last State Missionary year forty-three Bible Schools of N. C. Churches of Christ gave total of $409.45 to State Missions. These offerings are credited (combined with church offerings) in the State Missions column in the large statistical table of this Year Book, but are here given separate, specific recognition. The Bible School offerings to State Missions remitted after the close of the Robersonville State Convention, November 6-9, 1919, are explicitly recognized from time to time in the registry of State Missions offerings published in the North Carolina Christian.

CHURCHES WITH "FULL TIME" RESIDENT MINISTRY, 1920.

It is to be noted that eight churches of the following "full time" list changed ministers during the year 1919. We also deplore the two vacancies, while we work and pray to the end that they may be well filled speedily.

However, looking at a brighter aspect, it is also to be observed that Dunn and Plymouth are two new congregations to enter the "Major League" of "full-time" churches and thereby set most praiseworthy examples for other resourceful churches to effect the same intensive fruitful ministry, who are now complacently enjoying only a "part-time" service.

ANNUAL STATISTICS, CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN NORTH CAROLINA, 1919

NOTE. The forty-eight churches from which no 1919 report could be obtained are indicated respectively in first column with prefix X. Data given for these is partly based on reports of previous years. The twenty-one churches with prefix D are decadent. We mean by decadent church, one known to have no current regular services of any kind.

It is to be noted that the A. C. College column is for the College year ending June 30, 1919; State Missions column, for the State Convention year ending November 6, 1919; District Missions column, for the series of four quarterly conventions ending August 30, 31, 1919; and the column for other Missions and Benevolence, for the year ending September 30, 1919, and, embracing Benevolence, Foreign Missions, American Missions, Ministerial Relief; Church Extension, Temperance, Christian Unity, and Emergency Drive remittances (calendar year, 1919). In all instances Bible School and C. E. offerings are combined with the church offerings according to information at hand. The column of Ministers' Salaries gives figures for the current year (1920), and comparatively is the most thorough and up-to-date record that we have ever been able to publish. The final line submitting the State's Grand Totals presents absolute totals, that is, the register comprises all offerings from Churches, Bible Schools, and C. E. Societies; from scattered, unattached disciples; from promiscuous assemblages; from colored disciples; and from all other sources within North Carolina.

Only the North Carolina part of the Roan Mountain District is given, as a matter of course.

Readers will please call attention of State Secretary to any errors observed in this Year Book.—THE COR. SEC.

CAROLINA ENLARGEMENT CAMPAIGN

ADEQUATE CONSTRUCTION OF DISCIPLES' "HOME BASE"

A. C. COLLEGE, STATE MISSIONS, BENEVOLENT HOMES

CAMPAIGN OBJECTIVES

I. For A. C. College, 250 students for 1920-21; 50 for definite religious service.

II. Addition of 2,200 souls to Churches of Christ in the Carolinas.

III. (1) From N. C.—$200,000.00 for A. C. College; $25,000.00 for Raleigh church; $25,000.00 for Benevolent Homes of Disciples at Atlanta and Jacksonville. (2) From S. C.—$3,000.00 for A. C. College; $4,000.00 for Constructive State Work in S. C.; $3,000.00 for Benevolent Homes at Atlanta and Jacksonville.

HOW THIS CAMPAIGN WILL TEST DISCIPLES

I. It Will Test The Disciples' Love of Their "Old Plea." Every cent of the money derived from this Campaign goes to serve aggressive advancement of pure New Testament Christianity. This Campaign is of the disciples, by the disciples and for the disciples. It is entirely manned, controlled, directed and administered by disciples of Christ, in whom it has its source, its service and its issue.

II. It Will Test The Disciples' Love of Their "Home Base."

Is it worth our while to have our own Christian College in our midst served by a Christian personal, with whom we have immediate contact, and who train our youth on native soil, to the enrichment of our civil life, and the notable upbuilding of the Church of Christ?

Is it worth our while to plant this Church of the New Testament in our own Capital City?

Is it worth our while to care effectively for the helpless, the needy, of our own Carolina "household"?

III. It Will Test the Disciples' "Get-Together" Possibilities. We have agitated "Christian Union" for over a century. Can we now unite among ourselves, in Carolina, with forward-looking, effective, co-operative service for attaining these worthy, well-defined objectives?

IV. It Will Test The Disciples' "Fruit-Bearing" Capacities. A thirtieth of a tithe of the actual income of Carolina disciples will put this Campaign over financially. Will Carolina disciples mobilize a thirtieth of a tithe of their income?

In the Christian parable of the two sons of the vineyard, the one does good talking, but no acting, and the speech of the other son is contrary to his Father's will, but in time, his action is right, and he is marked as the faithful son.

LET CAROLINA DISCIPLES BE FAITHFUL

DETERMINE NOW THAT YOUR GIFT WILL RIGHTLY REPRESENT YOU

AN EPITOME OF THE GOLDSBORO CONVENTION

The seventy-sixth session, North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention, was held in Goldsboro, November 8-11, 1920. Those who remembered how hard Goldsboro had fought on the floor of the 1919 Convention to attain the privilege of entertaining the 1920 Convention were gratified with the pluck of this Mission Church whose life spans less than a decade. Likewise the three hundred and fifty men and women representing the two hundred churches of Christ of the "Old North State" were grateful for the provision of the many Convention facilities given in full-hearted gracious fellowship by the local workers, and the friendly citizens of public spirit.

The civic spirit of the community was personified in the presence of Mayor Edgar H. Bain, who spoke an admirable welcome, and who also gave the Convention his benediction. For this the Convention was appropriately grateful, and for our state meetings we wish that there might always be a representative of the community at large to speak a cordial word of community fellowship, as did Mayor Bain.

The Convention sermon by Lee Sadler was a gem of spiritual thought, and force, and vision; the theme "Churchless America—Our Task and Our Opportunity." It was a call to the prophetic instinct of our preachers, that they use all the red-blooded energy potential to ministry for God, in building the New Testament Church; for all, the sermon exalted the truly spiritual over the material in the religious life of today.

Servants of the Brotherhood, otherwise called secretaries, were present as follows: Robert M. Hopkins, Miss Daisy June Trout, and Henry G. Bowden of Saint Louis, Mo.; E. B. Quick of Atlanta, Ga.; and Misses Etta Nunn and Myrtle Azbell, and C. C. Ware, who were "at home." No finer tribute has ever been paid our State Missionary Service than when Henry G. Bowden, native "Tar-heel," and now secretary of the great Men and Millions Movement, stated that about ten years ago our Wilmington Missionary had been instrumental in leading him into the Church of Christ, where, as we all know, his nation-wide service of today is so eminently fruitful.

The special sessions were all of notably high order. The Bible School Session was so good as to attract most favorable comment even from national workers, who go to such meetings everywhere in the Union. The United Christian Missionary Society Session on Tuesday night was meant to be inspirational and achieved its mission with power, while that on Wednesday morning was a free-for-all conference which registered highest marks of democracy, and did not conclude until answers to inquiries were acknowledged as sufficient and satisfactory, so that all might go home and work understandingly and heartily at our common missionary task. The A. C. College session was an impressive demonstration for Christian education. The renditions of the College Glee Club with their distinctive graces will linger midst pleasant memories. The Woman's Missionary Society presented a definite example of fine religious organization, and will undoubtedly have another great year in 1921, while Christian Endeavor "had its fling" on the last day and brought its powerful message for the service of the young people of the Church. The college stereopticon visualized, in most effective manner, some distinctive features of our work, at home and abroad, on Wednesday night.

North Carolina Missionaries told great stories of opportunities and needs in their field of today and tomorrow. This missionary work at home must be vigorously pushed in the nine cities and outlying rural fields with strong men on the ground, and sixty-five hundred dollars is asked for this business next year. While the cash receipts for State Missions at Goldsboro fell behind over two thousand dollars with respect to the State quota for State Missions for 1920, because of sixty-odd dilatory churches, yet it is expected that these churches will assuredly make good with belated offerings.

The Carolina Enlargement Campaign, creature of the Robersonville State Convention, reported solid constructive achievement in subscriptions aggregating $188,741.50. It is an epochal development, and is to be carried further within this year toward the original goal of $260,000.00 for A. C. College, state work and Benevolent Homes for Disciples of Christ.

Summarizing, we would say that the Goldsboro Convention is the greatest ever, with unmistakable indications in its fellowship of reserve resources which will tend to inspire us all to more fruitful service in the consciousness that "the best is yet to be."

Out of our Christian experience we are fortified with confidence for the New Year.—C. C. W., in November, 1920, North Carolina Christian.

COMMITTEE REPORTS, GOLDSBORO CONVENTION

Nominations Committee

We, the Nominations Committee, beg leave to recommend the reelection of the present officers of the convention, namely: President, W. C. Manning; Vice-President, C. W. Howard; Recording Secretary, F. A. Hodges; Treasurer, L. J. Chapman.

We further recommend that the following brethren be elected as members of the Board: W. C. Manning, L. J. Chapman, and F. L. Voliva. We further recommend that Bro. E. B. Quick be elected as Regional Superintendent of Bible Schools.

We also recommend that Bro. John M. Waters be elected as a member of the Recommendations Committee of the International Christian Missionary Convention, and that Bro. Claude C. Jones be elected as our representative upon the Nominating Committee of the same.

Signed:
C. A. BAKER,
RICHARD BAGBY,
P. S. MOORE,

Evangelizing Committee

The responsibility of recommending the distribution of missionary funds having been entrusted to us, we. your Committee upon Evangelization, after hearing and considering appeals from over the State, desire to make the following report:

We find pleasure in reporting that the United Christian Missionary Society will graciously assist us in the State in following places and amounts:

Wilmington	$420.00
Goldsboro	150.00
Greensboro	300.00
New Bern	400.00
Elizabeth City	100.00
Raleigh	500.00

In appreciation of this assistance and the further needs of the fields we recommend that the State Board be instructed to appropriate $180 to Wilmington, $250 to Goldsboro, $450 to Greensboro, and $50 to Elizabeth City. And in appreciation of the good constructive work of Bro. Hall at New Bern and the large undertaking of the congregation to erect an adequate building we recommend that the State Board be authorized to add $300 to the appropriation for his salary.

It is our judgment that Raleigh should have a pastor located with the church to serve at least part time and that the appropriation and arrangement be left to the State Board.

The committee appreciates the importance and value of the work in Reidsville and appeals for an increase of $300 in appropriation, and recommends that if it can be done without injustice to any other point that the appeal be granted.

We further advise that the following appropriations be continued:

Tarboro	$90.00
Fremont	25.00

and to the support of the Regional Bible School Secretary, $120.

We bring to the attention of our State Board Edenton and Durham, and suggest an investigation of the places with a view of opening work there.

With respect to the appeals from Rural Hall and contiguous churches in the Piedmont district and the Church at Whitakers for aid in Special Evangelistic meetings, we ask permission to refer both to the State Board for investigation and consideration.

Signed:

Bernard P. Smith, Chairman.

Examination and Ordination Committee

The Committee on Examination and Ordination makes the following report:

On examination of Brother Marion B. C., under the direction of Bro. J. E. Stuart, pastor of the Wilson Church, at a time to be agreed upon by the applicant and Bro. Stuart.

The committee also recommends the enrollment of the following ministers who have located in the state within the year:

John J. Langston	Dunn
O. E. Fox	Farmville
O. G. Gilbert	Rocky Mount
Wm. P. Shamhart	Greenville
H. S. Hilley, Dean of A. C. C.	Wilson

II. Owing to the fact there were no petitions for the 1921 N. C. C. M. C. we recommend that the State Secretary be empowered to hold the matter open for a reasonable length of time in order to give a chance for any Church desiring the Convention to make known this fact, and also begin to make an effort to find a church which may be induced to entertain said Convention.

III. That Bro. C. C. Ware, the State Secretary, make public his decisions and arrangements as early as possible in order to let the disciples in the State know where the next Convention is expected to convene.

We could locate no minister at Raleigh, but did locate a minister at Wilmington in June. The appropriation to Wilmington is therefore applying. The Board of Managers of the N. C. C. M. III. Special Report on Carolina Enlargement Campaign, Disciples of Christ.

In accord with action of our last State Convention, which approved and ordered a campaign within the State for endowment and equipment of A. C. College, and acquiring lot and building fund for the Raleigh Church, and building of our Children's Home in Atlanta, and equipment of our Home for the Aged at Jacksonville, Fla., the Carolina Enlargement Campaign, Disciples of Christ, was initiated and pushed as far toward completion as possible. After much preparation in organization and publicity, seven regular field workers, assisted by 14 ministers at various intervals, served from June 20 to September 4, in an intensive canvass of the field. A few available field workers continued the canvass until October 15. The spiritual results of this campaign are certainly greater than we could possibly measure; we believe they mark the coming of a new era for the Church of the New Testament in this resourceful field. There were given (to Nov. 1, 1920) 1216 pledges in 112 churches in North Carolina, aggregating, $162,106.50; and in South Carolina, 257 pledges in 25 churches, aggregating $26,635.00, making grand total for both Carolinas, 1,473 pledges in 137 churches, aggregating $188,741.50.

We earnestly suggest that we deliberately go on to a full realization of the goal set by our last State convention, namely, $250,000.00, as there are fully 100 churches in North Carolina in which either no canvass was made, or in which the canvass was largely incomplete.

Respectfully submitted,
Chas. C. Ware,
Corresponding Secretary.

BIBLE SCHOOL OFFERINGS TO STATE MISSIONS

Within the last State Missionary year, thirty Bible Schools of North Carolina Churches of Christ, gave total of $244.34 to State Missions. These offerings are credited (combined with church offerings) to North Carolina Churches of Christ, respectively in the State Missions column in the large statisticial table of this Year Book, but are here given separate, specific recognition. As is customary, it is planned that the Bible School offerings to State Missions (as well as church offerings) remitted after the close of the Goldsboro State Convention, November 8-11, 1920, are to be explicitly recognized likewise in next State Year Book (1922).

ABOUT BIBLE SCHOOL OFFERINGS

Every One Hundred Per Cent Bible School, according to National Standard of Efficiency, makes at least four missionary offerings. So any North Carolina Bible School which would make good according to Standard, would make during this year offerings as follows:

1. For American Missions, on Thanksgiving Sunday, and send to Robert M. Hopkins, 1501 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.
2. For National Benevolence, on Easter Sunday, and send to J. H. Mohorter, 1501 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.
3. For Foreign Missions, on First Sunday in June, and send to C. W. Plopper, 1501 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.
4. For State Missions, in October, and send to C. C. Ware, Cor. Sec., Box 164, Wilson, N. C.

As a matter of course all these offerings from North Carolina Bible Schools will be credited promptly and fully to the churches respectively in their account with the Joint Budget.

COMPARISON OF SOME RECEIPTS

The following table gives comparison by years of the annual total cash offerings from North Carolina sources to State Missions, to Atlantic Christian College, and to the C. W. B. M. (N. C. C. W. M. S.), respectively. The comparison, as is obvious, covers a six-year period.

Year	State Missions	A. C. C.	C. W. B. M.
1915	$1,224.33	$ 356.69	$2,921.04
1916	1,965.29	1,228.09	3,213.42

THE FIFTY-ONE PREACHERLESS CHURCHES

So far as we have been able to ascertain, the following fields are unoccupied by any regular ministry as this Year Book goes to press. It is earnestly hoped that the number of these shepherdless flocks will diminish steadily during the year, as they may be able to secure strong Ministers of the Gospel.

CHURCHES WITH "FULL TIME" RESIDENT MINISTRY, 1921

It is to be noted that nine churches of the following "full-time" list changed ministers during the year 1920. We also deplore the five vacancies while we work and pray to the end that they may be well filled speedily.

However, looking at a brighter aspect, it is also to be observed that Richlands is a new congregation to enter the "Major League" of "full-time" churches and thereby sets most praiseworthy example for other resourceful churches to effect the same intensive fruitful ministry, who are now complacently enjoying only a "part-time" service.

FACTS OF THE HOME FIELD

There are in North Carolina 21,536 Disciples of Christ, in 198 churches, all of which are located in 43 counties of the State, and ministered to by 71 active preachers.

187 church properties of Disciples of Christ in North Carolina are valued at grand total of $866,825.00, and the remaining 11 Churches of Christ in the State have no property of monetary value. If to this $866,825.00 there is added the material valuation of Atlantic Christian College, which is also the property of Churches of Christ of North Carolina, and which is conservatively estimated at $158,000.00, the grand total is $1,024,825.00. The 187 churches having property valuation of $866,825.00 have total property debt of $70,321.46, which is 8% of the total property valuation. The property valuation of the average Church of Christ in North Caroline is $4,635.42.

There were 1,850 additions to North Carolina Churches of Christ this past year, (1920), which is 24% increase over the number of additions for the preceding year. There were 1,488 additions in 1919; 1,372 in 1918; and 1,351 in 1917.

Disciples in North Carolina are paying their 71 active ministers, in 1921, annual salaries which total $81,245.65, which is an average for each preacher per year of $1,144.30. In 1920 the average was $1,072.89; in 1919, $841.11; in 1918, $654.36; in 1917, $580.15. As regards this important fact, the 1921 gain over 1920 is 6%; 1920 gain over 1919 was 27%; 1919 gain over 1918 was 28%; 1918 gain over 1917 was 15%. It was highly creditable that many of the churches acted considerately upon the increasing cost of the necessaries of life to their ministers, yet the current facts disclose that there is still much room for improvement in a large proportion of the churches.

Disciples reported holding 89 revivals in North Carolina this past year, for which they paid a total of $11,046.50, which is an average of $124.11 for each revival.

For 1920 Roanoke District reported largest number of additions, 526, with Hookerton next with 342. The three churches having largest number of additions were: Goldsboro, 128; Richlands, 85; Kinston, 82.

In 1920 for local church purposes, disciples in North Carolina gave $182,214.01, which is $8.46 per member for the year. For Missions, Benevolence and Education they gave $24,915.09, which is $1.15 per member for the year. In North Carolina we are giving over seven times as much for "ourselves" as "others." In fact, to look at our religious giving in broadest aspect we find that by adding together our gifts for local church purposes ($182,214.01), and our gifts to the Carolina Enlargement Campaign, Disciples of Christ, ($14,172.48), and our gifts to Missions, Benevolence and Education, ($24,915.09), and our gifts to the Men and Millions Movement, ($5,172.97), we gave entire total thus of $226,474.55, which is $10.51 per member for the year. This means that each of us average 3⅓ cents per day for the 313 working days in the year. If all North Carolina's disciples were tithers this would mean that the average income of each were 33⅓ cents per day. In reality, disciples in North Carolina gave approximately only one-sixth of the tithe of their income during the year for their entire religious activities, and really averaged twenty cents per week per member for their whole religious program in 1920. We believe that this record will be notably improved in the years ahead.

To Missions, Benevolence, and Education in 1920 in North Carolina the gifts per member in the various Districts were as follows: Hookerton District, $2.92 per member; Hyde, 26c per member; Jones-Onslow, 91c; Mill Creek, 88c; Nash-Edgecombe, 48c; Pamlico, $1.05; Piedmont, 80c; Roan Mountain, 8c; Roanoke, 69c. Thirty-seven churches in the State gave nothing to any cause in the Joint Budget for 1920 for Missions, Benevolence and Education. 161 churches gave the entire budget total of $24,915.09.

J. W. Lollis preaches to the most numerous membership. There are 1,270 members in the 4 churches to which he ministers namely Beaver Dam, St. Clair's Creek, Phillippi, and Wenona. W. O. Winfield comes next in this regard with 863 members in the 4 churches to which he ministers, namely, Pantego, Old Ford, Stokes and Free Union.

Disciples have only 18 parsonages in the State, namely, Asheville, Ayden, Bethany (Pamlico), Beulah (Nash), Dunn, Farmville, Goldsboro, Greenville, (equivalent), Kinston, Pleasant Union, Plymouth, Powells Point, Richlands, Robersonville, Rocky Mount, Rural Hall, Spray, (First), Washington and Wilson. Most of these parsonages have been acquired in recent years, as the churches wisely observed the increasingly great value of parsonages in procuring, holding and sustaining their preachers.

Of the 11 churches having no church property, 3 are decadent. The churches now erecting new buildings, or seriously planning same for near future are: Asheville, Beulah (Nash), Dunn, Grimesland, New Bern, Oak City, Raleigh, Richlands, Rocky Mount, Rosemary (Halifax), Rural Hall, Spray (First), Washington, Wilson (West Gold Street Mission), and Winston-Salem (4th Street). Church property of Mary's Chapel (Onslow), is deeded to Atlantic Christian College, and properties of several of the other churches are deeded to the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention.

There are 51 Churches of Christ in North Carolina without any regular minister. This is a deplorable increase of preacherless churches over same period one year ago. We are not exempt from the serious problem of shortage of preachers. Atlantic Christian College wrestles manfully with this problem, and thus commends herself to consistent, whole-hearted, brotherhood support. Atlantic Christian College men are now preaching for 51 Churches of Christ in North Carolina, 5 of which are "full-time" churches. In the vital matter of man-power, Atlantic Christian College is the missionary heart of the Carolina brotherhood.

To State Missions, in 1920, disciples in North Carolina averaged 17c per member. If this giving to State Missions is not increased in 1921 we are certain to be unable to assist adequately with ministry of the gospel such vastly important new centers as Raleigh, Durham and High Point, where the work looms now with challenging proportions on the disciple's missionary horizon.

Mission points now under cultivation, not yet organized churches, are 12 in number as follows: Gash's Creek, Oak Grove, (Buncombe), Piney Grove, (Buncombe), Wenona, Adam's School House, Tar Landing, Deep Run, Pine Forest, Lawson's School House, Heathsville, Durham, and High Point. In addition to these 12 mission points which now have regular or occasional preaching, it is known that the following fifty towns in North Carolina have in them scattered disciples where there is no church of Christ, nor any services at any time for disciples of Christ: Ashboro, Aurora, Benson, Bayboro, Beaufort, Cameron, Canton, Clayton, Concord, Edenton, Elkin, Fayetteville, Four Oaks, Gatesville, Henderson, Hertford, Hickory, Kenly, King, Lemon Springs, Lincolnton, Louisburg, Lumberton, Middlesex, Momyer, Morehead City, Morganton, Mount Olive, Newland, North Wilksboro, Pinnacle, Pinetops, Roxobel, Salisbury, Sanford, Scotland Neck, Selma, Smithfield, Southport, Spring Hope, Summerfield, Statesville, Turkey, Walnut Cove, Warsaw, Weaverville, Weldon, Winterville, Whiteville, and Windsor.

North Carolina in 1920 had the highest birth rate of any state in the United States. The birth-rate was 32.8 per thousand.

North Carolina in 1920 had the lowest death rate of any State in the United States. The death rate was 12.9 per thousand.

North Carolina farms in 1920 gave the highest money yield per cultivated acre of any State in the United States.

North Carolina has the lowest percentage of foreign born residents of any State in the United States.

North Carolina has the largest towel manufacturing plant in the world at Kannapolis.

North Carolina has the largest pulp manufacturing plant in the world at Canton.

Many more of the resourceful rural churches in North Carolina should increase to "full-time" preaching in the years ahead. There are only 147 churches in the State which have any regular preaching and 126 out of these 147 have only the non-resident itinerant ministry of 50 preachers who confessedly have not the time on the field to cultivate it intensively with due profit.

Disciples have 137 Bible Schools in the State, with enrollment of 11,318. There are 63 churches, or 31% of the whole number, without Bible Schools, many of which with well directed local effort might rightly and readily supply this serious deficiency.

North Carolina has the largest denim manufacturing plant in the world at Greensboro.

North Carolina has the largest hosiery manufacturing plant in the world at Durham.

North Carolina has the largest damask manufacturing plant in the world at Rosemary.

North Carolina has the largest distribution center of hydroelectric power in the world at Charlotte.

North Carolina has the largest loose-leaf bright tobacco market in the world at Wilson.

North Carolina in 1920 led by many millions of dollars each of the several States of all the South in Federal Revenue paid.

North Carolina disciples in the midst of this vast material devolopment can only hope to save their souls by intensified consecration, in the sufficient grace of Christ, expressed in ever-increasing faith and work in the building of the Kingdom of God!

NORTH CAROLINA IS A GREAT HOME MISSION FIELD!!!

ANNUAL STATISTICS, CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN NORTH CAROLINA, 1920

NOTE. The forty churches from which no 1920 report could be obtained are indicated respectively in first column with prefix X. Data given for these is partly based on reports of previous years. The twenty-three churches with prefix D are decadent. We mean by decadent church one known to have no current regular services of any kind.

It is to be considered: that the "United Society" column represents combined offerings of the churches for the year ending September 30, 1920, for Foreign Missions, American Missions, Church Extension, Ministerial Relief, Woman's Missionary Society, and Our National Benevolence; that the "A. C. College" column for the College year ending June 30, 1920; that the "State Missions" column is for the State Convention year closing with the Goldsboro Convention, (November 8-11, 1920,). In all instances, offerings from departments of the churches, such as Bible school and C. E. and W. M. S., are combined with the church offerings according to information at hand, and so accounted here. The column of "Ministers Salary" gives figures for the current year (1921). The final line submitting the State's "Grand Total" presents absolute totals, that is, the register comprises all offerings from churches, Bible Schools, and C. E. Societies, and other like organizations within the churches; from scattered, unattached disciples; from promiscuous assemblages; from colored disciples; and from all other sources within North Carolina.

Only the North Carolina part of the Roan Mountain District is given as a matter of course.

Readers will please call attention of State Secretary to any errors observed in this Year Book.—THE COR. SEC.

CAROLINA ENLARGEMENT CAMPAIGN

ADEQUATE CONSTRUCTION OF DISCIPLES' "HOME BASE"

A. C. COLLEGE, RALEIGH CHURCH, BENEVOLENT HOMES

CAMPAIGN OBJECTIVES

I. The splendid student body of A. C. College, 1920-21, (the best in number and spirit for several years) must be increased for 1921-22, and more young men enlisted for the Christian ministry.

II. The good record of 1,850 additions to Churches of Christ in North Carolina for 1920 must be improved in 1921 by more extensive and fruitful effort in Christian evangelism.

III. Plans: To increase Campaign pledges in the Carolinas from total of $191,041.50, (April 10, 1921), to $260,000.00 in 1921, to meet combined aims of the Carolina conventions of 1919, and prompt, full payments of pledges when due, that the noble, constructive ends may be really attained for which the money is subscribed.

HOW THIS CAMPAIGN WILL TEST DISCIPLES

I. It tests the Disciples' love of their "Old Plea." Every cent of the money derived from this Campaign goes to serve aggressive advancement of pure New Testament Christianity. This Campaign is of the Disciples, by the Disciples, and for the Disciples. It is entirely manned, controlled, directed, and administered by Disciples of Christ in whom it has its source, its service, and its issue.

II. It tests the Disciples' love of their "Home Base."

Is it worth our while to have our own Christian College in our midst served by a Christian personnel, with whom we have immediate contact, and who train our youth on native soil to the enrichment of our civil life and the notable up-building of the Church of Christ?

Is it worth our while to plant this church of the New Testament in our own Capital City?

Is it worth our while to care effectively for the helpless, the needy, of our Carolina "Household"?

III. It tests the Disciples' "Get-Together" possibilities. We have agitated "Christian Union" for over a century. Can we now unite among ourselves in Carolina, in unselfish, effective, co-operative service for attaining these worthy, well-defined objectives?

IV. It tests the Disciples' "Fruit-Bearing" capacities. A thirtieth of a tithe of the actual income of Carolina Disciples will put this Campaign over financially. Will Carolina Disciples mobilize a thirtieth of a tithe of their income?

In the Christian parable of the two sons of the vineyard, the one does good talking but no acting, and the speech of the other son is contrary to the father's will, but in time his action is right, and so he is marked as the faithful son.

THE GREENVILLE CONVENTION

From Dispatch to Religious Press by Claude C. Jones, Greensboro, N. C.

The Seventy-seventh session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention was held in Greenville, November 7-9. It was one of the best ever held in the state. The large building was crowded most of the time. The addresses were of a high order, and the spirit of the entire convention was perfect. W. P. Shamhart, the pastor, and his congregation were hospitality itself. President W. C. Manning, as in past years, made a splendid presiding officer, courteous and business-like at all times,.

B. A. Abbott of St. Louis, and N. J. Rouse of Kinston, spoke on world disarmament, and the convention sent the following telegram, to Hon. Chas. E. Hughes, Secretary of State:

"The Convention of the churches of Diciples of Christ in North Carolina, after discussion and prayer, unanimously passed the following resolution: That we earnestly desire the reduction of armaments and will firmly support you in the utmost step you may take in that direction."

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor D. M. Clark and Pastor W. P. Shamhart. C. W. Howard gave the response. Richard Bagby spoke on, "National Program of Evangelism" and H. S. Hilley on "Recruiting the Ministry." The convention sermon by C. B. Mashburn sounded no uncertain note. It was well received by the large congregation.

E. B. Quick, our Southeastern Bible School Superintendent, conducted conferences each morning on church problems and on phases of Bible School work. Talks were made by J. E. Stuart, J. A. Taylor, W. C. Foster, J. M. Perry, and others. A symposium was conducted on the 'Standard of Efficiency." Brief addresses were delivered by Mrs. McArdle of Norfolk, Mrs. Weeks of Tarboro, O. E. Fox, C Manly Morton, G. H. Sullivan, Claude C. Jones, and J. J. Langston. Brother Quick's report showed that he had visited 157 schools, attended 32 conventions and 89 other special meetings, delivered 329 addresses and sermons, traveled 27,922 miles, organized 13 new schools and conducted three Schools of Methods. Brother Quick is the man for this work.

The women's work was given a deservedly prominent place. Mrs. Richard Bagby, the president, made a most gracious officer. Miss Myrtle Azbell, the secretary, has devoted herself in a beautiful way to her task. Much regret was shown when it was announced that the limited funds in the United Society treasury would necessitate her being transferred to another field. We are still hoping a way will be found to retain her valuable services. Addresses were delivered at the woman's session by Mrs. W. J. Shelburne, Mrs. W. T. Moseley, Miss Etta Lee Campbell, and Mrs. Anna R. Atwater.

Officers for the new year were elected for the Women's Work as follows:

President, Mrs. Richard Bagby; vice-president, Mrs. Fred Taylor; vice-president, Mrs, C. A. D. Grainger; recording secretary, Mrs. Perry Case; treasurer, Mrs. J. R. Hardy; superintendent boy's and girl's work, Miss Myrtie Harper; advisory members; Mrs. Claude Kiser, Mrs. W. T. Cox, Mrs. McKay, and Mrs. Winstead.

The aims adopted are:

Sixty Woman's Missionary Societies; 1300 "World Calls"; 1500 members; Offerings $8000.00; 15 Circles; and 500 members in Circles.

Special features of this session were a touching little play by four children from Kinston and a "Triangle Play" by the Farmville Triangle Club. Profound grief was felt and expressed at the death of Mrs. Nunn of New Bern, a faithful Christian and the devoted mother of Miss Etta Nunn who for many years was secretary of the Woman's Missionary work in North Carolina and who in more recent years has been regional secretary.

The Christian Endeavor session was presided over by H. Galt Braxton. It was inspiring. Many fine reports were made by representatives from various churches.

During the college session, able addresses were delivered by Perry Case and H. O. Pritchard. College enthusiasm ran high. Atlantic Christian College is near to our hearts. It is a growing institution with an able president in H. S. Hilley and a strong faculty.

C. C. Ware, State secretary, read a remarkable report. Brother Ware is an unusual man. He has been secretary of North Carolina for seven years, and it is greatly to be hoped he will remain in this office all his life. Some interesting items from his report are the following:

Mission help has been given workers in Raleigh, Greensboro, New Bern, Wilmington, Goldsboro, Reidsville, Elizabeth City, Tarboro and Fremont. The missionaries report 130 baptisms and 87 other additions, and $42,519.26 raised. In the Carolina Enlargement Campaign, 1,944 pledges were made in 171 churches, totaling $212,556.50. Seven new churches were organized in North Carolina during the year.

The following were re-elected:

Officers of the State Convention: President, W. C. Manning; Vice-President, C. W. Howard; Recording Secretary, P. A. Hodges; Treasurer, L. J. Chapman; members of the State Board, C. W. Howard, P. A. Hodges, B. P. Smith; member of the recommendations committee, at International Convention, J. M. Waters; State representative on the nominating committee of the International Convention, Claude C. Jones; alternates Richard Bagby and W. J. Shelburne; members of the Board of Trustees of Atlantic Christian College, George Hackney, Claude Kiser, J. F. Taylor, W. C. Manning, L. J. Chapman, W. A. Davis, Dr. C. S. Eagles, C. B. Mashburn and Sully Cooper.

F. E. Smith of Indianapolis made a deep impression in several able addresses. C. C. Ware and C. Manly Morton delivered interesting and most helpful stereopticon lectures. Devotional services were conducted by J. E. Stuart, John M. Waters, John T. Saunders, Mrs. P. B. Hall, W. C. Foster, Claude C. Jones, W. J. Shelburne and B. A. Abbott. The addresses of C. Manly Morton, a North Carolina boy and now missionary to South America, were a feature of the convention. The "Old North State" is proud of him.

The Religious Education banquet, presided over by E. B. Quick, was delightful and profitable. The supper served by the ladies was delicious. The feast of short talks was soul nourishing. The following spoke: Miss Frances Harper, Mrs. McArdle, Miss Myrtle Azbell, Mrs. Atwater, F. E. Smith, Perry Case, H. S. Hilley, H. O. Pritchard, G. I. Hoover, and C. Manly Morton. President H. S. Hilley yielded a part of this time to Miss Christine Whitley whom he introduced with extreme praise as having won the honor of receiving the loving cup as the best all-round student of Atlantic Christian College in disposition, scholarship and athletics.

The music was directed by J. M. Perry, a trained and talented musician and minister. Special music was provided by the glee club of the North Carolina Training School, Miss Bass, C. B. Rowlett, Miss Arline Joyner, Mr. Emory, R. F. Pitman, J. M. Perry and Mrs. J. Knott Proctor.

The selection of time and place of the next convention was left to the Executive Committee of the State Board.

Evangelizing Committee

Whereas, the various mission points and fields of North Carolina have labored so faithfully and fought so heroically, their reports so heartening and their appeals so compelling, we, your Committee on Evangelization, after prayer and much discussion, are unwilling to cut the budget so as to in any way impair their unparalleled progress or curtail their splendid and most promising work.

Therefore, conscious of the sacrificing examples they have set for the disciples of North Carollna in both untiring labors and giving, and deeply touched by their appeals and need of financial aid to go forward, we beg to recommend as follows:

1. Moved to continue same help to Greensboro given last year, Moved, seconded and carried; $450.00.

Resolutions Committee

Resolved, I—That we express our appreciation to the Greenville Church for its splendid hospitality, and the most delighfful fellowship in the homes.

II—That we note the spirit of the unity of purpose and Christian love that has prevailed throughout the whole Convention.

III—That we adopt and push forward the program of evangelism offered by our National Secretary.

IV—That we take the fullest advantage of the Stewardship Rallies to be put on in our state during the next few weeks.

V—That each Church set about seriously and definitely to secure at least one young person to life service for the Church.

VI—That we realize the absolute necessity of making our college a standard institution.

VII—That we appreciate the splendid work and untiring efforts of our State Secretary and co-operate to the fullest extent in the State Missionary work.

VIII—We go upon record as being in fullest sympathy with the call for a Conference upon Disarmament and we call upon our people to build up sentiment and to pray for God's blessing upon the deliberations of that great body.

IX—Inasmuch as the enemies of prohibition are exceedingly active in their efforts to weaken and overthrow our temperance laws, we call upon our brethren everywhere to manifest their interest in prohibition and give to it their zealous support.

Time and Place Committee

We, your Committee on Time and Place, beg to submit the following report:

We recommend that the selection of time and place of the next annual Convention of the N. C. C. M. C. be left to the Executive Committee of the State Board.

O. G. GILBERT.
W. C. FOSTER.

NOTE—Subsequent to the Greenville Convention, the Belhaven Church unanimously invited the next North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention to meet at Belhaven, and said invitation was accepted by the Board of Managers of the N. C. C. M. C. on February 27th, 1922, and date of the next State Convention was fixed as November 7-9, 1922.

Bible Schools Committee

Your Bible Schools Committee herewith submits the following recommendations:

1. That, we express our deep appreciation for the faithful and most efficient leadership of our Southeastern Bible School Superintendent, Brother E. B. Quick.

2. That, we not only pledge but will give our very best support and co-operation to Brother Quick the coming year.

3. That, each and every School secure an efficiency chart, at once, and those who have been working for the 100 per cent. standard to complete this standard at the earliest possible date. Also, those who are just taking up this chart to reach at least a seventy-five per cent. standard before the next Convention.

4. That, the Convention urge every Bible School and Christian Endeavor Society to co-operate with the Regional Secretary in carrying out our National Aims adopted at the Winona Lake Field Workers Conference this year; this program to be sent out quarterly from the Atlanta Regional Office by circular letter.

5. That, whereas, the field and office expense allowances of the Regional Secretary have been placed on the net basis, a given sum being allowed by the National Office, the enlargement of the work depending upon the offerings of the Bible Schools, we urge that every Bible School and Christian Endeavor Society in the State arrange to take a free-will offering for this important work, either at the time the Secretary visits the School or Society or at a time decided upon; and that in order to reduce the expense of the Secretary, we suggest that entertainment be provided on the occasion of his visits.

6. That, in order to secure accurate statistics for the Atlanta and St. Louis offices, we urge upon the Schools and Societies the necessity for real co-operation with the Regional Secretary in this regard. That letters from the Secretary be promptly attended to, blanks and questionaires be filled out and returned without delay. Also, report blanks sent out by the State C. E. President or his assistants be promptly filled out and returned.

7. That, every S. S. Superintendent make a special effort to hold a School of Methods, or have his school take advantage of the nearest School of Methods, having as many departments represented as possible.

8. That, no School fail to carry out the pre-Easter Campaign, and to especially emphasize Decision Day.

9. That every bible School observe Thanksgiving Sunday, Easter Sunday and Children's Day by carrying out the programs furnished by the United Christian Missionary Society. We also recommend hat each School have the White Gifts Program at the Christmas Season. (All the above mentioned programs are furnished gratis by the U. C. M. S.)

10. We especially recommend that a copy of these resolutions be mailed to each Bible School Superintendent, and that the superintendent have these resolutions read and adopted by his School, or Worker's Conference.

Signed:

W. H. SEBURN, Chairman.

MRS. MCD. HOLLIDAY.

II. General Report on Carolina Enlargement Campaign, Disciples of Christ.

(1.) CAMPAIGN CONTINUATION. Four men were engaged in field service in July and Aug., in securing additional subscriptions to the Campaign. They received 461 new pledges of individuals in 81 churches for a total of $21,213, which was done in face of extraordinary difficulties attendant upon a severe economic depression. This makes a grand total in both Carolinas of 1944 pledges, in 171 churches, for a total of $212,556.50.

(2.) CAMPAIGN REALIZATION. In addition to strengthened office facilities and force which is used to the limit to the end that the pledges shall be paid, and the Campaign realized, we now have an excellent field force in W. T. Mattox and O. T. Mattox. They visited individuals in 57 churches in September and October, receiving total of $4,040.63, of which $3,807.31 is cash, $50 in one Liberty Bond, and $183.32 in promissory notes. Knowing as we do, that the Atlanta Orphans Home is now being built, and thus in need of all available funds, and that $9,300 is yet owed on the Raleigh lot, which is deeded in fee simple to the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention, and which must look to Campaign receipts to pay this debt, and knowing that our College at Wilson is quite an impossibility for the future unless adequately equipped and endowed, we are decided to be aggresive to the highest point of effectiveness in realizing these pledges.

From beginning of this Campaign in June 1920, to October 31st, 1921, inclusive, there has been received for the Campaign a total of $31,287.66 in cash, Liberty Bonds and War Saving Stamps, and $25,515 in promissory notes outstanding, making total of $56,802.66. If to this be added $1,481.72, collected in South Carolina through J. W. Bell, Treasurer, to May 10th 1921, and not handled by our Office, we have grand total in cash and securities for both Carolinas of $58,284.38

(3.) RALEIGH FUND. The Raleigh work is receiving 10% in distributions of undesignated receipts of the Carolina Enlargement Campaign, Disciples of Christ. To Nov. 2nd, 1921, there had been distributed to that Fund $2,431.43, of which $1,065.32 was by straight distribution, $662.98 borrowed for the Fund, as authorized by the State Board, $3.13 interest, and $700 in voluntary designated advances to the Fund by Campaign pledgors. As on Nov. 2nd 1921, there was bank balance of only $19.41 in favor of this Fund, therefore, $2,412.02 had actually been disbursed to the Raleigh work.

III. Some General Recommendations.

We are glad to report seven new churches this year, as follows: Deep Run; Durham; Everetts; High Point; Wenona; Vanceboro; and Yadkin Hill. As this new work has in most parts been started by voluntary pastoring and evangelism we recommend that our ministers throughout the State each endeavor to have at least one voluntary pastorate, and hold one voluntary revival during the year, to the end that the New Testament Church may be planted whereever there be reasonable opportunity.

In view of the critical shortage of men in the ministry and other workers to meet the needs of a growing church, we recommend that each minister preach at least one service during the year on "Why Enter the Christian Ministry," or kindred topic, and follow it up by directly encouraging promising young men to take up this vital work, and that in season and out of season, he urge the young men and young women of his community who will attend College, to enter Atlantic Christian College.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. C. WARE,
Corresponding Secretary.

STEWARDSHIP RALLIES IN NORTH CAROLINA

From November 13, to December 5, 1922, there was held 22 Stewardship Rallies in North Carolina, at which two or more of the following speakers conducted the meetings: F. E. Smith, C. Manly Morton, Miss Myrtle Azbell, E. B. Quick, H. S. Hilley and C. C. Ware. These Rallies were held at Wendell, Wilsons Mills, Kinston, Raleigh, Rocky Mount, Robersonville, Williamston, Plymouth, Washington, Bridgeton, Greenville, Belhaven, Ayden, Farmville, Grifton, Wilson, Goldsboro, Dunn, Greensboro, Rural Hall, Charlotte and Asheville. The topics discussed to the end of arousing the churches throughout the State to a larger Christian service, were: The scripturalness and the great need, and opportunity of Christian stewardship; the Self-Apportionment Plan, and tithing; annuities and bequests; Christian literature; and the work of the United Christian Missionary Society, A. C. College, and North Carolina Missions. Stereopticon lectures were given in the evenings by F. E. Smith and C. C. Ware, illustrative of the above topics.

The Budget Year for State Missions closes with the adjournment of each State Convention; the Budget Year closes for A. C. THE THIRTY-EIGHT PREACHERLESS CHURCHES

So far as we have been able to ascertain, the following fields are unoccupied by any regular minister as this Year Book goes to press. We are thankful that this is the smallest number we have had to report for a number of years, but it is earnestly hoped that this number of shepherdless flocks will diminish steadily during the year, as they may be able to secure strong Ministers of the Gospel.

CHURCHES WITH "FULL-TIME" RESIDENT MINISTERS

It is to be noted that five churches of the following "full-time" list changed ministers during the year 1921. We also deplore the four vacancies while we work and pray to the end that they may be well filled speedily.

However, looking at a brighter aspect, it is also to be observed that Roanoke Rapids and Rural Hall are two new congregations to enter the "Major League" of "full-time" churches and thereby set most praiseworthy example for other resourceful churches to effect the same intensive fruitful ministry, who are now complacently enjoying only "part-time" service.

SALARIES OF OUR PREACHERS

The following table shows how the annual average salary of ministers of Churches of Christ in North Carolina has risen since 1917. It is devoutly to be hoped that the average increase will continue, especially in the rural churches, until their ministers may be freed from the gruelling necessity of earning a very material part of their living from other sources than the ministry, that they may reasonably live in the fields which they respectively serve and may be able to respond to the New Testament ideal, to give themselves "wholly to the ministry."

Year	Total Salaries	Average Salary	Gain Over Previous year.

The subject of this sketch was born in Lenoir County, Dec. 7, 1854, and departed this life at his old home March 9, 1921. He was married to Eunice Haddock June 1878. He united with the Union Baptist at the age of fourteen, but in a few years he united with the Christian Church at Bethel where he remained a faithful and active member until his death. He was an Elder in his home congregation for many years and held communion services in connection with the Bible School and conducted regular prayer meeting services every Sunday night. In this way he rendered faithful and valuable service to his home church for many years and laid the foundation for more efficient work in the future

Later in life he decided to enlarge his usefulness and enter the active ministry. He realized the need of a better education and entered school laboring under many disadvantages to better prepare himself for his chosen work. He was ordained and set apart to the ministry by J. J. Harper, J. L. Burns and the writer ~~of this obituary~~, at the Convention held in Hookerton, Oct. 1890. He at once began serving weak and destitute churches, supplementing his small salary by farming and other manual labor. While I was located at Grifton in 1893, he took from me part of the Bible Course given at the College of the Bible, Lexington, Ky., also, preparation and delivery of sermons. This short course was a great help to him in his careful study of the Bible and preparation of his sermons. He was strictly a Bible preacher. While he was not an eloquent speaker, he always had a Bible message and the people heard him gladly. He was a preacher of unquestioned christian character, honesty and morality. He practiced what he preached and lived as he taught others to live. Like Enoch of old, he walked with God. His consecrated life gave force and power to his simple gospel sermons that made him a power for God. His ministerial life was largely spent among the weak and destitute churches, building up old ones and organizing new ones in new fields almost without money and without price. As I think of this noble man of God, I am reminded of what Paul said to the Church at Phillippi, "For me it is bettter to depart and be with Christ, but for you it is better that I should remain." For Bro. Sumrell it was better that he should depart and be with Christ, but for the weak churches that he so faithfully served, it was better that he remain that he might continue to feed them with the bread of life. He was a firm believer in the Bible and no one ever questioned his soundness of faith in the Divine Authenticity of the Scriptures.

He left a wife, four children, two sons and two daughters, one brother and one sister, and a host of friends to mourn the loss of one so near and dear by the ties of life. He was a loving husband, kind father, and a good neighbor. He has gone to reap his reward for a long life spent in the faithful service of his Master, but he still lives in the hearts and memories of his many friends left behind, and his good works still follow him. The funeral services were conducted by B. P. Smith, assisted by C. W. Howard and W. J. Shelburne, and the writer ~~of this sketch~~. His last remains were laid to rest in the old family cemetery to await the resurection of the just at the last day. A large congregation assembled to pay their tribute of respect to one so faithful and true.

J. R. TINGLE.

FACTS OF THE HOME FIELD

There are in North Carolina 22,397 disciples of Christ, in 199 churches, all of which are located in 44 counties of the State; and ministered to by 76 active preachers.

One hundred eighty-eight church properties of disciples of Christ in North Carolina are valued at grand total of $948,860 and the remaining 11 churches of Christ in the State have no property of monetary value. If to this $948,860 there is added the material valuation of Atlantic Christian College, which is conservatively estimated at $158,000, the grand total is $1,106,860. The 188 churches having property valuation of $948,860 have total property debit of $83,539, which is 8% of their total property valuation.. The property valuation of the average Church of Christ in North Carolina is $5,562.11.

There were 2,628 additions to North Carolina Churches of Christ, this past year (1921), which is the greatest year on record in this regard, with 42% increase over preceding year. One hundred eighty-three out of the 199 Churches reported 1,977 baptisms. Since 1917 there has been a fine consistent gain each year in annual number of additions. There were 1,850 additions in 1920; 1,488 in 1919; 1,372 in 1918; and 1,351 in 1917.

Disciples reported holding 118 revivals in North Carolina this past year, for which they paid a total of $9,823.02, which is an average of $83.24 for each revival. Six churches having largest number of additions throughout the year were; Robersonville, 111; Everetts 82; Greenville, 82; Goldsboro, 63; Grifton, 57; and Elizabeth City, 55.

In 1921, for local church purposes, disciples in North Carolina gave $216,418.91, which is $9.66 per member, for the year. For Missions, Benevolence and Education, they gave $21,054.30, which is 94 cents per member for the year. It is thus seen that in North Carolina we are giving over ten times as much for "ourselves" as for "others." In fact to look at our religious giving in broadest aspect we find that by adding together our gifts for local church purposes, ($216,418.91) and our gifts to the Carolina Enlargement Campaign, Disciples of Christ, ($24,459.82), and our gifts to the Missions, Benevolence and Education, ($21,054.30), and our gifts to the Men and Millions Movement ($3,308.64), we gave entire total thus of $265,241.67, which is $11.84 per member, for the year. This means that each of us averaged twenty-two and four-fifth cents per week, or three and four-fifth cents per day for the six working days of each week.. On the whole we are not giving as much as a fifth of the tithe of our incomes for our whole religious program. But this record for 1921 is nearly three cents a week better on the average per member than 1920, and we believe the record will continue to improve in the years ahead.

To Missions, Benevolence and Education in 1921, in North Carolina, the gifts per member in the various districts were as follows: Hookerton District, $2.19 per member; Hyde, .08 per member; Jones-Onslow, .55 per member; Mill Creek, .49 per member; Nash-Edgecombe, .68 per member; Pamlico, $1.04 per member; Piedmont .76 per member. Roan Mountain, less than .01 per member. Roanoke .42 per member. Sixty-three churches in the State gave nothing to any cause in the 1921 Budget for Missions, Benevolence and Education. One hundred and thirty-six churches gave the entire Budget total of $21,054.30.

Disciples have 22 parsonages in the state located as follows: Asheville, Ayden, Bay Creek, Bethany (Pamlico), Beulah (Nash), Charlotte, (equivalent), Dunn, Farmville, Greenville, (equivalent), Kinston, Pleasant Union, Plymouth, Powells Point, Richlands, Robersonville, Rocky Mount, Rural Hall, Spray, (First), Trenton, (equivalent), Washington, Wilson, (First), and Wilson (West Gold Street Mission). Most of these parsonages have been acquired in recent years as the churches wisely observed the increasingly great value of parsonages in procuring, holding and sustaining their preachers.

Of the 11 churches having no church property, 3 are decadent. The churches having completed some new building within the past year are: Bay Creek, Charlotte, Elizabeth City, Ether, Kitts Swamp, Muddy Creek, Oak City, Raleigh, Rural Hall, Spray (First), Stokes, and Winston-Salem (4th St.). Churches now erecting buildings are: Deep Run, Grimesland, New Bern, Rosemary (Halifax), Washington and Wilson (West Gold St. Mission). Some churches which contemplate building at an early date are: Asheville, Dunn, Everetts, Grifton, Rocky Mount and Yadkin Hill. Perhaps the churches most needy for buildings of their own are: Durham, High Point and Tarboro.

Many more of the resourceful rural churches in North Carolina should increase to "full-time" preaching of a resident ministry in the years immediately ahead. There are only 161 churches in the State which have any regular preaching, and 138 out of these 161 have the non-resident itinerant ministry of 53 preachers who confessedly have not the time on the field to cultivate it intensively with due profit.

Disciples have 154 Bible Schools in the State, with enrollment of 14,283. This shows an annual increase of 17 schools and 2,965 in enrollment. This increase is unusually high, and very gratifying. However there are 45 churches, or 22% of the whole number without Bible Schools, many of which with well-directed local effort might readily and effectively supply this serious deficiency.

There are 38 Churches of Christ in North Carolina without any regular minister. This is a gratifying decrease of preacherless churches as compared with this item one year ago. However, we are not exempt from the serious problem of shortage of preachers. Atlantic Christian College wrestles manfully with this problem and thus commends herself to consistent, effective brotherhood support. Atlantic Christian College men are now preaching for 59 Churches of Christ in North Carolina, 5 of which are "full-time" churches. In the vital matter of man-power Atlantic Christian College is the Missionary heart of the Carolina brotherhood.

In giving to State Missions in 1921, disciples in North Carolina averaged .18 per member. This is just .01 per member better than they did in 1920. The Greenville State Convention increased the budget of expenditures for 1922 by $1,400, to carry Raleigh and Charlotte, and maintain the preachers just located in these two big strategic towns. For 1922, if disciples do not average as much as .37 per member, instead of the low average of .17 and .18 which has obtained for the last two years, they will certainly precipitate an acute financial embarrassment for the State Missionary service, and retard materially the strengthening of the work in the ten vastly important and widely separated centers in the State which they have been intensively cultivating with gratifying success. If the preachers throughout the State put proper emphasis and thorough drive into this at the seasonable time, we may hope to carry forward the enlarged program without dangerous and drastic retrenchment.

ANNUAL STATISTICS, CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN NORTH CAROLINA, ~~1922~~ 1921

NOTE The sixteeen churches from which no 1921 report could be obtained are indicated respectively in first column with prefix X. Data given for these is partly based on reports of previous years. The twenty churches with prefix D are decadent. We mean by decadent church, one known to have no current regular services of any kind.

It is to be considered: That the "United Society column represents combined offerings of the churches for the "nine-months" year ending June 30th, 1921, for Foreign Missions, American Missions, Church Extension, Ministerial Relief, Woman's Missionary Societies, and our National Benevolence; that the "A. C. College" column is for the college year ending June 30th, 1921; that the "State Missions" column is for the State Convention year, closing with the Greenville Convention (Nov. 7-9, 1921). In all instances, offerings from departments of the churches, such as Bible School and Y. P. S. C. E., and W. M. S., are combined with the church offerings according to information in hand, and so accounted here. The column of "Minister's Salary" gives figures for the current year, 1922. The final line submitting the State's "Grand Total" presents absolute totals, that is, the final register comprises all offerings from churches, Bible Schools, and C. E. Societies, and other like organizations within the churches; from scattered, unattached disciples; from promiscuous assemblages; from colored disciples; and from all other sources within North Carolina.

Only the North Carolina part of the Roan Mountain District is given, as a matter of course.

Readers will please call attention of State Secretary to any error observed in this Year Book.—THE COR. SEC.

CAROLINA ENLARGEMENT CAMPAIGN

ADEQUATE CONSTRUCTION OF DISCIPLES' "HOME BASE"

A. C. COLLEGE, RALEIGH CHURCH, BENEVOLENT HOMES

CAMPAIGN OBJECTIVES

I. The splendid student body of A. C. College, 1921-22, (largest number of college grade ever enrolled in the institution) must be increased in 1922-23 and more young men enlisted for the Christian ministry.

II. The good record of 2628 additions to Churches of Christ in North Carolina for 1921 must be improved in 1922 by more extensive and fruitful effort in Christian Evangelism.

III. A grand total of $212,556.50 was subscribed in this Carolina Campaign Every practical effort must be made to effect prompt, full payments of pledges when due that the noble constructive ends may be really attained for which the money is subscribed. A. C. College must be endowed; The notes for $9300 on that most valuable Raleigh lot must be paid; our Atlanta Childrens' Home must be completed.

HOW THIS CAMPAIGN WILL TEST DISCIPLES

I. It tests the Disciples' love of their "Old Plea." Every cent of the money derived from this Campaign goes to serve aggressive advancement of pure New Testament Christianity. This Campaign is of the Disciples, by the Disciples, and for the Disciples. It is entirely manned, controlled, directed and administererd by Disciples of Christ in whom it has its source, its service, and its issue.

II. It tests the Disciples' love of their "Home Base."

Is it worth our while to have our own Christian College in our midst served by a Christian personnel, with whom we have immediate contact, and who train our youth on native soil to the enrichment of our civil life and the notable up-building of the Church of Christ?

Is it worth our while to plant this church of the New Testament in our Capital City?

Is it worth our while to care effectively for the helpless, the needy, of our Carolina "Household"?

III. It tests the Disciples' "Get-to-gether" possibilities. We have agitated "Christian Union" for over a century. Can we now unite among ourselves in Carolina, in unselfish, effective, cooperative service for attaining these worthy, well-defined objectives?

IV. It tests the Disciples' "Fruit-Bearing" capacities. A thirtieth of a tithe of the actual income of Carolina Disciples will put this Campaign over financially. Will Carolina Disciples mobilize a thirtieth of a tithe of their income?

In the Christian parable of the two sons of the vineyard, the one does good talking but no acting and the speech of the other son is contrary to the father's will, but in time his action is right and so he is marked as the faithful son.

LET CAROLINA DISCIPLES BE FAITHFUL
DETERMINE NOW THAT YOUR PLEDGE WILL BE FULLY PAID
